CECILIA PIKE TAKES NAME OF STAGNER

Cecilia Pike, now Mrs. Art Stagner, and her husband, just recently discharged from the United States Air Force, are now making their home in Paramount, Calif.
The young couple were wed at quiet ceremonies July 11 at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church. The Rev. Homer Miller performed the 7:30 p.m. double ring rites. Mrs. Mary Jo Vaughn and her husband, Wendell Vaughn, were the only attendants.

Following the wedding, a dinner for family members was held at the bride's home, 1658 W. 216th St. Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Cliff Allison, Wendell Vaughn, Frank Pike; Mrs. Eldridge and daughter; Mesdames Art Stagner, Sr., and Bobby Stagner; and the new bride and groom.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pike and is a graduate of Narbonne High School.
Stagner is the son of Art Stagner of Waleria and Mrs. Cliff Allison of Bellflower. He served 18 months in Korea as a sergeant in the Air Force.

Mouth open wide Art Stagner, takes the first bite of wedding cake, offered by his bride, the former Cecilia Pike. The pair became Mr. and Mrs. on July 11 at rites in the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church.

F. Steinhilber Home Scene Of Luncheon Bridal Shower

A large cake decorated with pink roses and topped with wedding bells foretold the September bridal story for Miss Bobbie Fitzgibbon when she was feted at a miscellaneous shower Monday afternoon, held in the El Prado home of her fiance's aunt, Mrs. Frank Steinhilber.
The cake centered the dining table, setting the theme for the luncheon affair. Mesdames George Bradford Jr. and Jean Bourdeau Jr. of Whittier shared the hostess role with Mrs. Steinhilber.

Stock Family Holds Reunion Picnic Sunday

Aunts, cousins and other members of the Stock family who had not met for years renewed acquaintances Sunday at a picnic dinner held in Anaheim Park.
The outdoor event was held in honor of Rev. Paul R. Stock, pastor of the Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church of St. Louis, Mo., and his wife, who are now visiting at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stock of Manuel Ave. and Mrs. Lala Stett, West Carson St.
Rev. Stock, who also is president of the Missouri Valley Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and his wife left St. Louis July 27. They stopped enroute to Torrance at Springfield, Mo.; Dallas, Tex., where they visited their daughter, Carol, a student at Southern Methodist University; Carlsbad Caverns, Painted Desert, Petrified Forest, Grand Canyon, and Meteor Crater.
They also visited relatives in Ontario, Calif.; Temple City, Orange, and Burbank.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stock will accompany them to Monterey, the Santa Cruz mountains and Big Trees, visiting cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Murray at Menlo Park.
Rev. and Mrs. Stock will then go to Camp Sierra, Shaver Lake, for a week's conference at American Christian Ashram.
Enroute home they will visit a brother, Rev. Roy J. Stock, at Falls City, Neb.
Gathering at the park for the Sunday reunion affair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stock, Mesdames Lala Stock, and Helen Putnam, Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stock, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. John Stock, Temple City; Mesdames Rose Paul and Esther Armstrong; Messrs. and Mesdames Henry Stock, Donald Armstrong, and Harold Wetzsky and children, Steve and Christine, Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Gen Jordan and children, Jerry and Cynthia, Rosada; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Pratt and children, Orville, Jr., Gary, Nancy, and Phillip, Alhambra.

SCHOOL BUS MAY TAKE ARLINGTON PLAZA KIDS TO CRENSHAW IN FALL

Arlington Plaza children may get school bus transportation to Crenshaw Elementary School, according to a special committee, headed by Mrs. Ralph Eystone, which investigated the situation. Report was made at a meeting of the PTA board Tuesday evening. Mrs. Dana Houston, president, conducted the session.
Under a new ruling of the school board, the committee said, when a housing tract is over three-fourths of a mile from the school and there are no sidewalks between the school and the tract, the school board may operate a school bus.
Mileage between Arlington Plaza and Crenshaw is nine-tenths of a mile, and the only connecting street is a two lane truck route.
In view of the new ruling, the PTA board members agreed to postpone further action until a report is available from Emmett Ingram of the Torrance School Board of Education.
"Laying Firm Foundations" will be program theme for the year, Mrs. W. R. Reeves, program chairman, announced. The group discussed welfare projects and the budget for the year.
Attending the meeting were Mesdames Frank Risca, room mother chairman; Merwin Evans, ways and means chairman; Houston; Reeves; William Skiles, hospitality chairman; Eystone; and Richard Hayes, publicity.
