

It's a Boy—
In Fact, Five
For Mom Minnie

When Mrs. Lois Balsey's pet mamma kitty, Minnie, had five kittens several weeks ago, little did she know what notoriety was to befall her household.

She thought they were ordinary tiny kittens, some with stripes, others all black, but now Minnie is the talk of the neighborhood. At least among the feline following set.

All of Minnie's children were boy kittens.

Now, this, according to cat doctors, is as unusual as a cat not having nine lives. It just doesn't happen very often.

So with her little pink nose in the air Minnie is finding out that she's quite an oddity at the Balsey household, 617 W. 214th St.

Yep, Minnie is the cat's meow.

Hold Service
For L. Cook

Funeral services for Lyle Cook were held Saturday afternoon at the Inglewood Cemetery Chapel of Chimes, conducted by the Inglewood Elks Lodge.

Mr. Cook, 64, resided at 1742 Cabrillo Ave. and was employed at the General Petroleum Corporation here. He died April 30 at his home.

Surviving him are his wife, Lillian Reynolds Cook, three daughters, four sisters and two brothers. Also surviving are eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Arrangements were handled by the Stone and Myers Chapel.

Masons Invited
To Shrine Fete
To Grand Master

Scheduled as one of Shrine-dom's most colorful events of 1952, Al Malaikah Temple is staging a stag reception for Most Worshipful Grand Master Louis C. Drapeau in Shrine Auditorium Saturday evening, May 17.

Spectacular and colorful ceremonies are planned in tribute to the Masonic leader, a Superior Court judge of Ventura County, with Al Malaikah's mounted patrol, Golden Boot patrol, band, chanters, temple guard, stagecrafters and temple hosts participating in a pageant of splendor followed by vaudeville headliners, Arch L. Field, chief rabbi of Al Malaikah, has been placed in charge by Potentate Charles T. Reichert.

The only address will be that of the grand master.

Every Mason or Shriner must have a ticket of admission for this event.

SC Courses To Be Given
At El Camino College

Teachers from schools in this area will be able to enroll for summer classes at the University of Southern California on the El Camino campus, according to Merl Sloan, director of student personnel.

At the request of, and in cooperation with the SC registration office, facilities will be made available at El Camino College Wednesday, May 21 from 2 to 5 p.m.
