

AGNES BOLTER, Editor

World

WELCOME... Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, president of Torrance Junior Woman's Club (at right) gives Mrs. Eugene Nott, Los Angeles District president, a hand with evening agenda, as she greets her at the door of the Civic Auditorium for the November District Conference of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership. Session was held last Monday evening.

Circles Meet Next Week

December meeting dates of various circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Church, were told this week by Mrs. W. S. Hiebert, publicity chairman.

Circle Two will meet next Tuesday, Dec. 2, for a 12:30 p.m. potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Mervin M. Schwab, 1598 Acacia Ave. Mesdames F. M. Betts and John M. Almond will share hostess honors.

Circle Four also will meet on Tuesday, 7:45 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Rhoads, 20954 Brighton St. Mrs. Hiebert will share the hostess role.

The following Wednesday, Circles One and Three will meet at the church for 12:30 lunches.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

Mrs. Louise Chatten, 1563 W. 216th St., evening chief operator of the Lomita Exchange, entered Seaside Hospital in Long Beach last Monday for a major surgical operation.

PTA Board Holds Xmas Fete Tuesday

A Christmas party and exchange of gifts will highlight next Tuesday morning's monthly meeting of the Torrance Elementary Parent-Teacher Association executive board, to be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Moffitt, 2724 Arlington Ave.

Mrs. Hartley Carr, president, will conduct the business session, and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, welfare chairman, will report on Christmas welfare work.

At the last general meeting on Nov. 20, the Association voted to send $100 to the Torrance Dental Health Association and to show a series of parent-educational films during the month of April.

A unique program will be presented by students and teachers of the school on Thursday, Dec. 11, Mrs. Gordon Jones, publicity chairman, said.

Program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium with Robert Morton, principal, in charge.

Theme will be "Meeting the Spiritual Needs of Families." This will be the regular monthly meeting of the Association, Mrs. Carr said, and will have a Christmas motif.

ARTS, CRAFTS CLUB SEES ALASKA SLIDES

Colored slides of the Yukon Territory and Alaska shown by Mary Urner highlighted the program following last week's Friday meeting of the Arts and Crafts Club, held at the YMCA building.

Job's Daughters Install New 'Court'

QUEENS... Miss Ann-Marie Bishop, left photo, now wears the crown as Queen of Job's Daughters. She was installed last night by outgoing Queen Ann Olson, right photo, at 8 o'clock ceremonies in the Masonic Temple. Installed to assist the new queen during her reign were Carol Campbell, senior princess; Jane Moffatt, junior princess; Janice Crabtree, guide; Carol Maloy, marshal; and 19 other officers, whose photos will appear in Thursday's issue of the Herald. One hundred thirteen "Jobies" participated in the installation, wearing orchid leis flown from Hawaii to carry out the and her court were honored at a reception which also featured a Hawaiian theme.

DISTRICT MEET... Chatting before the Los Angeles District meeting began at 8 p.m. last Monday were these members of the committee on arrangements, left to right, Mesdames Lester King, C. E. Adams, Warren Perry, chairman; W. M. Montgomery; K. L. McGreen, J. W. Day, and E. Allen. Members of the committee not pictured were Mesdames George M. Cambon and James H. Van Dyck. Conclave, held at the Civic Auditorium, was hosted by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club.

289 Juniors Attend District Meet Here

Forty-five clubs in the Los Angeles District of California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership, sent a total of 289 members to the November District conference, held at the local Civic Auditorium last Monday night.

Torrance Junior Woman's Club was hostess for the meet.

Mrs. Eugene Nott, Los Angeles District president, opened the session, then introduced Mrs. H. P. Jensen, devotional chairman of Torrance Juniors, who gave the devotional. She then introduced Mrs. Douglas P. Baldwin, president of Torrance Juniors, who in turn presented the Torrance Senior Club president, Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, and the advisors, Mesdames B. W. Roberts, Carl D. Steele, and B. T. Whitney.

Following business session, Patsy Troost, district program chairman, presented Barbara Terry, who played several piano selections.

Featured speaker for the evening was Mrs. Arthur Crum, the first junior member to be appointed to the board of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and a past president of the State of California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Crum told of her recent 10,000 mile, seven weeks' tour throughout the United States, elaborating on different clubs and their work in various states. She stressed the importance of the national project, "Stamps for Wounded Veterans." This hobby, collecting stamps, she said, has proven helpful to the boys during their convalescence.

A collection to purchase stamp albums was taken up following Mrs. Crum's talk. Baskets of flowers decorating the auditorium for the affair were donated by La Galeria Florists.

W. Rehwoldt Talks To PTA

Walter Rehwoldt, director of instruction for Torrance School District, told members of the Madrona Ave. Elementary PTA Wednesday of last week that "Education is the Family's Business."

