

BROOM BATTLE . . . Gretel, played by Elaine Rehwoldt Metfessel, left, tries to take the broom away from Hansel (Virginia Blakeman) in the Pepperdine College play to be presented tonight through Saturday in the main auditorium. Mrs. Metfessel is the daughter of Seaside School Principal Walter Rehwoldt and his wife, 1601 El Prado. A graduate of Torrance High School, she is an elementary education major at Pepperdine. Curtain time for "Hansel and Gretel" is 8 o'clock each evening; Saturday matinee opens at 2:30 p.m.

After Sunday Rites
Local Korean Vet, Bride
Select Wilmington Home

Wilmington will be the home of Lester Graves, brother of Mrs. Joe Moine, 214 W. 223rd St., and his bride, the former Miss Alice Halverson, who exchanged wedding vows here last Sunday afternoon.

Ceremonies were conducted at the First Baptist Church at 4 o'clock by the Rev. C. M. Northrup, with Mrs. Carl Fitzgibbons of Wilmington attending as her sister's matron of honor and Mrs. Moine in honor position as bridesmaid.

Gowns worn by the bride and her attendants were reminiscent of the Civil War period, with bouffant skirts and tight-fitting bodices. Miss Halverson was in traditional white net over satin, featuring a hoop skirt and high-necklined bodice buttoned to the waist. Her net veil, edged in wide French lace, was held in place by a tiara, and her bouquet was a lavender-throated orchid surrounded by white carnations.

Gowned alike in contrasting royal blue and coral net over taffeta, respectively, with matching lace boleros, were Mrs. Fitzgibbons and Mrs. Moine. Aster bouquets, in harmonizing pink and yellow shades, formed their bouquets.

In a frock of pale yellow net over taffeta, little Susan Moine, niece of the groom, scattered flower petals in the pathway to the altar. Dale Fitzgibbons, nephew of the bride, attended as ring bearer; Joe Moine, brother-in-law of the groom, acted as best man; and Tony Moine, another brother-in-law, and Danny Brenner, took ushers' posts.

A reception for the Korean veteran, who served two years with the Army, and his bride, daughter of the Bernard Halversons of Montana, followed at the church. Graves is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Graves of Simi, Calif. He attended Torrance and Banning high schools.

Juniors Busy
Planning for Kids' Party

Santa Claus will be on hand to pass out stockings filled with fruit and candy next Wednesday night, 7 o'clock, when the Junior Woman's Club stages its annual Christmas party for children of members and friends at the clubhouse, 1422 E. Gracia Ave.

Fireman John Agapito, whose wife, Carlotta, is in charge of arrangements, will don the red suit and white beard for the occasion. Another highlight of the program will be routines with a Christmas theme done by dancers from the Bette Thomas Studio. Mrs. George Blahnik, entertainment chairman, reported.

In the meantime, Mesdames Kenny Lockman and George Post are busy sewing and stuffing the stockings. Mrs. James Halle is using brain cells for decoration ideas; and Mrs. Robert Stewart is planning a refreshment menu.

Plan Tuesday Paper Drive

Next Tuesday, Dec. 8, will be paper and rag day at 269th Pl. School in Lomita. Mrs. C. R. Chitwood, PTA press chairman, reported this week.

School grounds will be open at 7:30 a.m., and collections will be taken until noon, she said. Anyone who has rags or papers, but no way to get them to the school, may call Mrs. J. O. Powers at Davenport 6-1906 for

Miss Bader,
Bill Garner
Will Marry

Holiday wedding plans were told by Miss Kathleen Bader when she joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bader, in hosting family and friends at a Thanksgiving dinner at their 26022 Eshelman Ave., Lomita home.

The Narbonne High School graduate will marry Staff Sgt. Bill Garner, son of the John Garners, 808 Anapola, on Dec. 21. The benedict-elect, a graduate of Torrance High School, is now stationed at Smokey Hill Air Force Base in Salina, Kans., following duty in Japan for the past year.

Miss Bader revealed the romantic news by passing a white cake topped with intertwined red hearts which bore the names of the affianced pair.

Gathering for the event were Miss Bader's sister and brother-in-law, the M. E. Browns and sons, David and Danny, of San Francisco; her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. M. Bader and son, Stevie, of Akron, Ohio who are visiting here until after Christmas; her cousins, the Ted Eddys and daughter, Patricia, of Compton; friends from Union, N. J., who have recently moved to Los Angeles, the W. L. Warrens; Miss Christabel Ramsell of Los Angeles; and parents of the benedict-elect.

'Charley' Gets
New Customer

It isn't every day that a man becomes a grandfather for the first time—and Charley Gots, owner of Daniels Cafe, is making the most of the event this week, passing out more cigars than he's smoking!

The new baby, who may "Eat with Charley" someday, is the son of his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Steele, 3302 Newton St. Born at 1:32 p.m. Monday at Torrance Memorial Hospital, he weighed 5 lbs. 15 oz. and has been named Charley Arthur.

Daddy Steele is a driver for Paul's Bakery; grandma and grandpa Gots live at 25013 Cypress St., Lomita; and paternal grandparents are Mrs. Nola Devine and Walter Steele, both of Lawton, Okla.
