Rain Spoils Gaucho Holiday Beach Trips

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
It's too bad that we don't celebrate all of our Presidents' birthdays, huh, Gauchos? The rain spoiled the plans of some Narbonneites, who were actually planning on being seen at the beach Monday, Washington's birthday! The next and last holiday before summer vacation will be Easter vacation, which starts March 30 to April 3!

Yesterday was the day of the Junior Honor Society party, held in the girls gym, sixth period. The members played games, volleyball and had refreshments. This semester there are 81 members!

Sponsored by the National Transcribers Assn., a blind concert was given last Wednesday during fifth period. Two men played a Hammond organ and a piano. Everybody said the music was just beautiful. The next day there was a large collection first period to buy books, in braille, for the blind.

Last Tuesday after school, the Knights and Ladies had their party in the Narbonne cafeteria. This very active service club in an eleventh grade club. Patrolling the halls is one of the club's numerous jobs. They had a beautiful cake and punch for refreshments.

Tomorrow's the night: "Oz what," you might ask. Tomorrow is Feb. 27. Does that ring a bell? Sure it does! It is the night of the Guilders' Backward Dance!

With a bang, the Junior GAA officially started last Thursday. Since it was very windy and cold outside, the girls played volleyball and basketball in the girls gym. The B's beat the other classes at volleyball! Some kids were seen playing tennis on the windy courts. The Junior GAA is a very interesting and entertaining organization. They will have their party on the girls field today at 3:30.

The Fred Bowers Assembly to be held today in the auditorium, fifth period.

It is spread around Gauchoville that Billie Jean Gegax took a beautiful flop on the ice skating rink at Haines. How about it, Billie Jean, is that true? The occasion for the fall was last Friday when a group of Gauchos from the Western Avenue Baptist Church went ice skating. Others seen either falling or hanging on for dear life were: Anett and Mary Grafe, Alan Young, Ronald Merriam, Jimmy Wright, Roy Vaughn, Pat Triess, Gloria Johnson, Mary Garrison, Evelyn Sampson, Tom Covey, and Bonnie Ward.

The Girls League gave the first noon assembly of the semester last Friday. Charlotte and Stella Emery played the piano and Mary Pendray and Beth Schlenker sang a duet. The assembly ended with the students singing school songs and the Alma Mater, led by the yell leaders. Narbonne really has a fine Girls League cabinet to be proud of this semester!

There's sure to be a lot of laughs at the Senior GAA B-10 Induction Party next Monday after school. The handicap games are really going to be a riot! The theme is to be cleverly carried out for St. Patrick's Day. Refreshments of cheese rolls, soft drinks, and cupcakes, made by each class in the GAA, will be served.

Under the able coaching of Marvin Johnson and Gary Cope, the Lomita Co-eds should give Harvey Machine Co. and the Lomita softball team a good fight for the championship. They first entered the Lomita-Torrance Softball League last summer and tied for third place!

Mollie Armes, W'53, has just recently been employed by the Owens-Illinois Glass Co. in Los Angeles, in the blueprint department. This is really a break for a brilliant gal that really deserves it.

Narbonne will have its first track meet Friday, March 20 at Jordan. Why not plan to attend this meet?
