

MISS CAROL CAMPBELL (Bob Roberts photo) ... Takes 'Jobie' Crown Saturday

Miss Campbell Will Take 'Jobie' Crown

"Harmony in Hearts" will be the theme next Saturday night, June 20, when Miss Marian MacDonald, queen of Job's Daughters, relinquished her crown to Miss Carol Campbell.

Scene of the installation ceremonies will be the Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori Ave.

Miss Campbell and the line officers, who will serve with her will be escorted through a large heart formed of red and white crepe paper flowers during the rites. Silver music notes painted on a black backdrop will add the harmony touch.

A reception for the new queen and her court will follow in the temple, then the entire Bethel will journey to San Pedro, where they will be guests of that city's "Jobies" at a formal dance. The public is invited to the installation ceremonies and reception.

MISS MARIAN MacDONALD ... Retiring 'Jobie' Queen

Club Checks Make Grad Fete Success

Nearly 20 social and service organizations in the community contributed their financial aid to make the after-graduation party held last Thursday at the El Camino College Campus Center a success, Mrs. Jackson Moore, publicity chairman, revealed this week.

Those contributing checks to the civic project were the following:

Torrance Woman's Club, Junior Woman's Club, Loyal Order of the Moose, Rotary Club, Les Vecinas Women's Club, Business and Professional Women's Club, Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, and Perry, Madrona, Torrance Elementary, Torrance High, Riviera, Fern-Greenwood, North Torrance, Seaside, and Crenshaw PTAs.

JayCees, JayCettes Hold Joint Installation Rites

With the JayCee colors, blue and gold, used in center bouquets of delphiniums and daisies to highlight table decor, JayCees and JayCettes gathered at Alondra Park Clubhouse last Saturday night for an installation dinner-dance.

Ceremonies following the dinner seated Vern Lovelady as the new JayCee president, succeeding Marvin Goetsch, and Mrs. Jack Baldwin as the new JayCette leader to succeed Mrs. Ed Karlow.

Installed with Lovelady were First Vice-president Dale Stanton, past director; Second Vice-president Doug Horlander, past director; State Director Goetsch; Treasurer Jim Wood, past first vice-president; Sergeant-at-arms, Joe Banke; and Directors Harold Rapstad and Jack Baldwin.

Seated with Mrs. Baldwin were Mesdames Gordon Jones, past liaison director and new vice-president; William Pollock, secretary; Walt Sharon, treasurer; and Karlow, liaison director.

Other past officers participating in the rites, conducted by Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, were John D'Ornellas, director; Dave Figueredo, sergeant-at-arms; and Don Carpenter, treasurer of the JayCees; and Mesdames Howard Percy, treasurer; R. G. Beecher, secretary; and F. M. Hansen, vice-president of the JayCettes.

Three new Exhausted Roosters then were installed by Past Grand Capon of California Lyle Moore, of the Kaiser Frazer Corp. in Compton, "Exhausted" were Howard Percy, Jack Phillips, and Ed Karlow.

Baldwin, as master of ceremonies for the evening, introduced visiting JayCee dignitaries, Moore and his wife; State and District Vice-president and Mrs. Jim Bishop, Mrs. Dale Isenberg; and Past Presidents Karlow and Percy.

SEASIDE Y-TEENS HOLD GALA CORONATION BALL

In a festive mood following the close of school, members of the Seaside Y-teen Club entertained their guests at a "Coronation Ball" at the Torrance YWCA last Friday night.

Party dresses, special refreshments, and the coronation theme carried out in pastel colors combined to make the affair a gala occasion.

Committees arranging the ball, held for the dual purpose of raising funds to send members to Camp Tahquitz Meadows this summer and to purchase a gift for the YW, included the following:

Patty Gunther, Cherrill Larina, Betty Morris, and Lorene Ledwidge; Mary Walker, Mary Hawkins, Saralee Sloan, and Judy Bristol, tickets; and Anne Armstrong, Patsy Levoie, and Edna Boone, refreshments.

