Life Hereafter Lesson-Sermon Topic Sunday

That life and progressive experience continue after death is the leading point in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon "Probation after Death" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (6:14): "God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power."

Luke's Gospel (24:30, 31, 33, 35, 36) records that Jesus walked to Emmaus with two of his disciples after his resurrection, and "as he sat at meat with them, . . . their eyes were opened and they knew him; . . . And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together. . . And they told what things were done in the way. . . And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions; and this exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave, Jesus was 'the way'; that is, he marked the way for all men" (p. 46).

TWO CLAIM STATE
Vermont was once claimed by both New York and New Hampshire.

MILK EFFORT
Milkers estimate that it requires 340 to 350 squirts in the milking process to yield a gallon of milk.

Special Speaker At Tabernacle

The Rev. Floyd Woodworth, district superintendent of the Southern California Assemblies of God, will be the special speaker at the Revival Tabernacles, 266th St. and Normandie, Harbor City, Sunday evening at 7:30.

Pastor Fred Martin will speak on the subject: "Is the earth about to be visited by cataclysmic judgment?" at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning. Tomorrow night, 3000 youngsters will attend the annual spring convention of the Southern California Christ's Ambassadors at Bethel Temple in Los Angeles. The convention will last all day Saturday and Sunday.
