

Hope Evangelical Church Holds First Conference

The first local conference of this conference year was held at Hope Church Sunday afternoon, according to the pastor, Rev. Homer H. Miller. Rev. Dr. Oliver E. Schafer, conference superintendent of the Southern California District presided. After hearing reports of the pastor and officials of the local church, Dr. Schafer discussed with the pastor and members plans for a house to house community survey and a preaching mission. A number of pastors from neighboring Evangelical United Brethren churches will participate in this survey and preaching mission, which will be conducted prior to the dedication of the chapel.

Western Gospel Proves Popular

The western cowboy church service of the First Baptist Church of El Nido, located at 4558 West 182nd St., is acclaiming record response in attendance, according to "Curly the Parson," Rev. Leland L. Pisel. "This is a service to which all may come without dressing up, and feel comfortable and at home. Gingham, plaids, boots and western shirts are the style of the service," Rev. Pisel states. Those attending these services are enjoying the peppy singing, special music, testimonies, and gospel messages presented in the western style. At each service the "Christian Pioneers" in typical western setting are singing and playing favorite Gospel songs. Service starts at 7:30 p.m.

Pastor Back For Services

The Rev. George Cain will return to the pulpit at the South Bay Baptist Church Sunday to resume his pastoral duties after having recuperated from a recent appendectomy. "The Kind of a Man God Can Use" will be the subject of his sermon at the 11 a.m. service, and he will speak on "Greek, Latin and Hebrew" at the 7:30 p.m. evening service. Church services are being held in the Recreation Building at El Retiro Park in Hollywood Riviera during construction of the new church. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a.m. in the South Bay Community Christian school, 5922 W. Pacific Coast Hwy.

Force of Spirit Lesson-Sermon For Next Sunday

The practical force of spirituality in all details of human life, as contrasted with the thought of spirituality as an abstraction is the keynote of the Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Paul's first epistle to the Corinthians (2:12): "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God."

Luke's Gospel (4:38, 39) records that Jesus "entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her. And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her; and immediately she arose and ministered unto them."

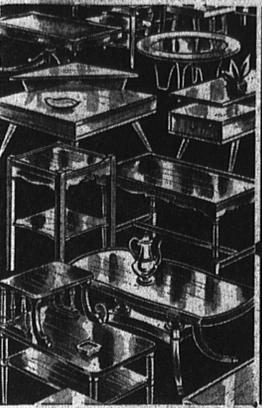

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Jesus established his church and maintained his mission on a spiritual foundation of Christ-healing." Later she says, "The supremacy of Spirit was the foundation on which Jesus built. His sublime summary points to the religion of Love." (pp. 186, 188.)
