

NEW BRIDE... Mrs. Stanley Guy Ward, nee Betty Louise Ritchie, and her husband, a private in the U. S. Army, are now honeymooning in San Francisco. Wedding ceremony was performed last Sunday afternoon at Central Evangelical United Brethren Church. (Bob Roberts at Photo.)

BETTY RITCHIE, S. WARD EXCHANGE RINGS, VOWS

Double ring ceremonies last Sunday afternoon at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church united Betty Louise Ritchie and Pvt. Stanley Guy Ward in marriage. Four o'clock rites joining the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, 1645 W. 219th St., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ward, 25834 S. Lucille St., Lomita, were performed by the Rev. Homer H. Miller.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white nylon net gown with a three-tiered skirt featuring satin trim. Her fingertip-length veil was held in place by a pearl tiara, and she carried a white orchid bouquet surrounded by stephanotis.

Mrs. Jane Byrns, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor in an orchid taffeta and nylon net gown graced with a bouquet of American Beauty rosebuds.

Bridesmaids, Anne LaFlamme, Dolores Byrns, Ethel West and Alice Teigen were gownned in pink lace, blue net, green lace and yellow net, respectively, all over taffeta. They carried pink rosebud bouquets.

Barbara LaFlamme and Linda Holloway, in nylon net over pink and blue taffeta, respectively, were flower girls.

Phillip Ward was his brother's best man; Charles Ward LaFlamme was ringbearer, and Charles LaFlamme, Clyde Byrns Jr., Robert West and Sherin Ward seated guests. Setting the wedding mood...

The Social World

AGNES BOLTER, Editor

'Stork Story' FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Powell, 1553 W. 264th St., now are parents of their third daughter, Debra Sue. The 6 lb. 15 oz. infant arrived Oct. 15 at 7:34 a.m. Her two sisters are Janice, 5, and Cheryl, 2 1/2. Father is an inspector at Harvey Machine Co. Messrs. and Mesdames R. C. Clark, Norman, Okla., and Lushen Powell, Barling, Ark., are grandparents.

Lois Jean, 8 lbs. 6 oz., has joined Lucille Marie, 11, and Gerald Arthur Jr., 7, to complete the household of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tuck, 1427 W. 220th St. Father of the new baby, who arrived Oct. 15 at 4:58 p.m., is a truck driver with Richfield Oil Co. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tuck, Altadena, and E. D. Grose, Pasadena. Mrs. Rebecca Thayer, Gardena, is the great-grandmother.

PTA Expects To Serve 400 At Carnival

Four hundred ham dinners will be a main feature of Torrance Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association carnival, to be held Oct. 31, 5 p.m., at the school.

Details were decided when booth chairmen met Tuesday morning last week at the Marcelina Ave. home of Mrs. Hartley Carr, president. Price of the dinner will be 75 cents, the committee decided. Hot dogs, coke, pop corn, pies, and cakes also will be on sale. Mrs. Carr urged members to donate pies and cakes for the food booth.

White tee-shirts lettered with "Torrance Elementary School" will be sold at $1 each. Mrs. Lloyd Davis, ways and means chairman, announced the need of salable items for the country store. She asked that anyone having comic books, potted plants, bulbs, vases, canned goods, costume jewelry, white elephants, records, or handwork send these articles to school with their children.

Sobadas Set Costume Ball Saturday

Halloween witchery will reign over Attebery's Red Barn next Saturday night, Oct. 25, when Sobadas hold their annual "Halloween Masquerade."

Affair will begin at 9 p. m. and continue until 1 a. m. to record music. Many specialty dances, such as Paul Jones and square dances, are planned.

Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Committee in charge of converting the Barn into a Halloween scene is composed of Mrs. Laura Felker and Messrs. and Mesdames Regis Jones and Walter Schaefer.

Potluck Night Set by Moose

Potluck dinner, sponsored by Women of the Moose, Torrance Chapter No. 44, will hold sway in the Moose Hall next Wednesday night, Oct. 29.

Special feature of the evening will be entertainment by the South Bay Kitchener Band.

Twenty-one members witnessed installation of Alice Swanson as assistant guide at last Wednesday's meeting. She was seated to the office in place of Dorothy Rose, who died Oct. 5.

Thank you note from the Rose family in appreciation for donations and funeral services given by the club, was read.

THEY WENT 'ROUND CITY IN NOVEL GARB

Several girls ran around town Monday night last week in long shirts and levis bedecked with girdles, but it wasn't just a whim on their part; it was part of their installation into Tri Hi Y, YWCA club at the local high school.

Talking part in the initiation were Babs Hazzard, Claire Demone, Lynn Saine, Eileen Dawson, Norma Quinn, Mary Sue East, Lynn Lorenz, Berta Long, De De Schumert, Charlene St. Martin; Mary Ann Shearer, Norma Mead, and Becky Mitchell.