Other members attending were Dixie Lee Yancey, Elizabeth Rusch, Louise Boone, Alice Shackelford, Marilyn Travestad, Sharon Buchanan, Barbara Harp, Sharon Moser, Judy Powell, Edna Boone, Susan Wilkins, and Patty Smith.

The guest list included Evelyn Schmal, Rosemary Parkins, Larry Denning, Terry Zervantian, Jerry Harp, David Travestad, LeRoy Hawkins, Bob Rahn, Bobby Sadavidge, Tom Brown, Vic Boggie, Warren Heaton, Olie Lesin, John Roccaforte, Ralph Muldoon, Hal Muldoon, Ray Parent, Ray Bundgard, Phillip Gaul, Dray Gruber, Juanita Urban, Sandra Roc-

TUTTI FRUTTI ... Rehearsing their number for the Ninth Annual Dance Revue to be presented by the Three Arts Dance Studio next Tuesday and Wednesday, June 23 and 24, are, front, left to right, Sharron Dalme Goode, Carolyn Gayle Larsen, Sandra Long, Diana Cato, back, Katherine Alvarado, Joan M. Esy, Virginia Ellen Gotts, and Geraldine Daniels. The girls will do "Tutti Frutti," one of the dances carrying out the first Tuesday evening theme, "Soda Fountain U. S. A."

Three Arts Slates Big Dance Revue

The Three Arts Dance Studio, 2282 W. Carson St., will present its Ninth Annual Dance Revue at the Civic Auditorium next Tuesday and Wednesday, June 23 and 24, at 8 p.m.

A different show highlighting two special themes will be offered each evening.

"Soda Fountain U. S. A." and "Dancing on a Moonbeam" will take the Tuesday spotlight. Included on the program to carry out the first theme will be "Dance of the Shakers," "Dixie Cups," "Tutti-Frutti," and "Juke Box Saturday Night."

Featured dance numbers in "Dancing on a Moonbeam" will be "Blue Prelude," "Harvest Moon," "Paper Moon," and "By the Light of the Silvery Moon."

"Start the Day Right" will open Wednesday's performance, with "Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'," "It's a Lovely Day Today," "What a Day We'll Have," "Sunny Side of the Street" and many other numbers.

The second theme of the evening, "Holiday Isle," will feature Hawaiian dances.

Tickets for both evenings are available at the Three Arts Dance Studio, or at the box office the evenings of the shows.

Steffens' Miriam Betrothed

Linked in betrothal this week were the names of Miss Miriam Coleen Steffen, daughter of the Frank A. Steffens, 2035 W. 218th St., and Robert Lee Turgeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Turgeon, 21216 S. Main St.

The bride-elect, who graduated from Torrance High School last Thursday, was active in campus affairs. Her list of affiliations includes the Thespians, Girls Athletic Association, F.B.L.A., Tartar Theater Guild, Continental, California Scholarship Federation, and Talent Club.

Turgeon, who will graduate from Banning High School tomorrow, is a member of the Machinists Club and The Nationals. He has served with the National Guard for the past year and a half.

The young couple have not yet selected a wedding date.

NEW POST ADDED HERE

Noon-time sun last Thursday saw an 8 lb. 2 oz. Post in Torrance.

The newcomer is John Wallace Post, new son of the George W. Posts, 1322 Cranbrook Ave., who belongs to the second generation of Posts born in this city, and the fourth generation of the family to live here.

His great-grandfather, George W. Post, established Torrance National Bank in 1914, a year after Jared Sidney Torrance founded the city. His grandfather, James W. Post, and his father, are carrying on the family tradition as president and cashier respectively of the bank.

Little John joins one sister, 18-month-old Peggy. Paternal grandparents, the James W. Posts, live at 1448 El Prado, while the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McVicar, reside at 1220 Gramercy Ave.

MISS MIRIAM COLEEN STEFFENS (Photo Arts Photo) ... Wears Robert Turgeon's Ring

Harbor Grads Hold Picnic

Chickens raised by sixth grade students of John Young during the past semester found their way into the stomachs of A-6 graduating students and their guests from Harbor City Elementary School yesterday when the PTA sponsored a picnic at Lomita Park.

