

Luncheon Launches Senior Woman's Club Fall Season Wednesday

Torrance Senior Woman's Club will launch the fall season next Wednesday, Oct. 1, with a 12:30 p.m. luncheon at the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt is in charge of reservations for the affair.

"Growing Up With Jade" story will be told club members following the luncheon at 2 p.m. by Mrs. Henry Lee. Mrs. Lee, a member of the Los Angeles Woman's Club, is a native of Shanghai. She learned details of jade merchandising from her father, a jade merchant who now follows the pursuit in Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, president, will introduce the executive board for the year. New leaders are Mesdames Groven C. Vandewenter, Delbert J. Thomson and Lee A. McCoy, vice-presidents; Kenneth Figgins, recording secretary; G. J. Derwin, corresponding secretary; E. L. Snodgrass, federation secretary; H. L. Mitchell, treasurer; B. W. Roberts, auditor.

J. Parke Montague, parliamentarian; Raymond Rogers, ways and means; and Miss Frances Dimitri, year book. Committee chairmen who will assist Mrs. Ewalt during the year are Mesdames W. F. Toombs, Americanism; Merrill Sahli, American home; Cecil J. England, Bible; M. M. Schwab, education; Dean L. Sears, handicrafts; Bada Pearson, international relations; C. S. Evans, legislation; S. V. Rauss, literature; Hugh W. Bowman, motion pictures; J. H. Burchett, music; J. P. Montague, parliamentary law; M. B. Millar, Red Cross.

Toombs, veterans' activities; A. E. Palmer, welfare and philanthropy; M. A. Bauman, assistant third vice-president; Rogers, assistant treasurer; Charles Ward and H. E. Massie, assistant reservations.

John MacDonald, assistant year book; A. G. Solomon, child welfare; J. W. Post, decorations; J. E. Stavert, historian; B. T. Whitney, hospitality; Paul F. Vonderhe, press; W. B. Hickcox, registrar; Michael Naackerman, assistant registrar; W. I. Laughon, song leader; J. H. Burchett, sunshine; Hal H. Jones, telephone.

Whitney, Carl D. Steele and Roberts, junior counselors.

Mrs. John Koshak, local woman, will be among entertainers at a Royal Neighbors program next Tuesday night to be held at the Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Koshak will present a monologue. Skit will be followed by other local talent, according to Mrs. Belva Brase, orator.

Nova Brothers from San Pedro will entertain with a series of vocal numbers, both solo and duet, during the first half of the program. Climax of the evening will be appearance of the Kitchenette Band from Redondo Beach.

Public is invited to attend the admission-free affair, Mrs. Brase said, and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Zoe Dethiers, 903 Acacia Ave., has just returned from a three-months trip to Montreal, Can. During her stay she was the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Fatte. Highlight of the trip was a three-day holiday at Quebec, and a visit to St. Anne de Baupre Shrine.

Council PTA Holds Open 'Working Together' Meet; Home Service Head Speaks

"Home and family is the basis of PTA work, but it's the department we hear least about," said Mrs. Daniel J. Dailey before a large gathering of PTA leaders in Torrance Council at the first open meeting of the year.

Session was held last Wednesday at St. Andrew's Parish Hall with the theme "Working Together." Officers and chairman of Council and its ten units attended.

Mrs. Dailey, home service chairman of California Congress of Parents and Teachers, was introduced by Mrs. Evar Johnson, program chairman. On the basis of her 12 years experience in that field, she said that home service is difficult to put across "because it takes imagination."

"Remember," she added, "you can never reach all persons in a group. There are different schools of thought. One must be able to work with intangibles. You collect things of the heart, mind, and spirit."

During the business session, Mrs. Robert Moffitt, third vice-president, announced that C. C. P.T.A. is supporting two ballot measures to provide for California school children.

Organization is urging "yes" vote on the State School Building Aid measure, which would make $185,000,000 available for loans to needy school districts for building classrooms; and on Proposition No. 2, initiative measure which would provide more money for school operation.

Workshop for unit chairmen was held after the meeting. District workshop will be held in San Gabriel tomorrow, Sept. 29.

Staff Sergeant John R. Garner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Garner, 803 Anapola, is now stationed at Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio.

The sergeant was on recruiting duty at the San Diego base before being transferred to his former unit, Military Air Transport Service.

Before leaving for the Ohio post, Garner and his wife visited at the home of his parents.

Other guests in the Garner home recently were Tuesday visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Scott of Des Moines, Iowa.

WCTU seeks Pro Advice On Alcohol

Professional leaders will be engaged by the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union to launch a program against the use of alcohol and narcotics by the youth, it was decided at a meeting held Friday of last week at the Nazarene Church, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The group was welcomed by the pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Brunson, Mrs. Vera Colclasure, vice president, and devotion were led by Mrs. Brunson, presiding at musical program presented by Mrs. Agnes Foster.

Report on the meeting of the Long Beach Federation to which the group belongs, was given. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mesdames Kenneth Wade and J. M. Corriea.

During the afternoon, a WCTU oration, which won first place in the University of Redlands oratory contest, and second place in the Southern California contest held in the Shrine Auditorium at Los Angeles, was read.

October meeting of the group will be held Friday, Oct. 17, 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. at the El Nido Baptist Church.

JUNIORS HOLD DINNER, INITIATION CEREMONIES

Seventy-three junior members and guests attended an initiation dinner last Wednesday evening at the Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Table decorations cleverly expressing the football season were paper pigskin programs, pennant place cards, and colorful fall flowers.

Following pledge of allegiance led by Mrs. E. W. Eckert, Mrs. H. P. Jensen, devotional chairman, gave the invocation. Club president, Mrs. Douglas P. Baldwin, introduced distinguished guests, Mesdames Phyrne Laughon, Charles T. Rippey, Dean L. Sears and J. E. Stavert, past advisors; and A. F. R. Ewalt, senior club president.

Advisors Mesdames B. W. Roberts, Carl D. Steele and B. T. Whitney then were introduced and presented with pins of their offices by Mrs. W. C. Boswell Jr., junior-senior director.

Other members introduced guests for the evening. Following dinner, Mrs. R. R. Dexter, first vice-president and program chairman, presented Elizabeth Talbot Martin, who entertained the club with satirical impressions.

New members then participated in candlelight initiation ceremonies conducted by Mesdames Baldwin and Robert Clayton, second vice-president. Initiates were Mesdames H. R.

Police Ignore Thief

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. — Frank Weiss had that sinking feeling that comes when you discover your car missing from where you parked it. Thinking unprintable thoughts, he marched to the nearest police station, reported his loss. Imagine his embarrassment — and mingled delight — when he got home that night and discovered his auto snug in the garage. He forgot he'd left it for the little woman to use.

Frank ought to tie a string on his finger, or better still, be sure he has full coverage auto insurance. Might not be so lucky next time. W. E. Bowen, Torrance 215.
