

New Golden Home Mecca For Visitors

A two-week visit at the new home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Golden, ended Sunday for Mrs. K. V. Lucey of Richmond.

The Golden, who moved to the 3313 Palos Verdes Dr. N. address from 444 Hollywood Parkway a short month ago, honored their guest with several luncheons and dinner parties during her stay. Among the friends and relatives calling to see Mrs. Lucey were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Hopkins of Whittier.

Mr. and Mrs. Golden will play the host role again next week for their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Boom-er of Mount Diablo Estates, Walnut Creek. The Boomers plan a two-week visit here.

SEASIDERS HOLD DANCE

Amid an Independence Day red, white, and blue color scheme, members and friends of the Seaside Y-Teen Club enjoyed a holiday party and record dance at the YWCA recently.

Joining in the fun were Betty Morris, Virginia Gatewood, Anne Armstrong, Lorene Ledwidge, Pat Lovell, Alice Shackelford, Joyce Noone, Patty Louise, Dorothy Bellehumeur, Louise Boone, Sherrill Larkins, Evelyn Schmolz, Arlene Weber, Dorsey Gruber, Juanita Herbon, Patti Smith, Marilyn Travelstead, Carolyn Travelstead.

Alice Frith, Ellen Gaul, Billy Morris, Ewite Ann Parent, Dick Graham, Barbara Harp, P. J. Gaul, Dixie Lee Yancey, Judy Bristol, Sheila English, Dick Silt, Jerry Harp, Warren Heaton, Bobby Halber, Roy Parent, Denning, and Judy Powell.

Birthday Fete, Guests Make Busy Week-end

Neighborhood playmates of little Colleen O'Hara, daughter of the Lyle O'Haras, gathered at her home, 1615 Fern Ave., last Friday to help her celebrate her seventh birthday.

Patriotic red, white, and blue were employed in table decor to carry out the Fourth of July theme. Party games, with prizes going to Elaine Steele, John Kelley, and Richard Derouin, highlighted afternoon entertainment.

Others joining in the fun were Pat McCarthy, Jacque Megow, Jimmy Forester, Randy Smith, Grace McCabe, and Karen Jean, and Nicky Giacinto.

Week-end guests at the O'Hara home were his sister and her husband, the Frank Dowlings, and his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dowling, and son Mark, all of Sun Valley. Dropping in over the "Fourth" to enjoy a barbecue dinner and fireworks were Joe Platt and his bride-elect, Miss Mary Mehrenz.

IN A CLOUD OF WHITE . . . A veil of misty white tulle matching her floor-length gown trimmed in Chantilly lace crowned Miss Marilyn Triesch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Triesch of Glendale, when she became the bride of a local son, William Carstens, on June 21. The Torrance man, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carstens, 1452 Post Ave., and his pretty bride honeymooned at La Jolla and have since established residence in Los Angeles.

Legion Ladies Honor Prexy

Patriotic red, white, and blue formed the color scheme Tuesday night last week when 21 of officers and committee chairmen of The American Legion Auxiliary, Post 5, Crossland Unit 170, honored their 1952-53 president, Mrs. Carl Ross, at a dinner party at Rudy's.

In appreciation for her leadership, board members presented Mrs. Ross with a gift.

Following dinner, the party adjourned to the Lomita home of Mrs. Alice Thompson for card games.

Korean Vet, Mother Plan Texas Trip

A recently returned Korean veteran, Guyron Crook, and his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Seitzberg, 2415 W. Carson St., will climb aboard a Texas-bound plane next Wednesday morning at Los Angeles International Airport.

The seaman, who has seen eight months' active duty in Korean waters aboard the USS Surfbird, a mine sweeper, and his mother, who is employed at National Supply Co., will depart at Amarillo to visit his grandmother, Mrs. R. H. Chevington. They plan to remain in the southern city for two weeks. Crook has served with the U. S. Army for the past year and a half, completing boot training at San Diego and doing duty at Long Beach and Pearl Harbor before receiving orders for the Orient. His ship docked at Long Beach Harbor last Friday and will be stationed there for the next year, excepting service at Mare Island during September and October.

