Yule Party Held By Scout Mothers Club

By SUE BURK

Hello everyone. Gee, but it's nice to be with you again, a little sooner than I expected, but I hope you don't mind. Wasn't this the greatest holiday season ever? The small ones all so happy and excited; grownups all smiling and greeting everyone else with good wishes. You know, it sometimes makes me wonder why every day couldn't be like Christmas. Seems that so many have forgotten the real meaning of this blessed holiday. Anyway, a very happy New Year to all my readers.

The Scout Mothers Club celebrate its December meeting with a Christmas party held in the home of Mrs. Dorsey B. Gruver of the Rancho. The ladies took great delight in their small gift exchange, and also in the singing of Christmas carols. Refreshments of punch, coffee and tiny "Mexican wedding cakes" were served to Mrs. Merle Holstin, Mrs. Edward Wood, Mrs. Margaret Whyte, Mrs. Bonnie Evans, Mrs. Jane Parent, Mrs. Mildred Muldoon, Mrs. George Henzick, Mrs. Isabelle Gaul, Mrs. Madge Graham, Mrs. Sue Burk, Mrs. Stanley Williams Sr., Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. John Kissell, Mrs. Eve Zervantian, Mrs. Virginia Nauman, Mrs. Bundguard, Mrs. Ender, and Mrs. Gruver, the hostess. Plans for the next meeting, to be held Jan. 20, were made. Best wishes sent from the Scout Mothers Club made six elderly women living in North Redondo very happy. The women were given small personal presents and a party on Wednesday before Christmas. The tree, given by the Boy Scouts of Troop 726, was trimmed by Mmes. Graham, Gaul, and Burk. Highlighting the small party were Santa Claus candies, cookies, ice cream and hot tea. The club is now making plans to adopt the six little old ladies (who have no relatives) as a full year project.

The Cub Scouts of Pack 726-C held their Christmas party on Dec. 18 at El Retiro Park. The boys presented gifts, which they had made themselves, to their mothers. Refreshments were served to both parents and boys. Cubmaster Dick Nauman reported that the party was great.

The students of Seaside Elementary School, enjoyed very exciting last days of school before the Christmas holidays. Students of each room decorated a tree with things they had made in class. Names were drawn and gifts exchanged. Refreshments were served to the children by each classroom mother. Thanks to someone's thoughtfulness, the beautiful trees were not wasted, but presented to needy families for their Christmas. School work resumed on Jan. 4.

Enjoying two Christmas dinners were Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Mitchell and family of Zakon Rd. The first dinner was Saturday, Dec. 19, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Peck of Los Angeles. The second dinner was with Mr. and Mrs. John Persian of Artesia. Visiting Betty and Jack over the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hudson from Inglewood. Betty is proud of the lovely watch given her by her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Holstin and family enjoyed turkey and the trimmings with Floyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Holstin of Hawthorne.

Company for Christmas in the John Zervantian home on Reese Rd. were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshot and daughter, and mother Mrs. Martha Packard, all of Long Beach. Eve reports that the dinner was beautiful and "it just can't eat another bite."

Holiday visitors for Mr. and Mrs. Bob Graham of Sepulveda Gardens were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Meredith of San Diego.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Ansley and sons, Walt Jr. and Steve Donald of Macafee Rd. was Mr. Joe Ansley of San Francisco. Glad to see you back again Joe. How are you?

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Nix and family hosted Mr. and Mrs. Dale Nix of Fallbrook, Mr. and Mrs.
