RED CROSS AID . . . Mrs. Carl Boston presented W. C. Bullock, chairman of the Harbor Area Red Cross Drive, with a check for $1149.36, representing contributions to the local drive made by Torrance and San Pedro employees of the U. S. Naval Supply Depot. Chairman Bullock commended the depot staff for its generous participation, which was 30 per cent higher than last year's collection. Present at the check-passing ceremony were (left to right) Michael Eragon of the Torrance Storage Area; Mrs. Boston, Bullock and Capt. A. R. Kline, commanding officer of the depot.

Jim Leech Returns Home

Jim Leech, known popularly as "Jungle Jim" around Torrance High School where he was a first-string grid tackle, returned from his second tour of duty in Korean waters Monday aboard the USS Rochester.
 Seaman Leech has served with the Navy for about two years following his graduation from Torrance High in 1951.
 He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Leech, 727 Border Ave.
 While in the Far East during the past year aboard the Rochester, Leech and other members of the ship's crew traveled about 42,000 miles, he reports.
 The Rochester will be in Long Beach until the end of this month, then will return here this summer after going in for repairs.
RIVER SYSTEM
 At least nine or ten of the Amazon's River's tributaries exceed the Rhine river in total length.

Driving Rights Taken From 12 Local Residents

Twelve residents of the Torrance area were listed among the many in Los Angeles County who had their driver's licenses revoked or suspended during the period Mar. 23 to April 7, according to a bulletin sent out by the State Department of Motor Vehicles.
 Those who lost licenses were Garfield Carr, 2117 W. 247th St., Lomita, license suspended because of failure of proof of ability to respond in damages; James and Eunice Clark, 2211 Cabrillo Ave., same; George Hincley, 1626 W. 213th St., same; Jerome Jenkins, Valley Trailer Court, suspended.
 David Payares, 2223 W. 250th St., Lomita, suspended, same as above; Carl Sandgren, 20603 Oak Ave., suspended; Clara Shearer, 1524 Hickory Ave., revoked because of inability to drive safely; Joseph Torres, 24800 Woodward Ave., Lomita, suspended. Driving while license suspended or revoked; John Watkins, 949 W. 256th St., Harbor City, suspended; and Robert Wright, 1639 W. 203rd St., suspended for failure to meet financial responsibility law.
 Convicted, but with no suspension recommended by the court were Albert Bernabei, 3420 W. 180th St., James Cook, 5450 Torrance Blvd., Herbert Coulter, 2600 151 Hwy., Lomita, Thomas Dooley, 822 Faysmith, and John Russell, 2445 236th St.
 Those who have had their licenses reinstated are Howard Ray, 20421 S. Vermont Ave., Viola Altman, 2589 S. Vermont; Jerry Wetzel, 23841 Madison Ave., and Floyd Wheeler, 2265 W. 242nd St., Lomita.
