College Homemaking Program Rewriting Traditional Song

Words to at least one traditional folk song are being rewritten at El Camino College to look forward to the future when they will take on responsibilities as homemakers. The song that is being rewritten is "Billy Boy," and the lines being revamped are: "She can bake a cherry pie; she's the apple of my eye. She's a young thing and cannot leave her mother."

The Curious Case Of The Missing Scrap

Whether or not the scrap iron and steel were stolen and whether or not said scrap was worth over $5000 is the issue of a scrap that will be settled Monday. The scrap that is being referred to is "Billy Boy," and the lines being revamped are: "She can bake a cherry pie; she's the apple of my eye. She's a young thing and cannot leave her mother."

Panel Features High School PTA Meeting

Members and guests of Torrance High School P.T.A. filled every seat available in the school's library last Tuesday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the group, which featured a panel discussion, musical numbers, a dance skit, special recognition for Freshmen parents and teachers, and a social hour, with light refreshments served.

Mrs. Sam Neely, program chairman, introduced Principal John K. Steinbaugh, who conducted the panel discussion on the subject "General Relationship of School to Vocational Preparation."

Panel members were Miss Ellen Koehn, Dan Mayers, and Louis Valencia, students; Leonard Liffon and Creed Jenkins, teachers; and Fred Bruner, assistant superintendent of Industrial Relations at Columbia Steel Co., representing industry.

Students Alice Olson and Mickey Van Deventer presented a Spanish Cape Dance from the forthcoming high school variety show to conclude the program.

Musical numbers by the Tartar Choir, under the direction of Walter Slyke, voice instructor at the school, were introduced by Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, music chairman.

QUEEN SALLY HARDY . . . To Reign Over Camino Homecoming

Cinderella Event Set for ECC Queen

All the glitter and glamour of being Cinderella herself awaits Sally Hardy, 18, who has been selected "Cinderella-Queen of Homecoming" at El Camino College. She has the added honor of being the college's first homecoming queen.

Mrs. Hardy was selected queen by a specially-formed panel consisting of Rosemary DeCamp, radio and screen actress; Robert Russell, past president of the college board of trustees; Mrs. Eva Murdoch, wife of Forrest G. Murdoch, El Camino College president; Judge John A. Shidler of the South Bay Municipal Court; and Douglas Essick, athletics coach at the college.

Selected to serve as princesses to the queen were Lois Weber, 19, and Elaine Tillman, 19.

The queen and her court will be installed at a special homecoming assembly on Nov. 26, Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, said.

Homecoming activities begin, however, two days earlier and will climax with a float parade at half-time of the Thanksgiving Day football game on the 27th at the college stadium between El Camino and East Los Angeles Junior College. During the parade she and her attendants will ride on a special float constructed by the Faculty Club of the college.

Student co-chairmen of the homecoming events are Joan King, Torrance, commissioner of activities, and Don Mitchell, Torrance, associated student body vice-president.

Local Kiwanis clubs have donated perpetual trophies for the competition—Last year Chi Theta Chi sorority retired the women's social division trophy and Phi Sigma Upsilon retired the men's social division trophy and the sweepstakes award.

Judging for the selection of the queen and her princesses was held last Wednesday at a dinner attended by ten contestants, members of the student council and the panel of judges. Announcement of the winner was withheld pending a special assembly last week and the publication of the college newspaper.

In the evening following the Thanksgiving Day game, the alumni of the college will hold a dance at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club.

Fiestadores Hold Dance

Los Fiestadores got off to an early start on Thanksgiving celebrations by holding a dance last night at the Portuguese Band clubhouse. Ken Sully's orchestra provided music for the affair.

Evening hostesses were Messrs. and Mesdames Jay Bailey, W. O. Clausing, and Robert Clayton.

Participating in the affair for the first time were new members Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Triplett and Rod Norris, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Knutson.

SITTING PRETTY . . . As queen of the All-Western Band Review in Long Beach next Saturday night, lovely Betty Baize will reign over 75 marching bands including the Torrance Area Youth Band which will participate in the 12th annual presentation of the largest event of its kind in the nation. Queen Betty will assist in awarding the 36 trophies to be presented.

