

Judy Gets 1000 Get Well Wishes

If "Get Well Quick" wishes have any therapeutic effect, little Judy Wixom, Torrance's polio Princess, should be well in a few days.

Since a recent story in the Torrance Herald more than 1000 letters, cards, and notes have been received by the seven-year-old iron lung patient.

From far away Colorado this week came a bouquet of flowers from a soldier who, somehow or other, read about Judy's plight. The soldier is a stranger to the Wixoms. A nurse pinned one of the flowers in Judy's hair.

Judy's mail has had an effect on the other polio stricken children in Ward 60 at the Rancho Los Amigos. Because Judy is only in the second grade and can not read all the letters she has received, the nurses rearranged the beds to enable an older polio patient to be near Judy's iron lung. She reads the letters to Judy and the others listen in—eavesdrop.

Planning Commission Passes Land Ordinance to Council

Hints that a delegation would be on hand to protest certain provisions of the new Land Use Ordinance failed to materialize Wednesday evening as the Planning Commission held the second hearing on the new and modernized law.

Tagged as Ordinance 612, the new law is designed to clear up certain irregularities of the existing land use law and make it more easily administered.

When President Beverly B. Smith of the Planning Commission called for oral communications during the Commission's second hearing on the matter, the Council Chamber was quiet.

Prior to the meeting, the Herald had been informed that a number of residents in various areas would be on hand to protest unidentified provisions of the new act.

In the absence of any protests, the Planning Commission unanimously approved a motion that the ordinance be forwarded to the City Council with a recommendation that it be approved as written.

In other action, the Planning Commission asked for protests on its proposal to change the zoning of the area located on Torrance Blvd. between Madrona and Felbar. Members of the body were told that 46 notices were mailed to property owners of the area notifying them of the Commission's intention to change the zoning from two-family residential, multiple-family residential, and retail commercial to R-1, single family residential and P-1, planting zones. No written communications were received, members of the body were told. A committee headed by R. J. Deininger reported that it had investigated the proposal and recommended approval. Following a call for oral protests which was passed, the Planning Commission called for a meeting with the City Council with the recommendation that it be approved.

In calling for oral communications on rezoning lots on Delia, Ardath, and Atkinson Aves. to single family residential, President Smith received several protests. From owners requesting that it remain a C-2, general commercial zone. It was decided to refer the matter back to the committee of Earle Lloyd, R. J. Deininger, A. K. Hill, and Di Mayle.

As there were no written or oral communications, Luther B. Mumford moved that the east side of Crenshaw Blvd. between Torrance Blvd. and Sierra St., remain in R-2, two family residential zone. Future business ventures in the area, involving eight lots, could be handled the same way that Torrance Blvd. is by various motion, Mrs. Irene E. Fraser, secretary of the group.

Others wishing to contribute should deliver their packages to the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce by Nov. 30, Mrs. Fraser said.

Committee recommended the vacation of prolongation of Illinois Court, which is located south of 165th St. in Tract No. 14043, providing four conditions are met. Conditions were that an easement be vacated for utilities; that the vacated portion be in a concave curve to the west from the northwesterly corner of the petitioner's lot to the northeasterly corner of the lot adjacent to the portion to be vacated; that the owner of this lot pay for installing curb and pavement extending out into the street; and that the board fence be removed. Commission approved the recommendation.

Line of demarcation for oil well drilling will be investigated by a committee appointed by President Smith, which is composed of Deininger, Mumford, and H. R. Black. The president and Secretary Lloyd will act as ex-officio members of the committee, whose investigation involves land use ordinances. Ordinance No. 440, being subsequent to Ordinance No. 316, will be void after the adoption of new Ordinance No. 612, and the city attorney planned to incorporate the latter law into the city Land Use Ordinance so Ordinance No. 440 will not have to be retained to keep it intact.

Recreation Commission advised that A. J. Patrosky has been appointed as the ex-officio member of the Planning Commission. Returned to the Engineering Department for re-design and more information regarding drainage was the map of Tract No. 16211, located north of 177th St., west of Kornblum Ave. and westerly of Yukon Ave., and containing 29 lots.

Also returned to the Engineering Department was the map of Tract No. 18852, located east of Crenshaw Blvd. north of

PV College Thanksgiving Dinner Slated Tomorrow

Thanksgiving dinner at Palos Verdes College will be served tomorrow night, because of the departure of the students on Tuesday for the Thanksgiving holidays.

This year the Mad Hatters theme will be combined with the Thanksgiving party; every one will appear in a fancy head gear of his own making, and prizes will be awarded for the cleverest, the funniest, and the most beautiful.

No student, no matter how far distant his home, is remaining on campus for Thanksgiving. Those who are unable to return to faraway homes are being invited to the homes of fellow students for the five-day holiday.

CAR ATTACKS BOY

NEW YORK, N. Y., NOV.—7 year-old Walter Harriman couldn't resist an unguarded car in a neighbor's driveway. He unscrewed everything he could turn, including the gas tank cover. When he struck a match he found on the pavement, the resulting explosion burned him considerably.

Jury agreed with parents that the son was victim of an "attractive nuisance," awarded him $7,500.

Attractive—but no nuisance—is the low premium personal liability policy written by W. E. Bowen, just call 215. (Adv.)
