'Potpourri'

Frontier 5-1410

Vacation time is with us again, and our neighbors are beginning to hit the road in search of a change of scenery and routine. Mary Lou and Russ Hopkin and the girls left recently for San Angelo, Tex., to visit Mary Lou's family. Said family includes her mother, grandmother, three brothers and one sister, and all their respective families, so huge barbecues are in order as an ideal means of getting together.

By the time this reaches your attention time, the primary will be a thing of the past. Our earnest wish is that each and every one of you cast your vote—with a knowledge of the candidates—and file on those who sloughed off on their responsibilities as citizens.

Last week's May meeting of Las Vecinas saw another miracle, a large group of women wordlessly watching Eugenia Paul effect her flower arrangements. Seriously, it was most interesting, and I returned home to remove a wilted lone rose from its unbecoming container.

QUOTE 'N VEST

By Jack Treskes

When Einstein was a boy, he was the school dunce and even his parents feared he was sub-normal. But since he didn't realize what a dim-wit was, he plodded along to become the world's foremost connoisseur of figures.

We have also been labeled a connoisseur of figures (men's)—an appellation prompted by the flattering fitting of our custom made suits.

If you've stopped growing except around the middle and you want to turn in that middle for a chest and a pair of shoulders, come over here. We have the suit with the exact shade, color and weave that most compliments your natural color and build. It's fee-nominal. Treskes Men's Wear, 1319 El Prado, (between Newberrys and McCown Drug).

thereby turning over a new leaf. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of Las Vecinas' first life membership to Dottie Pomeroy, who was an outstanding contributing member despite illness. Dottie was presented with a plaque depicting the honor, and with a Beautiful white Cattaleya orchid.

Sailing to Catalina this past week-end with former neighbors Bob and Colleen Hoover were Chris and Jim Hall of Sharynne Lane. Sounds like a fabulous way to get away from the Memorial week-end traffic.

The visitor at the Barths home on Carol Dr. has been Lois Reid, Frankie's look-alike sister who has been awaiting the arrival of her son from Korea. Kenneth arrived on the light cruiser Manchester, which has been much action in the Korean fracas, but his length of stay and future plans are as yet indeterminate.