Postmaster Offers Christmas Mail Tip

Postmaster Clara A. Conner believes a word or two to the wise will help make Christmas as merry as it should be. "The 1952 Christmas season," she said today, "is officially under way. Here at the post office, we have an enormous job to do. Naturally, our main concern is the delivery of all gift packages and Christmas cards."

There are about 154 million people in this country today. More than ever before. More people, more Christmas mail. This means, of course, that a helping hand from the public really is necessary.

"So it's a pleasure for me to explain what can be done. As for the post office, we're getting all set to do a good job."

Mrs. Conner has briefed local postal employees on what to expect. She predicts this year's Christmas mail will set a new all-time record, exceeding even the 87,667 pieces of mail canceled here in one day last year.

Similar records are anticipated all over the United States. Consequently, during the Christmas period, the Post Office Department will make as many deliveries as are necessary up to Christmas Day. This includes residential areas which now receive one delivery daily.

Last-minute parcels and special delivery mail will be distributed on Dec. 25 in cities and villages. But not in rural areas. All business firms are requested to withhold circular and catalogue mail, and to post their regular correspondence by 4 p.m. each day, during the critical month of December.

Time of mailing is especially important, and the earlier the better. The postmaster emphasizes it is "everybody's business" to follow this time table for all Christmas mailings:

MAIL PARCEL POST By Dec. 1 for Overseas By Dec. 5 for Out-of-State By Dec. 10 for local delivery

MAIL CHRISTMAS CARDS By Dec. 1 for Overseas By Dec. 15 for Out-of-State By Dec. 18 for local delivery

Yuletide mail for overseas has been going out in a steady flow for several weeks now. Moreover, there's still time for delivery in most foreign countries. But after Dec. 1, all gifts going abroad should be sent by air parcel post and all Christmas cards by air mail.

"Just keeping one eye on the calendar, however, isn't enough," continued Mrs. Conner. "Here's how to avoid disappointing your friends and loved ones. I think it makes good sense."

Crowds Small "Visit the post office this week, while the crowds are still small. Buy all those extra stamps you'll be needing, and ask any questions you may have about registered mail or insured packages."

Stock up on supplies of sturdy cardboard, strong cord, wrapping paper, and parcel post labels. Then mail your $1.14 packages two or three at a time. If you wait to mail them all at once, congestion increases.

Check and revise your Christmas card list carefully. Select your Christmas cards now, and completely. Give the full address each envelope plainly name, house number, city, zone and state. Show your return address also in the upper left-hand corner of the envelope."

So follow these helpful instructions, whether your gifts and greetings are going to far away places or to the neighbors next door. For as the postmaster said, the Christmas mail is "everybody's business."

Chest Campaign Nears $10,000 Mark Locally

Torrance's campaign to raise funds for the Community Chest has neared the $10,000 mark. City Chairman Don Armstrong reported yesterday.

Red Feather appeal in Torrance has brought in $9800 of the $12,384 goal. This is 79 per cent of the total amount.

With the record-breaking residential campaign finished, money needed to put Torrance over the top of its Red Feather goal must come from the advanced gifts, business, commerce, and industry appeals, which are still in progress, Armstrong said.

Torrance still holds a commanding lead over the other seven communities in the Harbor area in percentage of funds raised, he reveals.

Firemen's Group, Auxiliary, Set Installation

Officers of both the Torrance Firemen's Association and its auxiliary will be installed at a joint dinner meeting scheduled for Friday night, Dec. 12, in the main firehouse.

Association officers, elected last week, are Ray Flagg, president; Bill Russell, vice president; and Jay Nielsen, secretary-treasurer.

Auxiliary officers, chosen three weeks ago, are Maxine Flagg, president; LaVonia Russell, first vice president; Millie West, second vice president; Fay Minor, secretary; and Louise Owens, treasurer.

GYM ACCEPTED . . . Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools, presents a new basketball to Torrance High Student Body President Lee Mortenson, with Vice President Jim Crain. The ball is symbolic of the new gymnasium at the school, which was formally dedicated in ceremonies held between A and B games with Lynwood Friday night.
