PERRY PTA HEADS PLAN NOV. CARNIVAL TONIGHT

Executive board of Perry School Parent-Teacher Association will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. B. Cowie, 4118 W. 187th St., to complete plans for the Nov. 7 carnival. Affair, to be held from 5 to 9 p. m., will feature white elephant, baked goods, flower, handicrafts, doll, games and fish pond booths. Other attractions will be a fortune teller, balloon lady, and magician. Proceeds will be used for this year's activities of the PTA. Carnival announcement was made at the October meeting of the group highlighted by "Our Children—Future Unlimited" theme. Carrying out the citizenship topic, Jack Dabb of the Ballot Battalion urged everyone to "get out the vote." Mrs. Cowie, legislation chairman, spoke on the recommendations of a "yes" vote on Propositions 2 and 24 by the California Congress of Parents and Teachers. Attendance gifts were won by rooms of Mrs. Hanlon and Mr. Alberts. The latter's students participated in the meet with "America Forever." Mrs. W. A. Wright, magazine chairman, announced that the association has received an honor roll certificate from the California Parent-Teacher magazine. For the first time the Perry PTA has reached the fourth step in a six-step chart, she said.

Tomorrow Is Carnival Day At 186th St.

Annual Halloween costume parade will be held tomorrow by 186th St. Parent-Teacher Association at the school. Because of half-day sessions and bus schedules, there will be two parades, Mrs. James McMillen, press chairman, said. Morning and all-day students, with the exception of rooms nine and 15, will hold their parade at 10 a. m., while afternoon students and rooms nine and 15 will hold a 1 p. m. parade. Prizes will be awarded for the most original costumes. As an added feature, P.T.A. will serve hot dogs and fruit drinks to parents and students. Children may buy their refreshments in rooms near lunch time, while parents may purchase theirs before, during, and after the parade.

Harbor PTA Carnival Set

In the Halloween tradition Harbor City Elementary School will hold a carnival tomorrow from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. Final plans for the affair were discussed at last week's meeting of the school PTA room mothers, attended by 45. Membership chairman elected were Mmes. Corliss Coleman, Richard Seder, Clarence Howry, Dean Gilgren, Aline Westfall, Harry Baillie, Alma Gull, James Alexander, William Lillie, Olin Lewis, L. D. Bourland, Carl Sierra, Ray Croover, Warren Hoyt and D. G. Cheek.

Spooks Spark Park Tomorrow

Spooks, goblins, and amusements will be on hand at Alondra Park tomorrow night when the annual Halloween Carnival is held. Bonfire rally will begin at 6:15 o'clock, and parade will follow at 6:30. Awards for the most beautiful, funniest, spookiest, most original, and ugliest costumes will be given. Entrants will be judged in age divisions six and under, seven to 11, and 12 to 15. Series of programs featuring a pie-eating contest will follow the parade. Food and game booths and a chamber of horrors will be operated throughout the festivities.
