

irvived by Anderson... both of ce sist... Torran... ad Lavee... ty, Utan;... on J. A... s; Melv... ty, and... Salt Lake eline sys... ates.

Girl Scouts Host Visitor From The Philippines

First-time visitor to Torrance, or for that matter, to the United States, is 17-year-old Belen Villa from Quezon City in the Philippines.

Belen is one of eight Ranger Girl Scouts representing foreign lands to the Southern California area. For the last week she has been the guest of Senior Scout Troop No. 123, known as the Mountaineer Troop, staying in the home of Mrs. W. E. Walton, 1415 Acadia. She was sent to the United States through the Juliet Low World Friendship Fund.

From Torrance, Belen will visit with a different Girl Scout Troop somewhere in the Los Angeles Area Council, and another Ranger Girl Scout from Cebu City in the Philippines will come here.

At the end of all visits, the eight girls from foreign lands will attend Camp Rancho, the Girl Scout camp situated near Big Bear. Carmelita Jaramillo and Connie Walton have recently returned from there. Carmelita stayed for five weeks at camp as a program aide, and Connie for a month. During her stay Connie met the requirements for the Gray Back Trip.

Mary Mehrens Honored At Bridal Shower

A large pink and white parasol, placed in front of the fireplace, was laden with gifts for Mary Mehrens, honored guest at a personal bridal shower given in her honor by her sister, Mrs. F. J. Kelley of 1833 Hickory.

White candles and a white lace heart from which a wedding bell was suspended with a miniature bride doll beneath, formed the centerpiece on the buffet, from which open-faced sandwiches, sweetheart cake and coffee were served.

Traditional games were played and each guest embroidered her name on a tea towel. Miss Mehrens will become the bride of Joe Platt on the 20th of August in Montana. Joining in were Miss Shirley Gish, Miss Patricia Green, Mesdames Hazel Ritchie, Evelyn O'Hara, Trudy Rittmiller, Helen Garcia, Kay Milligan from Bellflower; Margaret Green, C.A. Mattix from Hawthorne, and Randy Nobergall from Compton.

Member Los Angeles Zoning Board Speaker At Keystone Meeting

A representative from the County Zoning Board will be guest speaker Monday evening, Aug. 10, at the Keystone Civic Betterment meeting to be held at the home of J. G. Caldwell, 22120 S. Moneta Ave., at 7:30 p.m.

The Social World

AGNES BOLTER, Editor

A TOAST FOR THE BRIDE AND GROOM... Aramis M. Dandoy and his bride, the former Maureen Matthews, sip punch shortly after nuptial ceremonies uniting them in marriage. Thewedding will establish their home near the USC campus after a Lake Arrowhead honeymoon.

Aramis M. Dandoy Takes As Bride Maureen Matthews

Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated in the presence of 150 guests, uniting in marriage Maureen Matthews and Aramis Dandoy, USC football star, in the Nativity Catholic Church on a recent Sunday afternoon.

The young bride exchanged vows gowned in a white nylon tulle over satin wedding dress, with a full length lace edged veil of illusion draped from a pearl embroidered coronet. A created arrangement of white orchids and ribbon streamers lay on her white prayer book as she marched down the aisle.

Attending her was Miss Jackie Johnson as maid of honor, and Misses Mary Herman, Joan Zorich, and Sylvia Martinez as bridesmaids. Virginia Matthews, the bride's sister, was flower girl. Attending the bridegroom as best man was Louis La Mont. Ushering were Dale Ernest and Norman Dandoy.

Before leaving for a Lake Arrowhead honeymoon, the new Mr. and Mrs. greeted their

Barbecue Held By Woodcocks

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodcock, 911 Kornblum, was the patio setting Saturday night of a barbecue for several of their friends.

Big steaks and roasting ears of corn, highlighting the menu, had guests waiting in anticipation until being served. Bridge was enjoyed later in the evening. Having fun were Mr. and Mrs. William Guter of Lakewood, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ritzenhouse of Westfield, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Winkelbauer of Torrance.

ON-THE-SPOT INSPECTION... of the lovely gardens surrounding Kauai Inn, situated on Kauai in the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Watts of 23224 Doris Way are shown viewing the luxuriant tropical foliage for which the island is noted.

SOROPTIMISTS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

A meeting of the Torrance Gardens Soroptimist Club was held recently at the Western Club in Gardena.

A report of the board of directors meeting, held at the home of Mary Lemberger, corresponding secretary, was related by the president, Mrs. Winona Ellis, followed by committee reports.

Plans for the Soroptimist booth for the street carnival on Aug. 28 were started. They will be announced when completed.

Members attending were Mesdames Winona Ellis, Edith Ennis, Mae Jones, Rolive Bevor, Addie Parks, Anna Sandstrom, Clara Conner, Lila Mae Smith, Helen Parrish.

Mrs. E. Winkelbauer Hosts Bridge Club

Mrs. E. V. Winkelbauer of 2713 Martha St. played hostess to her bridge club last Tuesday evening, serving dessert and coffee before proceeding with the playing.

Attending were Mesdames Robert Cahn, Alan Lucas, Robert Bowker, Dean Barkdull, John Minch, Robert Sleeth, and Arthur Woodcock.

Walking off with top honors were Mesdames Dean Barkdull and Alan Lucas, respectively.

Mabel Soules, Mary Sperry, Mary Johnson, Catherine Henry, Kay Doss, Edna Salhus, Edna Walther, Eleanor Dreher, Dr. Virginia Tyler, Mary Pague and Helen Parrish.

SO THAT'S HOW IT'S DONE... says Belen Villa, Connie Walton and Carmelita Jaramillo, as they watch the photo-electric engraver in the Herald office on a recent visit. Belen is here for a week representing the Ranger Girl Scouts from the Philippines.

