

'Round the Riviera

By MARY WEBB
Frontier 5-3051

Riviera mothers have a date tomorrow afternoon, from 1 till 4 p.m. It's at the home of Judge and Mrs. Otto B. Willett, 221 Via Los Altos, and it's an open house hosted by Mrs. Willett and other board members of the Riviera PTA. Its purpose is to have mothers meet their PTA board and other mothers of the area, and to see the special white "Riviera" tee-shirts ordered by the PTA and on sale for $1.00 per copy for the small and medium sizes. Large sizes, made of blue material with a white school name, will cost $1.50. The open house will serve also as the PTA's regular silver tea and donations will help our new PTA off to a good start in the school year. Plan to be there; it promises to be a friendly get-together, and the coffee and cookies will be plentiful.

Speaking of the Riviera PTA, Mrs. Frances Dowling, chairman of the Safety Committee, reports that the Riviera Boy Scouts, through the cooperation of Henry Miller, scoutmaster, will act as safety patrol the first few days of school. Until such time as the mothers can organize one, their safety patrol will take over the duties of helping smaller children cross streets and keeping them out of traffic dangers. She added that school bus officials are planning to release a schedule of bus stops in the Riviera. This schedule is planned to be published in the newspapers within the week. Calle Mayor is planned as the dividing line for bus pick-ups, with vacant lots to be the bus stops as much as possible. The PTA asks that mothers caution their children to be careful of lawns adjacent to the bus stops.

A handbook on homes and gardens titled "An Acquired Taste" has been written by Mary Knowles Pierce, 425 Camino de las Colinas, and published by Vantage Press, Inc. of New York.

Into her book, Mrs. Pierce has compressed information on interior decorating, landscaping and exterior home styling. She has divided the period styling into several sections, each containing approximately 100 years in the history of homemaking in America. All the popular periods are considered and explained. As the book's jacket says: "You'll learn about the highlights of each style and how to adapt features to your own taste."

With her husband, John A. Pierce and their daughters, Cynthia and Anne, she chose Hollywood Riviera as her home. Mr. Pierce is connected with one of the metropolitan Los Angeles newspapers, as an advertising account executive.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wiseman, 348 Avenida Atezada, now refer to themselves as grandparents. Their daughter, Mrs. James Rowe, gave birth to a 6 lb., 7 oz., boy last August 14 at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, and his qualified the Wisemans for their new title. The baby has been named Jack Walter after his Riviera grandpappy. The father, James Rowe, is a third class petty officer in the U. S. Navy. He is stationed aboard the cruise ship U.S.S. Toledo which left the United States last month, bound for far eastern waters. Grandpappy Jack is busy making a small saddle to fit with his own so that the new grandson may be able to go horseback riding with him soon.

Jim Hennings reports his neighbors, Ted and Ellen Cogswell, 312 Via Pasqual, are celebrating Christmas already! Hennings claims the Cogswells have already strung up their Christmas tree lights all over the front porch, giving neighbors a joy and prompting them to check calendars. We called the Cogswells on this one, and found an easy explanation waiting. While building their new fireplace, their regular lights burned out. The only substitute they could find was their Christmas tree lights. So they merely strung up the green, red, blue and yellow beauties to finish the job. They admit however, that it does give a bizarre effect. They added that their neighbor Hennings broke out his record player the first night and played "White Christmas" at them, laughing as he went. It all makes a mental picture worth keeping.

On the town last week were Mr. and Mrs. Loretta Regan, 285 Vista del Parque. Highlight of the evening was the play "South Pacific," which the Regans report enjoying very much.

Reminder: You have only one week left in which to register to vote in the presidential elections coming up. If you have not registered as yet, make up your mind to do it this week. There are deputy registrars all over the Riviera, eager to help you to qualify to vote. In lower Riviera, call William Mason, 204 Via La Circula, FR 5-2692; or Mrs. J. D. Smilie, 225 Calle Mayor, FR 5-2868. Mrs. Smilie registers the folks living in the P.V. apartments. In upper Riviera, call Marge Brennan, 609 Calle de Arboles, FR 5-3581 or Lynetta Bowman, 311 Calle de Andalucia, FR 5-3919.

NEW NEIGHBORS: Mr. and Mrs. Max Van Tine and daughter, Betty, 15, have moved into their new home at 329 Camino de las Colinas. Mrs. Van Tine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garbrandt, builder, who live at 305 Camino de las Colinas. Mr. Van Tine also is a contractor-builder and has contracted several homes throughout this area.
