

Y-Wives Plan First Evening Gathering

First evening party for Y-Wives and prospective members will be held tomorrow at the YWCA, according to the press chairman, Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom. Canasta and bunco will be the featured games, and a donation of 75 cents will be asked, she said. Reservations may be made by calling FAirfax 8-0531. Juanita Shaffer from the Handicrafters Hobby House in Redondo Beach will appear at the regular Y-Wives meeting tomorrow, showing handicrafts from her shop, possible hobbies, and her methods. Program will follow the regular hour of modern dance instruction, to begin at 9:30 a.m. All those joining the group are asked to wear shorts.

Miss Shaffer will again be at the Y-Wives meeting Apr. 23 to give instruction in hobbies that have proved most popular with the group. Modern dancing will be given on alternate weeks, with volleyball and table tennis.

Mrs. Salcido to Serve Second Term as Halldale PTA Prexy

Elected for a second term when the Association held its March meeting, Mrs. E. E. Salcido will serve as president of Halldale Ave. PTA during 1954-55.

Assisting her on the executive board will be Mrs. M. S. Condon, first vice-president; J. Ryland, second vice-president; Mesdames H. Weil, recording secretary; R. Rhodes, corresponding secretary; J. Andrade, financial secretary; J. Bowers, treasurer; W. L. Harvey, historian; and D. Goolsby, auditor.

Offered on Fridays when there is no dancing.

For those who do not wish to participate in active sports, plaster-plaque-painting will be offered. The plaques and paints may be purchased from the leader of this group at the Y. Child care is available at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church with expert guidance and snacks for the children. Those needing transportation may call FAirfax 8-3218.

In keeping with the theme "Safety," Mrs. J. Gordnier, safety chairman, introduced R. Taylor, advisor to the Halldale Ave. School Safety Club, who in turn introduced members of the club. The boys and girls gave a demonstration of how safety rules are enforced and how offenders are corrected, with several of the mothers taking the place of the offending children.

A skit presented by the Camp Fire Girls under the direction of Mesdames William Hoy and O. D. Barnard completed the program. Refreshments were served later by the second grade mothers.