B'nai Brith Welcomes New Members Tonight

New members will be welcomed into South Bay B'nai Brith Women tonight at a buffet supper to be held at 7 p.m. at the local YWCA.

Mrs. Buchsbaum, second vice-president of Grand Lodge, will give the welcoming address.

Grandell School of Dancing also will entertain. Admission is free and guests are welcome, said Mrs. Claire Fein, publicity chairman. Reservations may be made by calling Helene Yeskin, 1624 Greenwood St., Torrance 2230-R.

Seaside PTA Hears School, Defense Tale

Over 200 parents and teachers attended the first open meeting of Seaside Elementary Parent-Teacher Association, held Thursday of last week at the school.

Following a potluck dinner served by eighth grade students, Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance schools, and George Powell, assistant civil defense director for Torrance, presented talks.

Dr. Hull discussed Propositions Two and Four, which will appear on the Nov. 4 ballot and which deal with providing more money for classroom building and school operation. Mr. Powell told defense story in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Newborn led community singing, while Cub Scouts led the flag salute. Richard Naumann was announced as new Cubmaster for this year.

While adults attended the business session, children were entertained with cartoons and movies of animals.

Budget and program for the year were approved. Jeff Olson's students received the room prize for having the most parents present.

New chairmen announced were Mesdames Lorne Bristol, tea; and H. A. Ross, courtesy; and Mr. Robert Evans, legs'atige.

PTA Carnival Rated Success

Second annual carnival held by North Torrance Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association last Friday netted $860, to be used by the group to further their PTA work during the year.

Mrs. Ralph McBee, chairman of the affair, was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Davidson.

Other committee members were Mesdames Ted Kelley and P. West, bakery; R. L. McDonald, master of ceremonies; D. Stoeckle, country store; Ott Fagnano and S. K. Odell, white elephant and handwork; William Sales, G. Babb and B. Mangiagli, fish pond; Robert Jackson and Robert Thomas, free dogs, and Les Bruffy and George Hood, fortune telling.

Messrs. Les Brittenfeldt and George Aokerman, penny pitch; John Muloney, rodeo games, and G. R. McDonald, announcer.

'FLYING HOOF' FETES FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating its first anniversary, the Flying Hoof Riders, a local mounted group, made the journey to Pioneer Days in Twenty-Nine Palms and walked away with second place honors.

The club, which has been active in local horse shows, participated in many events, with honors going to Miss Carol Marsh.

A 16-mile breakfast ride in desert country was enjoyed by Eleanor and Margaret Schmock, B. H. Cothran, publicity; W. A. Marsh, Roland Valiquette, Skip Schmock, and Larry Hatfield.

Riders' group is led by Lloyd Sanders, president; Homer Setliff, secretary, and Leslie Schmock, treasurer.

Madrona PTA Hears Tale Of Propositions

Judge Otto B. Willett spoke in behalf of Propositions Two and 24 at last week's Wednesday evening meeting of Madrona Ave. Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association.

Also included on the program of this first fall meeting of the group was an address by Albert H. Molter, field representative of the harbor area branch of Boy Scouts of America.

Group now is making an effort to sponsor a new Cub Scout pack.

Mrs. Thomas Smiley, president, conducted the business session, while members of the official board served coffee and homemade cup cakes during the social hour.

JOHN TAYLORS HOST FAMILY AT DINNER

The 1620 Manuel Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor was scene Sunday for a family dinner party.

Special feature of the day was a story of travel told by the Rev. Phillip D. Norvell, Mrs. Taylor's father, who has just concluded a trip to the Holy Land and the European continent. He exhibited many souvenirs from such places as Cairo, Rome, Jerusalem, and London, and presented each grandchild with a memento of the trip.

Guests were Rev. Norvell, his wife and Dorothy of Paramount, and Mrs. Taylor's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip J. Norvell and children, Patty and Dawn, of Downey.

Girls' League Gathering... Officers of Torrance High School Girls' League count up the number of delegates from South Bay high schools attending the Girls' League conference yesterday at the local high school. Standing is Betsy Shaw, president; while seated, l. to r., are Sally Horawaka, treasurer; Pat Garrison, vice-president, and Mary Ann Shearer, historian. Mary Sue Easley, secretary, also had a hand in conclave arrangements.

Rush Tea Set By Sorority

Rushes of Theta Nu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will be honored Sunday, Nov. 2, at a preferential tea to be held from 2 to 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Harold Roberts, 926 Maple Ave.

Plans for the affair were made at last week's Wednesday meeting, held at the home of Miss Verna Porter, 1066 Sartori Ave.

Social committee, headed by Mrs. Jane Pierce and composed of Mrs. Roberts and Miss Dorothy Sandstrom, will be in charge of decorations and refreshments for the afternoon event.

The following Wednesday, Nov. 5, members will meet at the home of Mrs. Stewart Moore, 2218-B Cabrillo Ave. to plan pledge ceremony for the new initiates.

