Tartar Teen Talk

By JUDI REID

Back at school with grades almost upon them, are the students of T.H.S. Vacations at Balboa, Lake Mead and good old Nob Hill were enjoyed by some of the Tartars. Joan Laskaris and Peggy Wood are the envy of everyone with their gorgeous tan. Seen at Balboa were Mareca Wright, Pat Garrison and their boy friends, Judy Nash and also Dalton Aulfill, Babs Hazzard returned from Escandido after a few days of vacation. From all the comment, everyone enjoyed Easter vacation.

The annual Spring GAA spread was held yesterday. The girls really had a swell time initiating the new members and feasting on the hot dogs, potato chips, and soda pop. The basketball playoffs were held between the two high-point teams. It was a great success as usual.

The TK tennis tournament will first and second place winners of the boys singles, girls singles, and the open doubles. All those who are planning to compete have been practicing like mad.

There's still time to buy your 1953 annual. Everyone's picture will appear in this stupendous year book. Buy yours today and be happy next June.

The One-Act-Play Festival is coming up! These original plays written by Janet Williamson, Janie Moffatt, and Carl Larson are said to be some of the best ever done. Don't miss the show, get your tickets this week.

April the 10th and the 17th are the dates set for the Inglewood relay finals. Tartar track men will be competing against other Bay League schools to bring Torrance honors. Try to get over to the Inglewood gym at 7:45 tomorrow night to root your team on to victory.

The annual "Blue Hawaii" day and dance is to be April 17. Get out your grass skirts and ukuleles and make this an occasion to remember. The dance will feature Sal Frisina and the "Starlighters," a really great band. This is the biggest event of the year, don't be the one to miss it!

The Key Notes will be the band featured at the Civic this Saturday night. Don't miss this dance, it promises to be even better than the last.
