CHRISTIAN COWBOYS . . . This youthful group of singers, known as the Christian Cowboys, will present Sunday evening's program at the First Baptist Church of El Nido, it was stated yesterday. The public has been invited.

Double Service Held for Mother, Young Daughter

Double services for a mother and daughter killed in a truck-auto collision here Friday were held at the Church of Nativity Tuesday morning with Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiating.

Final Mass was celebrated for Mrs. Maria Olmeda, 45, of 1434 W. 218th St., and her daughter, Ernestine Maximina Mora, 7, of the same address.

The mother and daughter were killed in the same collision which claimed the life of their neighbor, Mrs. Gladys Quinn, of 1438 W. 218th St.

Interment in Holy Cross Cemetery followed final rites.

Surviving the mother and daughter were nine other children, including daughters Carmen Olmeda Corral, Bertha Acero, Eldeen Olmeda, Sarah Ardaz, and Mary Alice, Eleanor, Gloria and Irene Olmeda. One son, Arthur, also survives.

Rosary for the mother and daughter was recited at the Stone and Myers Chapel Monday evening.

Young Christian Cowboys to Sing

Eschol Cosby and his Christian Cowboys will present music and testimonials at the regular Sunday evening service at the First Baptist Church of El Nido this weekend, according to the Rev. Leland Fisel.

The young singers will have complete charge of the evening service and everyone is welcome to attend, Rev. Fisel said. The church is located at 182nd St. and Kingsdale Ave. in El Nido.

There's more to Going Pullman than a good night's sleep!

Ever stop to think why train travel—and especially S. P. Pullman travel—is such a restful, relaxing and satisfying way of going places? Actually there are lots of reasons—some big, some small. Mostly it's because everything is done so smoothly and unobtrusively for your comfort and pleasure.

What other mode of travel gives you all this? Full-length beds with full-size sheets and blankets; a private room of your own, if you wish, with its own private lavatory facilities; air-cooling and air-conditioning; a friendly porter to give you prompt and attentive service day or night; complimentary shoe shines; ice water at your finger tips; delicious Dining Car meals, courteously served; a Lounge Car for refreshing beverages, magazines, newspapers and congenial traveling companions.

For overnight or longer trips—whether along the Coast or to the East—Southern Pacific streamliners provide the very finest of modern Pullman accommodations. Try them for your next trip. They are the last word in luxury travel.

THERE'S MORE TO S. P., TOO! S. P. is a road to remember for your freight shipments. We have more miles of lines serving more Western cities and towns than any other railroad. For fast, efficient, dependable freight service—whether carload or l.c.l.—call our nearest agent.
