

Round the Riviera Reward Girl Scouts At Court of Awards

The Riviera Girl Scout Court of Awards for 1953, held recently at El Retiro park, saw many Riviera girls receive awards for their endeavors during the past year. After the Court of Awards welcome given by Mary Beth Hornbeck, the flag salute was rendered by Troop 147, Rev. Lyle B. Gangesel gave the invocation followed by greetings from the president of the South Bay Council, Virginia Corcoran. The following Riviera girl scouts were awarded:

Fly-up candlelight ceremony, Troop 82: Joanne Baker, Sandra Bolas, Bonnie Booth, Heather Certik, Sandra Ford, Sandra French, Jan Geisler, Donna Gillis, Joan Grimley, Carol Kendall, Marie Leitner, Karen Mulz, Vickie Mulqueen, Sharon Seaholm, Joan Smilie and Pamela Younce; Rhonda Clarke, Troop 98.

Presentation of second class badges, Troop 110: Lynn Bowman, Ann Davis, Sue Dorsett, Jocelyn Ferrell, Ada Dot Hayes, Jean Huskamp, Sandra Kratzer, Joyce Law, Adele Mullen, Ann Parmer, Lynn Satterlee, and Sherrill Smith.

Proficiency badges, Troop 66: Sally Barlow, Karen Booth, Gale Bowman, Marilyn Brien, Christine Groven, Aileen Hornbeck, Barbara Hummel, Susan Watson, April Satterlee, and Rosemary Sieh.

Proficiency badges, Troop 138: Barbara Bakertower, Linda Bayne, Marilyn Brandama, Jan Dudley, Inga Edlund, Patricia Mahoney, Carol Portzer, Bonnie Potter, Marilyn Wallace, and Judy Pugh.

Girl Scout leaders and co-leaders who worked so hard to make this Court of Awards the great success it was included Mesdames Morrison Hornbeck, Charles Sturgill, Jack Strator, Gerry Hummel, Emil Huskamp, Tom Von Blankenbush, Dick Barlow, J. D. Smilie, and Clark Portzer.

Many, many thanks are due Mrs. Lee Kendall for her fine job of organizing the Court.

Notice to all young boys and all grown up boys too! The Sportsmen announce they will man their regular fireworks stand in the same location as in previous years. We hasten to point out that profits from the fireworks sale at the Sportsmen's stand go to help our local Riviera Boy and Girl Scouts and to help defray the expenses of the Sportsmen-sponsored Halloween and Christmas parties for all Riviera children. Reasons enough for patronizing the Sportsmen's stand, and you'll find their smiling service and low prices all to your liking.

Captain Ruth Morrison, U.S. Army Nurse, and her mother, Mrs. J. P. Morrison, former Riviera residents at 340 Via Pasqual, are now in Linz, Austria. They are the sister and mother, respectively, of Mrs. Morrison Hornbeck, 210 Calle Madrid. Captain Morrison has been overseas for several months and her mother just joined her, about two weeks ago. Mrs. Hornbeck reports her mother's trip went via New York, Casablanca, and Naples. Mrs. Hornbeck reports her mother's letter describes her as having a wonderful time, enjoying seeing the world at her young seventy-four years of age.

The Bud Bowers and their children, of 513 Calle de Arboles, have moved from Riviera. Having sold their home recently, they moved about a week ago to Dallas, Tex., where Mr. Bower has been for some time at his new job with a chemical company.

Mrs. J. Clark Chittick, 516 Calle de Arboles, was guest of honor at a surprise shower held for her by Mesdames Frances Regal and George Hummel at the former's home at 424 Calle de Aragon recently. Cake, ice cream, and coffee were served, the cake being decorated with a stork and baby theme. Sixteen Rivieras attended the affair and the baby-to-be received many beautiful gifts including a car seat, blankets, sheets, sterilizer, and other wonderful things.

Gerry Sue Paul, daughter of the Carlitos, 183 Via los Miradores, has had a run of bad luck recently. About two weeks ago she underwent a tonsillectomy. The following week she broke out with measles, and as this column goes to bed, she is rewarding her parent with a nice, bright red measles look. While Mrs. Paul reports happiness that Gerry is over the worst of it, she has to consider that her other three children have not had measles yet, and she may end up with a busy busy mouth of medicine. With Mr. Paul's mother, Mrs. Cecile Bartholomew, due to arrive from New York the end of July, she is hoping all will be over with by, say, the middle of July.

Demotion Party Gala Evening for Rotary

Donald Armstrong stepped down from the Rotary Club president's chair last Thursday night, making room for the new president, Jack Dabbs, when the group held its annual demotion party at Palos Verdes Country Club.

Keeping his seat as vice-president and director was Carl Warner, John Ebbinghouse and A. E. Thompson, new directors were demoted from secretarial and financial seats, respectively. Taking their places were Don Hyde, secretary, and Robert Leach, treasurer.

Losing his director's office was Russell Lund. The new and old

Baby Feeding Film Slated For Mothers

A request from W. E. Walton asking the City Council to grant use of a portion of city-owned property for the erection of a building in which to conduct Boy and Girl Scout activities was referred to an agenda meeting of the council.

The request asked that the council grant use of the land on a long term, low payment basis. The building would be used for troop meetings of both organizations and would be used as executive headquarters for scouting in this area.

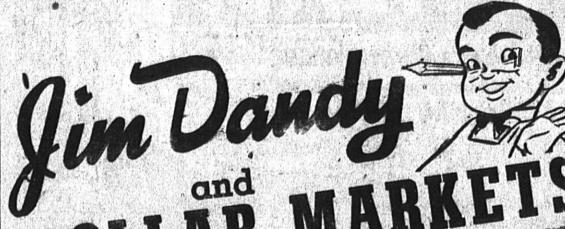

The council is to discuss the matter at an agenda meeting on July 1.
