

INJURED FAWN . . . Humane Officer R. N. Corrao of the South Bay Humane Society displays the young doe he picked up near the beach Sunday. The fawn had apparently been hit by an auto, Corrao said. Its left rear leg was shattered, and officers were forced to destroy it. Corrao said he was unable to tell how the young deer got down in this area.

Hunt Slated At McMaster

North Torrance kids are busy this week collecting odds and ends in preparation for the scavenger hunt to be staged at McMaster Park Friday at 1 p.m. Prizes will be given to the first ten children to bring back the fifteen items which will be searched for.

Following the hunt, movies will be shown and awards will be presented to the winners of the caroms and hop scotch tournaments which are being run off this week.

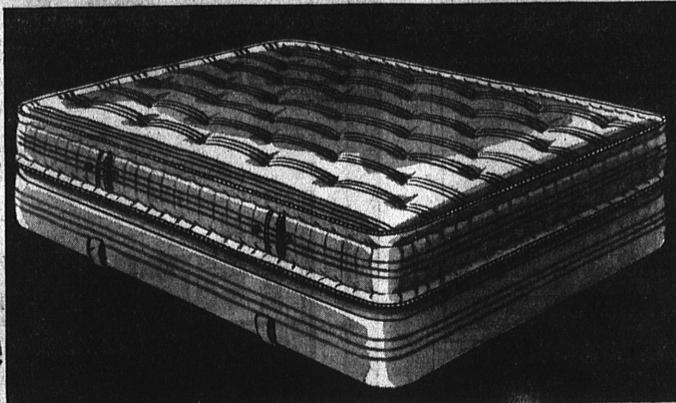

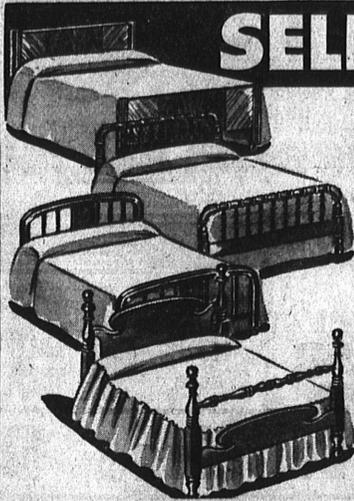

Following are those who received awards in connection with the hobo and cowboy picnic Friday: Boy hobos—Ken Dean, Jerry Blake, Eddie Henderson; girl hobos—Carol Gauthier, Charlene Silco, Janie Tusslein; cowboys—

Ralph Van Valkenburg, Glen Terry, Melvin Foremaster; cowgirls—Roberta Chavez, Janis Carlstrom, Mitzi Carstens; poster contest—Teddy Stokes, Kenneth Vickers, Brian Blair. Judging were Mrs. Henrietta Wilders, Mrs. Gloria Carlstrom, and Mrs. Claudine Blake.
