Silver-Ebony Work Wins Festival Prize

Mrs. William Beall, Palos Verdes. All they wait for now is the des apartments, together with Navy's beckoning call, the word her two children, has completed that their transportation is a series of shots preparatory to ready for them. The Bealls state they will stay husband, Navy Lieut. William at the Paramount Hotel in Tok-Beall, now stationed in Tokyo, yo, until the lieutenant can arrange for Navy housing for them. These are the same Bealls whose son Dick distinguished himself at the recent Art and Music festival at Redondo High School. Dick is currently awaiting word from the Navy regarding his recent application for enlistment to assignment at the Navy School of Music.

Albert Koester, 115 Via la Ciruela, has returned to Riviera after a two-week business trip into the wilds of Arizona. Mrs. Koester stayed home, cozy in the company of daughters, Marlene 2, and Karen 5.

SIGNS OF SPRING: The us ual indications of a warm spring are all around us now. Witness if you will the many cases of fence building, lawn planting and house painting. Over at Charlie and Pauline Rust's abode, 154 Calle de Andalucia, a new white picket fence is shaping up. Square tops of climbers from hanging up atop pointed ends . . . across the street at 141, the Duvals just completed a house painting. Their new colors are pink with white trim . . . the Mel Grovns, 264 Calle de Andalucia, have added the leing to the cake. Their house remodeling has been touched off by a new paint job in white with the garage shutter trimming it off with a touch of green . . . yours truly has the fever too. The house is now painted white, a back and arm breaking job, we might add. We still have the garage to go, but with the house done, we feel we're on the downhill side . . . The Tod Carringtons, new neighbors at 220 Via Alameda, are busy assuming familiar positions in the weeding and pruning of their front yard . . . All this activity, we might add, encompasses only two of the many blocks in Riviera. Multiply all this by the whole of Riviera and you have a sight to gladden the heart of any paint, lumber yard or garden merchant. . . .

As unmixable as gasoline and alcohol are a lawnmower and a two-year old boy. So Mr. and Mrs. John Reese of 462 Calle de Aragon found out. To all you parents who work to keep lawnmowers and small children apart, this bit of news will serve as additional incentive to your task. Young Rickey Reese, age 2, is just that age when boys develop deep interests in things like lawnmowers. The sight of the Reese lawnmower unattended on the front lawn was enough to move Rickey to attempt to do his dad's job of mowing. Somehow, the lawnmower started to move down the inclined lawn, and Rickey quickly dashed around to the front of the mower to stop it. He put his hands into the mower to shove against it and whish! his middle and index fingers of one hand were neatly sliced. His mother reports that the middle finger hung by its skin at right angle to the rest of the finger. The index finger was mangled too, but not so badly. One of those quick trips to the doctor gave the Reeses no hope that the finger could be saved, but the doctor strapped it into mending position for a 1,000 to 1 shot that it would grow together. Now, after a few weeks waiting, the unbandaging has revealed that the finger indeed seems to be growing together again. X-rays will be taken this week to find if the finger will be whole again.

The Ross Dorsetts, 151 Via jos Altos, had their family increased by five last week when their boxer gave birth to a quintuplet of brindle colored pups. Dr. Mortimer, local vet, had to deliver the fifth newcomer by caesarian operation, performed at the Dorsett home. The mother and babies are all doing fine, according to last reports.

Las Vecnas, it would appear, has the Midas touch. Its card party, held last Saturday evening at St. James parish hall in Redondo Beach under the supervision of Mrs. O. C. Lundstrom, cleared some $233. That's clear, dear readers. There were some 160 persons in attendance, leading Mrs. Lundstrom to remark that Las Vecnas certainly backs up its ventures with good support. Some twenty tables for cards plus bingo were in continuous operation, with over sixty prizes being given out. Mrs. Lundstrom pointed out that her committee did yeoman work in arranging for this successful party and wished to publicly thank each and every one of them. Committee workers included the Lloyd Hennens, the Claude Ferrels, the Matt Brunings, the Joe Mulqueens, the J.C. Cummings, Mary Pinkney, Beryl Presley, the Theo Linhart, and Dr. and Mrs. Max Webber. The doctor incidentally, acted as M.C. for the card benefit.

LAKE SHORELINE

The American shoreline of the Great Lakes, exclusive of Canadian shores, is about equal to the combined coasts bordering on the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and the Gulf of Mexico.

Mrs. Mary Skeehan Beatus, 221 Via Alameda, announces the marriage of her daughter, Peggy, to Henry David Mjelle of Escondido, Calif., on Saturday, May 9 at 8 p.m. at the Wayfarer's Chapel in Portuguese Bend. Reception was held after the wedding ceremony at the Beatus home. The bride wore a cocktail length gown of white imported lace. Her corsage was centered with sweetheart roses with delphiniums and pink tinted carnations interspersed with tuberoses around the rose center. She wore a tiara with shoulder length veil. Over one hundred persons attended the wedding reception which featured twin wedding bell cakes inscribed with "FEBBY" atop one and "HANK" atop the other. They were served Hawaiian tropical punch. The reception room was lit entirely by the light from 32 blue candles matching the blue satin table covering. The couple honeymooned at Las Vegas and at Convict Lake and are now at home in Lancaster, California. The bridegroom is with North American Aviation at its project in Morocco.

Sepulveda Blvd., will from now on be known as Butler Buick, M'Collum, who has held the Manhattan Beach agency since 1945, has announced that he plans to retire to his ranch near Mariposa.

area, having helped establish the Milken Chevrolet agencies in both El Segundo and Culver City.