THS Girls' League Is Conclave Hostess

Torrance High School Girls' League played hostess yesterday afternoon to similar organizations in all South Bay high schools.

The 80 visitors, including over 60 delegates and 16 advisors, registered in the foyer of the auditorium at 12:55 p.m., then responded to an aud. call at 1 o'clock for a short program featuring a capella number, skits, and introduction of Girls' League presidents from each school.

Discussion groups highlighted the afternoon. Presidents hashed over leadership problems, while other members discussed new girl orientation programs, ways and means projects, social activities and social welfare.

Climax of the meeting was a refreshment hour in the school cafeteria. Each school presented a skit or song for entertainment.

Conference, a worthwhile event, according to local League President Betsy Shaw, adjourned at 3:30 p. m.

RICHARD BANS TELL GRANDCHILD'S BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ban, 1412 Crenshaw Blvd., became grandparents last Friday at 6:37 p. m. when Antoinette Kaineure was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Glascock, 1444 Chestnut St., Long Beach. Mrs. Glascock, the former Madeline Ban, The 6 lb. 5 oz. infant, first forbound, they expect to tour the Glascocks, was born at St. Washington D. C. and New Or-Mary's Hospital in Long Beach, laans.

G. Easthams Take Trip

Mrs. G. M. Eastham, 1533 Addison Rd., Palos Verdes Estates, left Friday last week to join her husband in Chicago, Ill., on a combined business and pleasure trip.

The Easthams will be gone about two weeks, and plan to visit relatives in Chicago and friends in New York. Homeward bound, they expect to tour the Glascocks, was born at St. Washington D. C. and New Or-Mary's Hospital in Long Beach, laans.

75 Hear Tale Of Proposals

Nearly 75 people gathered at the local YWCA last Monday night to hear Judge Otto B. Willett discuss proposed amendments which will appear on the Nov. 4 ballot.

Sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club, the talk, following a club dinner, was a non-partisan analysis of each proposal. Guests received bulletins and sample ballots to aid their understanding of the discussion.

Among those attending were Mesdames James Wilkes and Tom Watson of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mr. Dale Iseberg of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Lyle J. O'Hara, leader of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America.

IT'S NEW!
Beautee-fit
ADJUSTABAND

Discover this wonderful new Beautee-fit bra with the criss-cross band that hugs your diaphragm and "gives" just enough with your every movement to make it the most comfortable brassiere you've ever worn. A smartly rounded contour is assured by the famous loop-over stitched cups.

White nylon taffeta and marquisette.
A, B, and C cups
$3.95

It breathes with you
Patented elastic inserts
"give" when you breathe.

STRUM'S
Department Store
1261 Sartori Torrance

PTA Carnival Rated Success

Second annual carnival held by North Torrance Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association last Friday netted $860, to be used by the group to further their PTA work during the year.

Mrs. Ralph McBee, chairman of the affair, was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Davidson.

Other committee members were Mesdames Ted Kelley and P. West, bakery; R. L. McDonald, master of ceremonies; D. Stoeckle, country store; Ott Fagnano and S. K. Odell, white elephant and handwork; William Sales, G. Babb and B. Mangiagli, fish pond; Robert Jackson and Robert Thomas, free dogs, and Les Bruffy and George Hood, fortune telling.

Messrs. Les Brittenfeldt and George Aokerman, penny pitch; John Muloney, rodeo games, and G. R. McDonald, announcer.

'FLYING HOOF' FETES FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating its first anniversary, the Flying Hoof Riders, a local mounted group, made the journey to Pioneer Days in Twenty-Nine Palms and walked away with second place honors.

The club, which has been active in local horse shows, participated in many events, with honors going to Miss Carol Marsh.

A 16-mile breakfast ride in desert country was enjoyed by Eleanor and Margaret Schmock, B. H. Cothran, publicity; W. A. Marsh, Roland Valiquette, Skip Schmock, and Larry Hatfield.

Riders' group is led by Lloyd Sanders, president; Homer Setliff, secretary, and Leslie Schmock, treasurer.

at the Gay Shop

Featherweight quilted novelty taffeta jumper with full circular skirt cinched at the waist with the new elastic cinch belt; massive patch pocket piped in black. Comes in fine stripes and window pane checks. Col. red, green, blue, and ginger.

$14.95

USE OUR BUDGET PLAN
NO DOWN PAYMENT!
20 WEEKS TO PAY

1319 SARTORI
Phone Torrance 818

"great moment" satin slip
by Artemis

great elegance at a moderate price

Elegance gleams from every inch of this fine rayon crepe-back satin slip. Opulent blossoms embroidered on nylon sheer add richness to the wide lace-trimmed bodice... and a beautiful lace flounce is ruffled to the lace-edged skirt. White, sizes 32 to 40.

$5.95

SAM LEVY
DEPARTMENT STORE
1307-1313 SARTORI AVENUE,
TORRANCE
— Open Friday Evenings 7:11 9 —