Film on Modern England Slated For El Camino

Life on modern England will be portrayed by four films to be shown at 7:30 on Tuesday, March 3, in room 8 of the Administration building at El Camino College.

This will be the first of a series of forum series to be presented through the semester, college officials said. The public is invited without charge.

Information officer, B. Bleck, of the local British Consulate, will present the films and conduct a question and answer period following the screenings. The four films to be shown during the first meeting will include "Mother of Parliament," "West of England," "Trooping the Colors," and "Achievement in the Air."

The first film deals with the activities and traditions of parliament, the second concerns the woolen industry of the British Isles, the third shows the ceremonial in connection with the royal coronation and the fourth is an up-to-date movie on Britain's developments in jet aircraft production.

Trained as a lawyer, Bleck served six years in the Royal Navy during World War II, and as a liaison officer with the United States Navy during part of that time. He entered the consular service at the end of the war.

Other programs in the forum series at El Camino College have been planned for April 7, May 5, and June 2, planners for the meetings said.

El Camino Sets Rehearsals for Spring Musical

Rehearsals for El Camino College's Spring Musical "The Pirates of Penzance" by Gilbert and Sullivan, will begin after Easter vacation, Hamilton Maddaford, assistant director of student personnel said today. The musical will be given May 27, 28, 29, and 30.

Auditions for principal roles were held at the college Monday, Wednesday and Friday of last week, with some ten lead parts being assigned. A chorus of 40 voices will be used as well as the college orchestra and instrumental groups.

Preparations for the Spring Musical are being made by Maddaford with the aid of Dr. Gordon Orme, theatre arts instructor, and by Neil Hill, music instructor.

Students taking part in the event will be members of the college Production Workshop or the College Community Chorus, Maddaford said.
