

TARTARS, REDONDO BATTLE

'Babes to Host Seahawks In Bay League Skirmish

Coach Don Porter's Torrance Bees play host to the winsickling Redondo Midgets this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Torrance High School grass.

The local squad goes into the fray as slight favorites by virtue of their 1-1 league standing. The Seahawks have failed to connect with a win so far in the season.

Playing with the services of a full crew, the Tartarbabes should be rarin' to go after battling to a 14-14 deadlock with Montebello in a non-loop tussle last week.

Carlos Skaggs and Dick Lindenberg will be counted on heavily to perform today—Lindenberg has been out with an illness and unable to take part in the grid wars.

Other local bright spots are Don Firth, Jerry Burns, Dennis Hester, Skip Smith and Walt McHenry.

Torrance boasts a win over Leuzinger but lost to Santa Monica while the Hawks have lost to Inglewood and Beverly Hills.

SPORTS

Moose Bowlers Continue Ahead

Moose Club bowlers continued to keep their squad at the top of the pack in the Service Club Bowling League, as they gathered up 18 wins against 10 losses in play. Lions Club Team No. 2 is second with 17 victories, followed by the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen, Lions Club Team No. 2, Junior Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, Walteria Business Men and Lutheran Men's Club.

Fred Lydy is key man for the Moose men with a 214 high game and a 151 average. But B. Curry of the Junior Chamber squad boasts individual high game record for the league, with a 252, including handicap, offering.

TARTARS' DAN MAYERS ... Over the Ball

Squads Rated Even For League Tussle

Button up your overcoat and hold your hat for the Torrance Tartars tomorrow night take on a tough Redondo eleven at the usually foggy Seahawk bowl in a major Bay League encounter.

With both squads listed once on the won and once on the lost columns, the game means virtually a life-or-death chance to stay in the money for a shot at second place in the top-heavy conference. Santa Monica has a strong hold on the championship.

Indications point to a battle of the backs as both Torrance and the hosts rely heavily on ground attacks for a scoring punch.

Sharpens Cleats

Coach Cliff Graybehl this week sharpened the cleats of spinners Harry Blyss and Burt Smith with hopes that both break-away artists will continue their up-to-now records.

Big Beryl Jones, booming Tartar fullback, also is in top shape. Jones is a sure-fire contender for an All-League post.

But the Hawks, warn Coach Bob Cardona, will counter with a fleet-footed Doug Dick who already has zipped to eight touchdowns and tallied 10 conversions in five meets. The husky junior rounds up a cracker-jack backfield aggregation of Bob Weiss, Fred London and Bill Bobo. London is one of the Bay League's best quarterbacks, while Dick excels in the shorter races.

Strong Line

Harlan Geach and Fabian Abram will have to match blocks with the locals' Chuck Bingham and Jim O'Hara at the tackle jobs; while John King and Tom Hutchinson may find that it's no easy task pushing through Ted Marcoux and Frank Christensen, at guard.

Torrance, with a 1-1 mark—a win over Leuzinger and a loss to Santa Monica—undoubtedly have brought a few beads of perspiration to the brows of the Hawks. The smashing 49-0 victory over Montebello in a non-loop contest last week is something for anyone to think about.

Redondo, however, also boasts a 1-1 record, with a 14-12 victory over Beverly Hills and one TD loss to Inglewood's powerhouse eleven.

Cardona runs his Redondites out of the split-T and likes to mix up his running attack with some passing by Weiss.

Try Aerial Attack

Should the ground gains get small, Coach Cliff Graybehl will put in QB Jerry Farrar to cut loose with an aerial barrage. With Farrar on the throwing end and Larry Roy on Burt Smith on the snagging side, each toss should be worth a good gain.

Roy also excels in the point-after-touchdown department; he made seven mouth-watering conversions last week.

Others on the regular roster for the Maroon and Gray gang are Dan Mayers, center; Don Kasten, quarterback; Joe Laferty, halfback; Irish Jim Murphy, halfback; Jamie Brown, Jim Haeflil, Bob McCutcheon, Wayne Michaels, Ed Powell, Tom Smith and Tom Vanderpool on the line.

Bob Kulp, who has gotten little or no chance to show his skill at the end position, might fool a few tomorrow if he gets a chance to perform.

REDONDO'S DOUG DICK ... Flashy Hawk Halfback

Adult Casaba Leagues Set Prep Session

Practice is under way in the adult basketball teams each Monday and Wednesday evenings as the starting date for league play draws nearer.

Sixteen squads have signed for the season and teams will be classified into leagues by a vote of the managers at a meeting to be held next Dec. 5, according to Red Moon, city athletic director.

Prep sessions are held at the Torrance High School girls gym, from 6:30 to 10 p.m.

Teams entered include George's Meat 'N' Place, Fenwick's Shop Repair, Allen's Burgers, Redondo Eagles, Torrance Teachers, National Supply, Harvey Machine, Torrance National Bank, Torrance Merchants, National Electric, Longren Aeras, Shell Chemical, Banner Drugs, American Legion, Lions Club and Bank of America employees.

Warriors Rest While Metro Teams Battle

El Camino College's Warriors will take the week-end off in their battle to garner the Metropolitan Conference title as the schedule gives them a bye—and a rest.

But you can bet your last Confederate saw-buck that most of the Caminoans will make the trek to Long Beach Memorial Stadium to see the Vikings and shape for their classic next week with the Warriors.

Valley rates a slight edge over East LA, and Bakersfield should rebound to whip San Diego, Harbor Tech and Santa Monica, both winless, are listed, as even chances.

Big Bill Set At Carrell

More racing cars will be at Carrell Speedway seeking a place on the huge double-header program next Sunday afternoon than the Gardena track has been host to in years.

The daylight speed season will open with the twin bill, UFA sanctioned, and will feature sprint cars and mighty midgets.
