

Neighbors Pace Hall As Stork Takes Nap

By MARY and JACK WEBB

Like most other couples in this world, we Webbs have had memorable occasions which we store away among our mental memories. Last Thursday and Friday, we stored away another one. As all our dear readers know from past accounts, the distaff side of this combine has been undergoing the sort of nine-month build-up usual to distaff sides. At this writing, she has overrun her allotted time by some six days minimum. This is by careful count, using all fingers and toes. Last Thursday and Friday, we thought we'd had it, rushed madly to San Pedro Community Hospital, and into the wing which the hospital has labeled simply and effectively "O. B."

For two nights and a day the illusion persisted, but finally come Saturday morning the doctor kindly suggested we'd better go home again and await a surer sign or two.

Home we came, and at last we know how all you other poor parents felt when you too underwent premature machinations. We're not alone, we know,

Mounted Police to Ride

Members of the Torrance Mounted Police will ride in the Palm Springs parade on Feb. 6. It was reported yesterday by Sgt. D. C. Cook, of the Torrance police. The unit was organized about a year ago and has ridden in a number of parades since.

At an election of officers held this week, A. J. Alexander was elected captain on the unit. Floyd was reported yesterday by Sgt. D. C. Cook, of the Torrance police. The unit was organized about a year ago and has ridden in a number of parades since.

Which gives us a chance now to point up the talents with which Riviera abounds. The new film "Torrance," a well-made little gem, was produced by Will Zens of Riviera script by Jim Barnes of Riviera, narration by Claude Ferrel of Riviera. Jim lives over at 267 Calle de Madrid, from whence he penned the lines that make "Torrance" come alive. Claude Ferrel, 724 Calle de Arboles, was on loan so to speak, from Hampton Players, for whom he regularly emotes. A clean, neat job all the way around, and well enjoyed by the Riviera couples who assembled at the Zens' to catch the preview. Tonight at the Torrance Chamber of Commerce annual banquet, business and industrial leaders of the city will see the film for its first public showing.

Elsewhere in Riviera, Mrs. A. J. Dallendorfer, 416 Via Linda Vista, entertained last Wednesday with a coffee get-together in honor of her new neighbor, Mrs. Don Santucci, 412 Via Linda Vista. Eight other Riviera neighbors met Mrs. Santucci, who moved here recently from Redondo Beach. Present were Connie Dixon, Ann Hamada, Gwen Bratt, Dorothy Boyer, June Behrens, Mary Gielow, Norma Hughes and Beulah Dennis.

Polish up your sweet tooth, here comes your chance to indulge! Feb. 2 is the kick-off date for the annual Girl Scout-Brownie cookie sale. So say Mrs. T. J. Von Blankenberg, 700 Calle de Arboles, who reports that a meeting to discuss the details of this year's sale was held at her home last week. Girl Scout and Brownie troop leaders from all over Riviera were invited to represent their troops and to help plan a successful sale. This is the one big way which these girl troops have to raise the money that will help see them through the coming year. Mrs. Von Blankenberg, Girl Scout and Brownie leader, advised. Present at the meeting at her home or adding to plans through the past week were troop leaders Peggy Graef, Joan Weston, Alice Regal, Elizabeth Ropke, Mary Hummel, Dorothy Robinson, Betty Reynolds, Emaline French, Hulda Huskamp and Mary Beth Hornbeck.

Named chairman for the southern area for the women's division special gifts committee of the 1954 Heart Fund (w-h-e-e-w! what a title!) last week was Mrs. Henry Graef, 115 Via Los Miradores. This committee is the campaign organization of the Los Angeles County Heart Association and Mrs. Graef was among eight area chairmen appointed by the county-wide campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scott, 146 Calle de Andalucia, go north to San Francisco this coming week-end for the California Council of Civil Engineers and Land Surveyors meeting to be
