NTCIA To Man Booth At Street Dance

By ADALINE CORTEZ

Before we venture into the "who has been where" items let me remind you:

Clinton Beeson, and several members of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn., will be selling ice cream novelties at a booth during the street dance on El Prado Friday night. Sounds like real fun.

Notice to all Simple Simons: Gather up your pennies! The Fuchsia Society pie sale begins at 10 a.m. this Saturday out-side Manor Market. I am told that the best pie bakers in the area will display their wares.

Also, Perry PTA will hold its Annual Silver Tea Sept. 3, from 1 to 4 p.m. For 50 cents you have child care, card games, and door prizes. Call Mrs. W. A. Wright, chairman of the event, for ticket information.

from North Torrance were rounded up one day this week for a "come-as-you-are" breakfast held at the home of Mrs. Dave Dyer, 17030 Crenshaw Blvd.

Assistant flapjack flippers were Mrs. Ed Collins and Mrs. Bert Johnson.

Where do people find all that ambition at that hour?

Birthday greetings to two sweet misses on Faysmith Ave., who celebrate their sixth birthday within days of each other, at parties given in their respective homes—Barbara Dudley and Julie Haas.

The happiest boy in North Torrance this week is Jerry Blake, 3761 W. 17th St., whose parents gave him a Schwinn bike for his eighth birthday. He celebrated the glad-day at Ladera Park.

Fifteen unsuspecting ladies

A much bigger boy, Al Mac-

Kenzie, 4332 W. 179th St., also celebrated a birthday Saturday night.

In spite of the fact that he cancelled plans to attend a baseball game and spent the day at home, Mrs. MacKenzie and six friends managed to genuinely surprise him.

A buffet supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Stewart.

It's Fiesta time in Santa Barbara, and DeAnn and Ross Groves, 17508 Cerise Ave., and their friend Gail Patterson, 2035 W. 160th St., just returned from a visit to their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. George Groves of Santa Barbara, report that the fiesta was a parade of parades!

Horse parades, children's parades, grand parades! All bringing back the charm of the days when Santa Barbara was a mission where the padres, the dons and the vaqueros from the nearby ranchos brought Christianity and civilization to the Indians.

I've heard that life is a kick in a kickable place! Mr. and Mrs. Russell Holmbeck, must feel it is just that. They were enroute to Durango, Colo. when their car broke down in Las Vegas. Needless to say, the Holmbecks are vacationing at home.

The traffic at the Robert Haas residence has reached Grand Central Station proportions! Mrs. Evelyn Haas, Mr. Haas' mother, and his grandfather arrived from Phillips, Wis.

No sooner had they left when Mrs. C. W. Swingle and two daughters arrived to visit with her sister, Mrs. Eva Hamel, (Mrs. Haas' mother, who resides with the Haas family). They left Sunday and NOW

Mrs. Hamel is off for a two-week holiday with a daughter in Albuquerque, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Baillie, 4222 W. 179th St., have returned from a trip to Mount Palomar and Paso Robles, where they visited her brother, Capt.

Steele, and took in the San Luis Obispo Fair.

After a three-year absence from California, Mrs. E. D. Alford has returned to visit her son, Delbert and his family at 17230 Atkinson Ave.

Juanita Alford and neighbor, Betty Johnson, have taken Mrs. Alford on a tour of the Wayfarers Chapel at Portuguese Bend, the bustling Farmer's Market, and, of course, the ever-popular Knott's Berry Farm.

Back at her parents' home after a summer trek to Northern California is Deanna White, 10 Deanna has spent the summer with relatives in the San Francisco area. She fished in the bay, shopped in San Francisco and saw all the sights!

"Shouldn't acquaintance be forgotten" and it had not been forgotten when Ed and Ann Collins renewed a friendship with a school chum of Ann's in Arcadia Saturday night.

Little Susan Gall doesn't know it, but she caused quite a furor at the installation ceremonies of the Scout Mothers Club just before her birth last week!

Jerry Bronson, mother, left the party. Soon after Walt Bronson left too; before long word came back via the grapevine that the Bronson car was speeding toward Hawthorne Community Hospital.

And, yes, there is a wee little girl (5 lb., 6 oz.) at 17229 Atkinson Ave. these days. Another little miss livens up the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O'Farrell, 4207 W. 179th St. Her name, Patricia Lynn!

The ratio remains 2 to 1! (And me with a daughter who will one day need a husband.) A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Parks, 16819 Faysmith Ave. at Centinela Hospital. Dale Allen is the name!

There is a rumor going around that the gals in the Sitch and Chatter Club have taken to betting their last slitch on whether Bea Van De Vort will have another boy (she has three) or a girl!

The Marcel Beaudwins, 17084 Faysmith, were in a crash on Crenshaw Blvd. near Manhattan Beach Blvd. last Friday. No one was hurt, but oh... the cars!

Mrs. Ruth Adamson, mother of Ilene, is recovering from a siege of pneumonia at the J. R. Allison home, 17038 Glenburn Ave.

Also on the convalescing list is Mrs. Clyde Hentzen of Los Angeles, who is recovering beautifully from an auto accident. She is staying at the Harold Wright home, 17024 Faysmith Ave.

Mrs. Albert Pesola, 17030 Faysmith Ave., is keeping Patty and Glenn Wallace of Norwalk from getting the blues while their mother, a dear friend of Mrs. Pesola, is recuperating from surgery at Queen of Angels Hospital.

Ruth and Wendell Towell, 17008 Ermanita, cheered the Rams at the Coliseum last week.

The game was good, but the Rams lost their scalps to the Washington Redskins. CONSTANT FIX The earth's north-south axis remain in one position.
