Last Rites Held For Wm. Baskett

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Stone and Myers Chapel for William Lee Baskett, 57, recent resident of Torrance, who died last week at Harbor General Hospital.

Services were conducted by the Rev. C. M. Northrup of the First Baptist Church, and interment followed at Pacific Crest cemetery, with graveside services by the Rev. Northrup.

Baskett was a native of Wichita Falls, Texas and had lived here for several years. He was employed as a carpenter.

He is survived by his widow, Lillian L. Baskett, of 1724 Pries Ave., Wilmington, two daughters, NaDona June Cubberly, of Compton, and JaNelle Rhea Baskett of Wilmington; and three sons, William, a missionary on Manila Island, and Garland and Arland Baskett of Wilmington.

El Nido Church Starts New Unit

Ground breaking ceremonies for their new $40,000 building will be held by the First Baptist Church of El Nido Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, according to Pastor Leland L. Pisel, who will conduct the ceremonies.

The new building will be an educational unit which will make it possible for the El Nido church to accommodate a church school for 500 people. The building will have an auditorium capable of seating about 300.

Dr. George Downing, of the Southern California Baptist convention will be the guest speaker, and the Christian Pioneers will appear to sing and play.

This Sunday evening, the El Nido Baptists will hear the testimony of Rue Barclay, former radio, TV, and stage performer, who will appear at the Western church service, to be held at 7:30 p.m. at 4558 W. 182nd St.

New THS Class Officers Named After Elections

When school opens next September, a whole new set of officers will be on hand to run the high school student body as a result of elections held on campus last week.

Heading the officers will be Jerry Parrot, whose election as Student Body President was announced in the Herald last Sunday. His vice-president will be Greg Jenkins.

President of the senior class will be Bob Hopkins, who is also vice-president of the Tar-tar Theatians. President of the Junior class will be Jim Donette, and Tom Kulp will be president of the sophomores. The freshman class will hold an election after school opens in the fall.

Charlie Babbit will be Boys League president and Mary Sue Easley will be Girls League president.

Commissioners elected for the coming year include: Sully Sprout, Records; Ann Steinbaugh, finance; Doris Popovich, publicity; Dee Gibson, pep; Cindy Easley, activity; Judy Nash, group control; and Don Kasten, athletics.

Lomita Salvage Company Expands, Opens New Unit

A larger and expanded Lomita Salvage Co. was opened this week at 23800 Narbonne Ave., by the two brother-in-law co-owners, Gerson C. Maiman and Edward I. Goldman.

These co-owners moved into the Narbonne Ave. building to expand their business. They have operated as scrap dealers in the Torrance area for four years, and Goldman has a surplus store in Santa Monica, which he has operated for 10 years.

The proprietors will carry on a regular salvage surplus business at their new location, and will buy metals, rags, and papers.

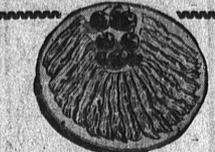

Name Engineers for Work At Dolores Street School

Engineers for the mechanical and engineering work at the Dolores Street school, Wilmington, were appointed last night by the Los Angeles Board of Education.

Plans call for a new plant on a site bounded by Dolores Street, 228th Street, 223rd Street and Catskill Avenue.