Following the noon meal, which was arranged by Mesdames Carl Gregory, Richard Seden, and James Triffin, the guests enjoyed relay races and games.

Among those sharing the fun were the following students who will be promoted to B-7 at Narbonne High School next fall: Charles Berry, William Brown, Eddie Coates, Leslie Covey, Richard Duby, Larry Evans, William Francis, Michael Gibbons, Rodney Hodges, Steven Moffatt, Charles Morris, Joseph Nieto, Patrick Reardon, Gerald Smith, Roger Smith, Marvin Sparks, James Tarango, Robert Carl, John Evans, Woodrow Goodner, Allen Holton, Alvin Lewelling, Daniel Mendez.

Patricia Bench, Nita Bourland, Grace Bradley, Sharon Brown, Vickie Brown, Helen Byers, Jerry Buzan, Cynthia Dix, Carolyn Finch, Sandra Foster, Mona Holder, Margaret Kishiyama, Sandra Lolly, Judy Lyons, Lucy Magee, Suzanne Millett, Patricia Nalua, Marilyn Scott, Bonnie Demerath, Marilyn Pitsburgh, Nora Garrett, Molly Lewis, Alice Martinez, Edith Roy, Gloria Shaheen, Mona Wingfield.

RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

Mrs. Honore Dash, kindergarten teacher at Perry Elementary School, received the Virgenover Conservation and Education Scholarship recently.

The award will enable her to study at the Idyllwild Conservatory School for four weeks this summer. She will leave for the school in about two weeks.

'Enjoy Kids' Is Theme of Coming Class

"Enjoying Your Children" will theme a Child Guidance Course to be sponsored by the Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA in September at the Gardena Community Center, it was revealed at a planning meeting held Tuesday of last week.

The course will include a series of 10 classes, all designed to teach parents how to enjoy their children more by learning to live with them. Mrs. E. H. Coltran, press chairman, said.

Soroptimists To Get Charter Saturday

Newly-organized Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist Club will receive its charter and install officers next Saturday night, June 20, following a 7 o'clock dinner at the Western Club Cafe.

Mrs. Winona Ellis, president-elect, will accept the charter and flag on behalf of her club from Mary Ellen Pangle, governor of the Pacific Region Soroptimists. Presentation will follow installation rites to be conducted by Dr. Ruth White, extension chairman of the Pacific region.

Mrs. Marion Park Young, president of the Harbor District Soroptimist Club, will preside during the evening. Community singing will climax the affair.

The Social World

AGNES BOLTER, Editor

TAKING THE FLOOR ... to dance to the music of Les Tronsler's orchestra are the new JayCee and JayCette presidents, Vern Lovelady and Mrs. Jack Baldwin. Sitting this one out are the outgoing club leaders, Marvin Goetsch and Mrs. Ed Karlow. Scene is the installation dinner-dance held last Saturday night at Alondra Park Clubhouse.

Fall Wedding In Store for Pat Stanford

When the smell of autumn is in the air, Miss Pat Stanford, daughter of the W. K. Stanfords, 25618 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita, will be wearing a wedding band.

Ceremonies uniting her in marriage with Ronald Dean Smiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smiley of Compton, will be conducted at 8 p.m. Oct. 3 at the Presbyterian Church in Lomita.

Miss Stanford, who currently is employed as a stenographer at National Supply Co., is a 1950 graduate of Narbonne High School. She was active in campus affairs, serving as president of the Girls League and joining in activities of the Girls Athletic Association, Letter Girls, and YW clubs. A member of Theta Nu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, an international business sorority, she is now serving the group as vice-president.

The benedict-elect, who attended schools in Detroit, Mich., served for four years with the U.S. Navy during World War II. He saw active duty in the European theater of operations, including France and Italy.

MISS PAT STANFORD (Dixie Lee Photo) ... To Wed Ronald Smiley

IONOR TEACHERS

Teachers of North Torrance Elementary School were honored last Friday at a farewell luncheon given by the PTA executive board at the school.