Following his talk, he led the group in evaluating the education system and its vital necessity for the home and school to work together.

Mrs. Betty Bailey, soloist from the South Bay Civic Light Opera who has the leading role in the forthcoming presentations of "Rose Marie," sang "One Kiss" and "Indian Love Call."

Christmas program will feature the next association meet on Dec. 10. Children of the school will participate. During the social hour following the business session, room mothers served coffee and cakes.

Y Plans Xmas Affair With World Theme

"Community Christmas Festival of Nations" will hold sway in the local YWCA building Friday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m.

"The community-at-large is invited to the affair," said Mrs. F. P. Foley. "We especially invite the representatives of many lands which enrich our city."

Program will highlight members of foreign countries, and members of the World Fellowship Committee, which is sponsoring the celebration, will dress in foreign costume. Plans being made to feature a Siamese woman as guest speaker. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Bonnie Mae Leatherman Fetes Sixth Birthday

Eighteen small friends of Bonnie Mae Leatherman gathered at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. H. W. Backstrom, 811 Cota Ave., Saturday of last week to help the little girl celebrate her sixth birthday.

Assisting Mrs. Backstrom in entertaining the children was the honoree's mother, Mrs. Everett Leatherman.

Following an afternoon of games, guests enjoyed a birthday cake decorated with animals.

Invited to the affair were Cookie and Joey Powers, Joe and Jan Eckersley, Rita and Linda Lucas, Marie Mata, John Figueredo, Bobby Miles, Linda Corder, Richard Weir, Danny Marsenta, Kay Wieman, Patty Jo Figueredo, Lea Etta Rutherford, Patricia Lilly, Ginny Holsworth, and Reggie Lewis.

J. Boonstra Is Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Boonstra, 3833 Spencer St., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Johanna, to Harry C. Titus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Titus of Wilmington.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Redondo Union High School.

attended El Camino College and is a member of the Junior American Guild of Organists and the National Chapter of Thespians.

Reed is a signalman on the destroyer, U.S.S. Bausell, now in Korean waters.

JOHANNA BOONSTRA... Reveals Troth of Redondo High School. Her fiancé also attended Redondo High and is now stationed with the U. S. Navy at San Diego. The couple plans an early spring wedding.

FETE BIRTHDAYS

Thanksgiving Day was occasion for a double celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Obole, 1507 Amapola Ave.

Turkey dinner was topped by birthday cake for Mrs. Obole and her daughter, Mrs. Erich Lillenthal, whose birthdays were the 26th and 30th, respectively.

Attending the family gathering were the hosts and Mr. and Mrs. Erich Lillenthal and children, Ricky and Marcia, of Rivera.

A Hunt Tells Wedding Date

Miss Audrey M. Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hunt, 4633 Milne Court, will wed Robert L. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Reed of Sacramento, next Jan. 3, here parents announced this week.

AUDREY HUNT... Plans January Wedding

The bride-to-be, a graduate of Redondo Union High School, attended El Camino College and is a member of the Junior American Guild of Organists and the National Chapter of Thespians.

Reed is a signalman on the destroyer, U.S.S. Bausell, now in Korean waters.

GIRL SCOUT HEADS NAME '53 SUMMER CAMP GOAL

Four day camps next summer are the goal for Torrance Girl Scout District, Miss Pauline Underwood, harbor section field executive, announced at last week's Friday district meeting held at the Community Chest Service Center.

Volunteers interested in becoming directors should apply at the local Girl Scout office before the end of December, she said.

In addition to Miss Underwood, neighborhood chairmen from Seaside, Walteria, Perry, and North Torrance, and Mrs. W. E. Walton, Torrance District public relations chairman, attended the meet.

Mrs. Byron B. Johnson, chairman pro-tem of the district, summarized topics discussed at the section planning committee meeting held the preceding Wednesday.

Included were the annual report, changes in council policy and standards, new forms pertaining to budgets and money-raising projects for troops, and the report from Mrs. Harry Edson, section cookie chairman.

Annual Girl Scout cookie sale will be held next Feb. 7 through 21, announced Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. C. R. Crist will serve as district cookie chairman.

Mrs. Art B. Cowie, chairman from Perry neighborhood, reported highlights from the recent Representative Council meeting.

Leaders interested in training courses and dates should contact Mrs. Stanley Weiss, 24507 Eshelman Ave., Lomita 757-J, it was announced.

Next regular section meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 17, 1 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Johnson, 23077 Doris Way. Next regular district meeting will be held the following Friday, Dec. 19, 9:30 a.m. at the Community Chest Service Center.

