Las Vecinas Dance Tomorrow Sold Out

By MARY and JACK WEBB
FR 53051
"Sold Out!" That's the word from Las Vecinas' social chairman, Mrs. Robert Pinkney, who reports that the maximum number of tickets have been sold for the club's semi-formal Christmas Dinner Dance, tomorrow night, Dec. 11, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Portuguese Band Club.

Mrs. Otto B. Willett, first vice-president and program chairman for Riviera PTA, reports that there will be no general meeting of the PTA in December. In its stead, she says, will be a special Christmas affair at the Riviera School on Dec. 18.

at Pine Cove, near Redondo. "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," Little Child Shall Lead Them, will present its own one-act play or other entertainment centering on Christmas. Audience, of course, will be their parents as well as any other who may be interested in seeing their program.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, 138 Via Alameda, together with sons Larry and Steven, have returned home from a week-end vacation at Pine Cove, near Redondo. John, a Navy Chief Warrant Officer, returned from Korean waters aboard his ship, USS Benetton, about two weeks ago, but making this his first vacation.

The Reeds have had together in almost a year. He is presently stationed at the ship at Long Beach Naval Base.

Mrs. Henry Graef, 115 Via los Maradores, publicity chairman for Riviera PTA, reports that her organization will start its paper drive on Wednesday, Dec. 16. Riviera's wishing to contribute are asked to tie their old papers in easy-to-handle bundles and deliver them to Riviera School on Dec. 16.

Three Riviera women are patronesses of the late-year youth project, called the "Youngtimers," which is the title for a series of twelve dancing parties scheduled for youngsters in the 6 to 7 age group. Patronesses include Mesdames Willard Roy, Henry Graef and Carlton Paul of Riviera, Mrs. Joseph Dier of Manhattan Beach and Mrs. Richard Wallburg of Hermosa. The Youngtimers are scheduled to meet periodically for folk and square dancing lessons and pointers in manners and poise. Thirty children in all are enrolled. Mrs. Graef explained, 15 boys and 15 girls. Meetings are held at Miss Dawn's studio, 211 Ave. I, in Redondo, and the next is scheduled for next Saturday, Dec. 12, at 1:30 p.m. when the youngsters will have a Christmas party together.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grifff, 415 Camino del Campo, last Saturday held at birthday party for their son, 12-year-old Preston

J. Martin, 117 Paseo de las De-born to Mr. and Mrs. Theo Linhart Jr., 120 Via Alameda on Thursday, Dec. 3, at Torrance Memorial Hospital, was a boy, weighing 7 lbs., 1/2 oz. He arrived at 6:15 p.m. and was promptly named John Francis. Anne 4, in the Linhart line-up.

And to Mr. and Mrs. William M. Thorpe, 230 Via Buena Ventura, on Oct. 29 at Garden Hospital, was born a boy, weighing 8 lbs., 2 oz. He had been named William Robert David, and is also the first boy in the household. He joins three sisters at home, Patricia 12, Mary 10, and Linda 6.

From BERNARD'S FAMILY SHOE STORE 1315 SARTORI AVE. FA 8-0533

It was a "Juke Box Saturday Night" affair with a record music dancing session followed by ice cream and cake to feed the inner lads and lasses. Riviera attendees were Carol Portzer, Marilyn Brier, Sally Barlow, Barbara Hummel, Preston Grifff, Brian Jacobs, Douglas Hawkins, Henry Schmall, and Gary Martin.

Pat Mitchell, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mitchell, 224 Via Linda Vista, entertained a group of her Torrance High classmates at a post-Thanksgiving wicner bake in the patio of her home. Some 12 classmates, all from outside Riviera, were her guests at this affair, which lasted from 6 till 10:30 p.m. Dancing in the rumpus room followed the dinner of winners and complementary buffet items.

Orchids to the talent from Riviera which shone at the recently staged "Blackouts on Riviera" show held at Torrance High auditorium last Friday evening. Among the Rivieraers in the show were Jan Brimley, Connie Stout, Judi Reid, Dolores Fatorski, Jan Stevens, Eileen Dowling, and Norma Quine. Behind the scenes in important production and technical staff jobs were Mary Sue Easley, George Hurley, Elsa Barlow, and Herb Artley.

Gary Greer was seven years old on Friday, Dec. 4, and eight of his little friends helped him celebrate this milestone in his young and checkered career. At his home at 142 Via Alameda and under the supervision of parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Greer, the young group enjoyed cake and ice cream, watched Master Greer open his presents, received their favors and then in a group hid to the local mo-
