

India Comes to Town

A touch of Indian life sparked Sunday's meeting of the Hollywood Riviera Woman's Study Group when Mr. Dalwal of Calcutta discussed motion pictures in India.

The meeting was held in El Retiro Park at 8 p.m.

Currently in the United States to study the cinema art, Mr. Dalwal illustrated his talk with short movies on life in India. A "Coffee and Question" hour followed.

Program chairman was Mrs. F. W. Zens, while Mrs. Ray Berquist was refreshment chairman.

'MOTHERS' TO HEAR CONVENTION REPORT

Torrance Memorial Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting at 2 p.m. Wednesday, July 2, at the American Legion Hall.

Mrs. William H. Erbe of Gardena, president, will preside, and will give a detailed report of the annual convention of the organization held recently in Long Beach. Other delegates, including Mrs. Oliver B. Hamilton of Lomita, will add interesting convention sidelights.

Mrs. Hamilton is a member of the national chorus of the organization, which presented several numbers at the convention program.

"This is America" was adopted as a theme song of the group on motion by Mrs. Esther Burgard, national music chairman of the Gold Star Mothers.

Words of the song are by John McLaughlin and music was composed by Maurice Gardner.

PTA Officers Attend 10th District Luncheon

Mrs. Claud Hill, president of 186th Street PTA, and Mrs. James A. Gauley, associate member and president of the Gardena-Wilmington Council, attended a luncheon at the Elks Club, Los Angeles, recently.

The luncheon was sponsored by 10th District committee in honor of Mrs. Ralph Lewis, president, and Mrs. J. Paul Elliot, past president. Local presidents and presidents-elect were invited to attend.

Hobby Show Chairman Expresses Gratitude

Mrs. Leo MacMillan, chairman of the Hobby and Arts Show presented in Torrance recently, expressed appreciation this week for the co-operation and aid given the committee by various groups in town.

"We wish to thank the city recreation department, the T. A. T. S., all exhibitors, financial contributors, committees, and the Torrance Herald, for helping make the show a success," she said.

Guests to Leave for N.Y.

Planning to return to New York City next Tuesday are Mr. and Mrs. Jay Berkowitz who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berkowitz, owners of Burk's Bargain Spot.

The guests have been visiting the Berkowitz home at 1629 Crenshaw Blvd., for the past three weeks.

'AT HOME' SAY NEW WED J. BOGDANS

The new Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bogdan are now at home, 1211 El Prado, following an early June wedding.

Bogdan and the former Doris Jean Ahrendt exchanged rings and vows at the St. Catherine of Labour altar June 7, 9 o'clock mass. Father Raymond Tepe officiated at the ceremonies, while attendants at mass were the bride's brother, George H. Ahrendt, and Steve Flynn.

Miss Ahrendt was given in marriage by her father, George Ahrendt, 4255 W. 178th Pl., North Torrance.

For her wedding day the brown-eyed brunette chose a gown of white tulle over satin. Fashioned with lace and a stand-up collar of lace and tulle, the dress was reminiscent of the romantic Elizabethan days. The nylon tulle veil was fastened to a satin and lace Juliet cap scalloped with seed pearls, which was made by the bride's mother. A white rose surrounded by delicate stephanotis blossoms centered the prayer book Miss Ahrendt carried as follows:

Mesdames Joseph Rubco, program; John F. Gilchrist, ways and means; Walter A. Schaefer, social welfare; Wm. J. Garrity, study club and education, press book; Jay Bailey, P. B. Clayton and George Witz, telephone; E. K. Cunningham and J. J. MacDonald, public relations; Frank H. Forester, share the faith; Keith Beck, legislation; Robert T. Alred, sunshine and sick; J. MacDonald and Leonard Young, hospitality; Ward Adams, U. S. O.; Bernard Harwood, parliamentarian; John V. Murray, music; John Melville, Camp Terrestia Pines; Frank A. Gately and Douglas Schnorr, extension; T. C. Turner, confraternity; and Joseph Terkimany librarian.

Mrs. Frank H. Forester, District Deputy, recently acted as installing officer at the "installation ceremonies at Court Anglicus, Catholic Daughters of America, in Los Angeles. A representative group from this court also attended.

Mrs. J. J. MacDonald received last week for the court an award from the U. S. O. for more than 50 hours of volunteer work at the Catholic U. S. O. in Los Angeles.

she walked down the aisle to become Mrs. Bogdan.

Miss Elvira Lindenburg was maid of honor. Her ballerina-length gown was powder blue tulle lace over matching taffeta. The lace bodice was complemented by a short jacket, also of lace. She wore a Juliet cap of tulle and lace, with a large tulle bow in back, and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Mary Katherine Freiler, in a short, pale yellow dress with tiered tulle and taffeta skirt, sweetheart neckline, and puffed sleeves trimmed in tulle, carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Charles Mocham was best man, while Richard Steven Ahrendt was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue tulle gown over matching taffeta. Her accessories were navy and her corsage an orchid.

Mrs. Bogdan, who traveled from Burwyn, Ill. for the ceremony, wore a pink faille suit with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the patio setting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sumerack, 4240 W. 178th Pl. Mrs. Sumerack, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Betty La Rosa, also aunt of the bride, served.

When the new couple left for a short honeymoon trip to Wilmington, the bride was wearing a navy blue suit accented by a red and white striped nylon blouse. Navy accessories and the white rose from her bridal bouquet completed her going-away attire.

Miss Ahrendt is a graduate of Torrance High School, where she was a member of Junior Statesmen and Tartar Theater Guild. She also is affiliated with the National Council of Catholic Women.

Bogdan, who attended Illinois schools, is a seaman first class stationed on the USS Toledo. He expects to ship to Korea about the 10th of August, his bride said.

A SON IS BORN TO G. FALLTRICKS

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. George Falltrick (nee Bernice Cline) of 1012 West 131st St., Gardena. Their first child, Kenneth Alan, arrived Friday, June 6, at 10:35 a. m., weighing seven pounds, nine ounces.

First-time grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Falltrick of La Crescenta and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulombe, formerly of Torrance, now of Los Angeles.

SUNSHINE setting matches the happy faces of Mr. and Mrs. John Bogdan as they pose for the photographer at a reception, following nine o'clock marriage rites early in June. The reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sumerack, uncle and aunt of the bride, the former Doris Jean Ahrendt.