They canvassed the neighborhood and collected 225 cans of food for needy families, plus money to buy eggs and other fresh supplies.

'Stork Story' FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

As of Nov. 21, 6:55 a.m., the 22911 Narbonne Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Fornell houses three children. New arrival, whose father is assistant foreman at Harvey Aluminum Co., is 6 lb., 5 1/2 oz Jacqueline Rae. She has a brother and a sister, Mickey, 4, and Patti, 2. Grandparents, Messrs. and Mesdames H. E. Harker and Mike Fornell, live in Torrance.

Grand L. Ealy, North American Aviation employee, and his wife, 5312 Binedwald Rd., became parents of their second child at 9:35 p.m. Nov. 20. Named Grand Harold, the 6 lb., 8 oz baby boy has one sister, Robin Ann, 18 months. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McQuinn, Hawthorne, and Grand P. Ealy, Tujunga, are grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery J. Schnoor, 24211 Lomita Dr., have named their second daughter, who arrived Nov. 21, Christine. The 6 lb., 4 1/2 oz infant joins 2 1/2-year-old Sharon Ann. Father is employed at Pacific Coast Borax Co.; grandparents are Mrs. Jeanette Holman of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dobbs of Lomita.

FAREWELL... Lila Maples (left) supervisor of the 3 to 11 p.m. nursing shift at Harbor General Hospital, presents a farewell gift to Mrs. Earl Clark, who has been assistant director of nurses at the hospital for six years. Mrs. Clark is leaving tomorrow to take over as director of nurses at a Long Beach hospital. Scene is a tea held last Wednesday afternoon at Harbor General Hospital by the nurses on the 3 to 11 p.m. shift for Mrs. Clark.

Parents of children enrolled in the Torrance Cooperative Laboratory School heard Mrs. Ruth Well tell about the Los Angeles Cooperative Nursery School Council at last Monday night's meeting.

Mrs. Well discussed how the council helps new nursery schools get started, and how the group conducts workshops for the benefit of member schools.

Members considered raising the attendance requirements for parents at the evening meeting from two to three meetings per month. Also discussed was the possibility of setting up a community project a scholarship fund to provide the opportunity for a deserving child to attend school.

A film on "Principles of Development" was shown, followed by group discussion.

DIANE LIGHT TO BE WED

Thanksgiving Day was occasion for a double celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Licht, 1039 East Road; not only did they host members of the family at dinner, but they also revealed news of their daughter's engagement.

Diane, a graduate of Torrance High School, will wed Donald

DIANE LIGHT... Is Bride-to-be

Woolver, son of Everett Loyd Woolver, 2042 S. Normandie Ave., early in 1953.

The bride-to-be also attended Pepperdine College. Woolver is a graduate of Gardena High School and is currently enrolled at Harbor Tech College.

Attending the announcement affair were the bride-to-be's parents, her brother, Larry; a cousin, Kenny Booth; aunt and uncle, Louis Aguilar and son, Lou; and an uncle, Harry Licht. The benedict-elect's father and aunt, Mrs. Ozell Thompson and daughter, Linda, also attended.

Nurses Hold Tea

Parents of children enrolled in the Torrance Cooperative Laboratory School heard Mrs. Ruth Well tell about the Los Angeles Cooperative Nursery School Council at last Monday night's meeting.

Mrs. Well discussed how the council helps new nursery schools get started, and how the group conducts workshops for the benefit of member schools.

Members considered raising the attendance requirements for parents at the evening meeting from two to three meetings per month. Also discussed was the possibility of setting up a community project a scholarship fund to provide the opportunity for a deserving child to attend school.

A film on "Principles of Development" was shown, followed by group discussion.

Coop School Council Tale Told Parents

Parents of children enrolled in the Torrance Cooperative Laboratory School heard Mrs. Ruth Well tell about the Los Angeles Cooperative Nursery School Council at last Monday night's meeting.

Mrs. Well discussed how the council helps new nursery schools get started, and how the group conducts workshops for the benefit of member schools.

Members considered raising the attendance requirements for parents at the evening meeting from two to three meetings per month. Also discussed was the possibility of setting up a community project a scholarship fund to provide the opportunity for a deserving child to attend school.

A film on "Principles of Development" was shown, followed by group discussion.

Parents of children enrolled in the Torrance Cooperative Laboratory School heard Mrs. Ruth Well tell about the Los Angeles Cooperative Nursery School Council at last Monday night's meeting.

Mrs. Well discussed how the council helps new nursery schools get started, and how the group conducts workshops for the benefit of member schools.

Members considered raising the attendance requirements for parents at the evening meeting from two to three meetings per month. Also discussed was the possibility of setting up a community project a scholarship fund to provide the opportunity for a deserving child to attend school.