

BPO Deers Honor Spouses At Thanksgiving Dinner

An autumn wonderland of yellow-toned chrysanthemums, horns of plenty, and brilliantly colored fall fruits greeted more than 150 Deers and their husbands of B. P. O. Elks 1378 when they held an annual Thanksgiving dinner at the Elks' dining hall. "Thankfulness is one of the most gracious virtues, and the observance of Thanksgiving reflects our appreciation, which shapes our lives and makes our homes secure," said Mrs. John E. Jones, president, in her opening message.

Walter B. Heller, district deputy grand exalted ruler of South Central Coast introduced Raoul Collette, William Czuleger, Tex Coggin, Harlan Hogue and John Bean, past exalted officers; and Elks officers, William Brinner, Foster Day, Harold Card, A. T. Larson, Charles Bougarnont, Drexal McCulley, F. W. Fahnestock and Orten F. Abel.

Mrs. Estella McCarthy, first president in 1928 and Mother of the Deers, introduced past presidents, Mesdames Ann French, Jack Grant, A. T. Larson, Walter B. Heller, Amy Debono, Raoul Collette, Ralph Blunk, William Czuleger, Mason Adams, Earl Pipher, Harlan Hogue and Elwood Diebold.

Miss Gloria Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. Blunk, "With a Song in My Heart," "In the Still of the Night" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life." Mrs. June Quigley presented two Hawaiian numbers.

Committee chairmen were Mesdames Grant and Curt Richardson, invitations: William Kane, hostess; Edmond Chandler, hospitality, and Charles Forston, decorations.

Assisting with arrangements were Mesdames Czuleger, Estelle Saunders, Richard B. Hunt, Mable Downer, George DeKay, Elsie Daniels, Fred Brunson, Ed

CAKE DECORATING LESSONS TO START

Beginning lessons in the art of cake decorating will be given next Wednesday morning, 9 a.m. to 12 noon, at the Waleria Recreation building.

Classes, under supervision of the Torrance Adult Education Division, and sponsored by the Waleria Parent-Teacher Assn., will be held each Wednesday morning at those hours.

There is no cost for instruction, but each person is to bring

Clara Conner Travels East

Mrs. Clara M. Conner, local postmaster, recently attended the Postmasters' National Convention in Boston, Mass.

Following the five-day session, the Torrance lady, accompanied by Edith Burgett, postmaster her own material. Anyone wishing to enroll in the course may do so by attending the first class or by calling Mrs. Evar Jansson at Frontier 5-3036.

CHRISTMAS PARTY, TOUR OF CREAMERY SET BY JAYCETTES

JayCettes will make plans for a Christmas party, tentatively slated for Dec. 21, at next Tuesday's meeting, to be held at 8 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce building.

"All members should come prepared to give suggestions for the affair," said Mrs. Don Carpenter, publicity chairman.

Featured speaker of the evening will be George Powell, as

THE CREW SLATES BALL

"Sno-ball" will roll into the Club of Torrance High School hold a semi-formal dance.

Time for the winter affair is 8:30 p.m. to 12 midnight, and Al Carpenter's band will provide music. Admission is $2 per couple.

Marca Wright, GAA president, and Teddy Marcoux, Varsity Club proxy, head the dance committee. Chuck Bingham is in charge of decorations, and Gene Davis will handle publicity.

NOW IS THE TIME!

ORDER YOUR EXTRA COPIES!

DON'T MISS IT!

THE TORRANCE HERALD SPECIAL EDITION

TO BE PUBLISHED SUNDAY NOVEMBER 30, 1952

"THE TORRANCE STORY"

40 YEARS OF PROGRESS--1912-1952

OF THE CITY OF TORRANCE

EXCITING! THRILLING!

The story of the ever expanding growth of industrial Torrance from 1912 to 1952 as you know it today!

HUNDREDS OF STORIES!

JAM PACKED with PICTURES!

A COMPLETE HISTORY OF TORRANCE

MAIL A COPY BACK HOME

EXTRA COPIES

10¢ PER COPY

MAIL COUPON TODAY:

CIRCULATION DEPT. THE TORRANCE HERALD 1619 GRAMERCY TORRANCE, CALIF. TELEPHONE: TORRANCE 444

Gentlemen: Please reserve.....Copies of the big 40th Anniversary "Torrance Story" edition of the Torrance Herald at 10c per copy.

NAME _____ ADDRESS _____ CITY _____

ORDER YOUR COPIES TODAY!

These reserved copies will be available on Monday, December 1st at the office of the Torrance Herald

Harbor PTA Slates Show

"Spirit of the West," a show, will be presented by William Allen at Harbor City School Nov. 26, Winston Scott, principal, announced at last Wednesday's Parent-Teacher Association board meeting.

Scott also explained the Los Angeles City School District Elementary School report cards telling of subject grades and qualities of citizenship and the evaluation program teachers use to determine the proper grade for each student.

Mrs. Leland Van Buren, Community Chest chairman, reported that in her one-day campaign, the PTA collected $233.90 of their $278 quota. Working with her on the drive are Mesdames Pearl Collum, Eva Snow, Kay Cantrell, Louise Coleman, D. C. G. Check, George Weeks, William Tregarten, Julia Cucci, Montie Agreotti, Bernice Allred, Louis Stango, Adrian Finck, Wagon Hoyt, Lillie Howard, Dorothy Higgins, Jannie Bristow, Kathleen Kennelly, and Messrs. Scott, C. F. King, and Earl Christensen.

Recent carnival was very successful, reported Mrs. D. G. Check, ways and means chairman.

Association now has 305 members, of which 130 are fathers, said Mrs. James Alexander, membership chairman.

Other board members attending the meeting were Mesdames Ray Groover, Carl Sierra, Corliss Coleman, Richard Seden, Weeks, Collum, Glen Deetherage, Dean McIntire, Alvin Verry, I. D. Bourland and James Triffon.

PERRY PTA CARNIVAL IS SUCCESS

Funds were realized in sizable amount, said Mrs. W. A. Wright, press chairman of the Perry School Parent-Teacher Association carnival held Friday of last week.

Several games and the ticket booth were all manned by members of the faculty, and their enthusiasm and cooperation that helped to make the carnival the successful event that it was," Mrs. Wright said.

Lester Foster, principal, was master of ceremonies for the 5 to 9 p.m. affair.

Because of the influx of families from all parts of the country into the PTA district this past year, the group has sponsored a parent-education class in "Family Living."

BIBLE STUDY GROUP TO MEET THURSDAY

Bible Study Group of the Methodist Church will hold its final meeting in a series of three next Thursday morning, 9:30 a.m., Nov. 20, at the church.

Session will include reviews of two chapters in "Toward Understanding the Bible," Mesdames John Taylor and Charles Mullen will review chapter four, while Mesdames Rby Gorre and Belding will present chapter five.

Published In Addition To Our Regular Sunday Paper—Nov. 30, 1952