Opening its doors this week in Jim Dandy Market Center at Torrance and Crenshaw Blvd., is the Sugar 'n Spice Bakery. A complete line of bakery goods will be featured in the trim, pink and blue bakery, according to Carl Lucas, general manager of the baking company. Customers of the bakery will be offered the same roomy parking facilities and other conveniences which have become so popular at the market center during the past few weeks that the stores there have been open. Opening of the bakery completes the line-up of stores in the shopping center. Besides the huge Jim Dandy Market and the bakery are a variety store, a cleaners and laundrette, and a drug store.

Reflections
BY J. HUGH SHEREFY, JR.
SCHOOL BELLS RING
School buses have right-of-way. Stop 20 feet in back or in front of them when they are loading or unloading children. School buses carry precious burdens—do your part to keep them safe.

When you see children going to or coming from school, walking or riding, slow down. One on a bike is like a cricket; you never know where it is going. BE CAREFUL. PLAY SAFE. SLOW DOWN.
Highly trained, professional men and women will begin their careers in our schools. Make them welcome. Call on them, invite them to be your guest, help them integrate themselves into our civic, social and economic life. We need them more than they need us. BE CONSIDERATE. THOUGHTFUL.
School bells will ring, warning us to be alert, to take our foot off the gas and put it on the brake, to drive cautiously. Children are going to their classes.