METHODIST WOMEN HOLD MEETING—POT LUCK

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church announces its program for the coming week.

On Aug. 11, the Rachel Circle will meet in the Torrance City Park at 6:30 p.m., for a family pot-luck dinner.

Also on Aug. 11, the Mary Circle will hold an evening session with Mrs. Paul Slyh, 2551 Lesserman St., starting at 7:30 p.m.

YWCA Group Planning For Summer Activities

Summer for YWCA means changes in jobs for many members of the staff, and changes in scenery for others.

Ruth Lamman, former director of the Wilmington YW, has recently returned from spending two weeks in Mexico, where she traveled after receiving her master's degree from USC in June. Ruth has now joined the staff of the Church Welfare Bureau of the Church Federation on a special youth service project.

The teenage director for the last two years of the San Pedro Association, Marilyn Esslinger, is leaving this month to attend a training center for moral rearmament for the next three months.

Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, the Torrance branch director, is anticipating a vacation in the northwest, where she and her husband will visit relatives and friends.

Later in the summer Mrs. Duryl Vaughn and her husband will visit relatives in Oregon. Mrs. Muriel Blackstone, membership and public relations director, is planning to relax, play tennis and take pictures, but says that she and her family will probably end up at their favorite vacation spot, Sequoia National Park.

The executive director of the Harbor District YW, Mrs. Elsa Morris, is planning to enjoy a few trips to nearby points of interest, with her husband and children.

Mrs. George Wilson, office manager, will be resting at home and working at the Y this summer, while Marilyn Medak, receptionist, plans an exciting two weeks taking in Laguna, Ontario, the mountains, and Fresno.

Mrs. Elva Anderson, housekeeper at the San Pedro YW, will visit her daughter in Texas and her family in Colorado.

Mrs. Genevieve Surprenant has already returned from vacationing in San Francisco. When fall rolls around, the present staff, along with three new staff members of the Y, ten and Wilmington positions will be ready for YWCA work refreshed from summer activities.

'Stork Story' FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Happy couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lyman, the former Betty Jo Haden, who now resides in Richmond, Calif. They are the parents of a new arrival, Pamela Jane, born July 19. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hayden of 1313 Fern Ave.

Janet Lorraine, weighing 7 lbs. 9 1/2 oz., has arrived to be a playmate of Jimmy and Julia Sullivan, who live with their parents at 2213 Cabrillo Ave. She entered on the scene July 29 at 8:51 p.m., to greet her mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd R. Sullivan. Dad is employed by Columbia Steel. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Collier of Oxnard, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lester Sullivan of Paris, Ark.

First born of Mr. and Mrs. William Moon of 2107 Carson was a son born July 29 at 4:31 p.m. Father of the baby boy is an employment interviewer at North American Aviation. Proud grandparents of the 10 lb. 1 oz. child are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Moon of 1024 1/2 Anapola Ave. and Mr. and Mrs. Radford H. Farquhar of 2103 Carson St.

Another first-born is Janet Lea, who came to greet her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barwin of 445 Harbor Hills, Lomita. Father of the 8 lb. 5 oz. infant is employed by G. & H. Engineering in Long Beach. She was born July 30 at 1:47 p.m. Happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Saxton and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barwin, all of Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Farquhar are the proud parents of their first child, a son born July 30 at 12:58 p.m. Rocklin, as the baby was named, will live with his parents at 23222 Linda Dr. Father of the 7 lb. 12 oz. boy is employed at Northrop. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cox of Lawndale, and Mr. and Mrs. George S. Farquhar of Los Angeles.

Lydia and Frank Duran now have a new playmate. Sylvia arrived on the scene Aug. 1 at 4:34 a.m. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duran of 87 203rd St. Father of the 6 lb. 14 oz. girl is employed by San Lorenzo Nursery. Grandparents are Pedro Martinez of 2205 203rd St. and Tereso Duran of Mexico.

July 22 at 3:16 a.m. little David Almond came to join his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Almond and brother Danny, who reside at 1625 Cota. Papa of the 7 lb. infant is sales manager of Fenwick's Shoe Store. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pullen of Missouri, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Almond of Torrance.

IN HAWAII... Having a memorable vacation is Miss Barbara Smith of 1517 W. 219th St., who is spending 10 days at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Hawaii. Barbara, who is a senior at Torrance High School, is traveling with friends from Long Beach.

Patricia Clere To Appear On "Guest Artist Time"

Miss Patricia Clere, local organist and pianist, will be pre-State College. She is now a student in a musical program teacher in the Torrance Unified School District.

Miss Patricia Clere, local organist and pianist, will be pre-State College. She is now a student in a musical program teacher in the Torrance Unified School District. organ teacher, Dr. Peter Slack, music director of radio station KGER.

Lioness Meeting Conducted By New Officers

Mrs. Roy Peterson, newly installed president of Lioness Club, conducted her first business meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Jakubowski, 1520 1/2 Marcelina Ave.

Plans were made for the Lionesses to attend the Lions luncheon meeting Tuesday, Aug. 11 at Ding How, also the annual pot-luck picnic to be held Sunday, Aug. 23 at the Torrance City Park for all members and their families.

Mrs. Peterson appointed her chairmen for the coming year, which include Mrs. John Ritchie, membership; Mrs. A. Robinson, sunshine; Mrs. W. B. Hickcox, telephone; Mrs. Pete Radisch, hostess; and publicity, Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt.

Guest was Mrs. Alfred Radisch, a prospective member. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Jakubowski served ice cream and the traditional birthday cake in honor of Mrs. Hugh Bowman.

MISS PATRICIA CLERE... Who will appear on "Guest Artist Time" Monday afternoon.