STRETCH! . . . says Mrs. Frances Woodcock, right, to Y-Wives member Mrs. Maurice Hattem, who is working on a waist slimming exercise. Mrs. Woodcock, physical education director for the adult education department of Los Angeles city schools, will lead Y-Wives in a second muscle-toning exercise period tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Y. She will continue the course, begun last Friday, for the next five weeks.

Tuesday Picnic Set By Circle

Friendship Sewing Circle will hold a noon picnic next Tuesday, July 14, at Torrance Park. Mrs. Susie Walker, secretary, announced this week.

Each member is asked to bring a covered dish and her own table service for the meal, she added. Coffee will be provided by the committee in charge, Mesdames Selma Christensen and Lucille Meyer.

Further information may be obtained by calling FAirfax 8-4264 or FAirfax 8-2446.

W. Carstens, Bride at Home In L.A. After La Jolla Trip

A pretty young Glendale miss who chose misty white nylon tulle for her wedding costume and her husband, William Carstens of Torrance, are now making their home in Los Angeles following a honeymoon at La Jolla.

Chantilly lace and seed pearl trim highlighted the ensemble worn by the bride, Miss Marilyn Triesch, when she and Carstens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carstens, 1452 Post Ave., exchanged vows at the Holy Family Catholic Church in Glendale. Officiating clergyman for the afternoon rites was the Rev. Father McNulty.

Sisters of the newly wedded pair, Misses Connie M. Triesch and Erma Carstens, attended in identical blue lace over taffeta gowns fashioned with Peter Pan necklines, cap sleeves, and bouffant skirts.

Kelth Pearson of Torrance was in honor position as best man, while Jim Anderson of Glendale and Joel Cohee of Alhambra, ushered.

Friends and relatives gathered at the Glendale home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Triesch, to congratulate the new couple immediately after the ceremony. Both bride and groom are graduates of Occidental College, where she was a member of Alpha sorority and he was affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now at

Professional Women Plan July Dinner

Picturesque La Venta Inn in Palos Verdes Estates will be the scene Monday, July 20, for the monthly dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Plans for the affair were discussed last Monday night when the club met at the city hall.

Following the business session, Mrs. Zada Ramsey, Harbor section chairman and a past president of the local club, gave a brief talk on the purpose, structure, program, and ideals of the BPW Federation.

Eleven Finish Canteen Class

Eleven local women have completed the 10-hour Red Cross canteen course given at the Branch headquarters during the past month. Mrs. John Stoddard, canteen chairman of Torrance Branch, American National Red Cross, announced this week.

Certificates were awarded Mesdames William Cochran, Edward Hansen, Hon. Coleman, Leo McMullen, Frederick Ackermann, Carl Gregory, T. T. Babbitt, Blandford Moyer, Elmo N. Reese, Perry G. Patterson, and Miss Margaret Anderson.

The certificates qualify the women to serve with the local branch at community blood banks, at industrial bloodmobile units, at the Los Angeles center, and assist in the event of any disaster, Mrs. Stoddard said.

Slate Lecture, Exercise

Subjects of vital interest to women of the community will be discussed by a staff member of the Los Angeles County Board of Health when the Y-Wives meet tomorrow at the local YWCA. Mrs. Otis Blackstone, publicity chairman, revealed Tuesday.

The lecture will begin at 11 a.m. following an exercise hour to be supervised by Mrs. Frances Woodcock, physical instructor for the Adult Education Department, Los Angeles City Schools.

Membership in the Y-Wives is open to all young women of the area, Mrs. Blackstone said. Care is provided for nursery school children while their mothers relax and learn.

SNAPPER

This was an easy assignment but I was a little afraid one of those firemen might get carried away by this economy wave and shut off the water.

You hear folks say that some of the best pictures have been taken with old, battered box cameras and it's true, too. The only thing is that your average will be better if you use a pretty good camera. The boss stocks stuff for beginners and for old pros like me but they're all the best of their kind. What's important too, you get complete personal instructions with any camera you buy.

See you next week, SNAPPER.
