

Skyline Mag Called Tops

Skyline, the quarterly employee magazine of North American Aviation, Inc., was judged best of the nation's industrial magazines in its class recently at the Detroit conference of the International Council of Industrial Editors.

Skyline was the only California industrial publication selected for a first place award by the Council's 3,500 members.

It was the second consecutive year that Skyline was honored as the nation's best in the category of industrial magazines which emphasize employee interest and are distributed both to employees and to persons outside the companies' plants.

The North American magazine competed against hundreds of American publications as well as those of West Germany, England, Canada, Australia and Hawaii.

Teeners Plan Beach Party

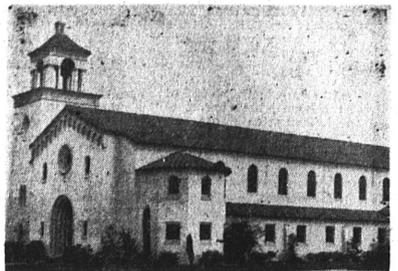

Members of the Northern Club of North Torrance will board buses tomorrow and head for a beach party at Playa del Rey, along with Recreation Directors Les Breitenfelt and Barbara Billings.

Members will meet at McMaster Hall at 5:45 p.m. None will be allowed to board the bus unless he or she has a permission slip signed by his or her parents, according to Breitenfelt.

A 50-cent transportation fee will cover the round trip. Members will take their own lunches and will also bring wieners and marshmallows for roasting.

Parents who would like to help supervise the trip can obtain information by calling the recreation office, FA 8-108.
