Saturday Night Los Fiestadores Slate 'Welcome Home' Dance

"Welcome Home" will be the theme next Saturday night, Sept. 12, when Los Fiestadores hold their first dance of the full season at the Portuguese Bend Clubhouse.

Festivities will begin with a cocktail hour at 7 p.m. Dancing to the music of a name orchestra will follow at 8:30 o'clock.

Each guest will receive a dance program covered with a map of one of the 48 states, representing various favorite vacation spots. Each dance will have a theme, such as "International Rag" to "provoke nostalgia in those who vacationed in other lands, and "Stork Jitters" for those who stayed at home for the arrival of new infants.

Members of the executive committee, composed of Mesdames and Mesdames R. C. Morton, E. E. Clayton, Merle C. Richardson, and Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Eastham, are in charge of arrangements.

Earl Claytons Visit Mexico

A side trip to quaint Nogales, Mex., highlighted the recent vacation of Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Clayton and son, Ricky, 1020 Crenshaw Blvd.

The local family journeyed across the border while visiting at the home of Mrs. Clayton's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Trezise, in Mesa, Ariz. They vacationed in the Southwest city for 10 days.

One Year Ago MRS. WORK TO ATTEND OWN MAID OF HONOR

Recalling memories of her own wedding day will be the bridal procession Mrs. Robert E. (Nancy Whyte) Work will join next Sunday, Sept. 13.

Mrs. Work will be attending Miss Shirley Hambrook of San Francisco on the exact day and hour of her own marriage one year ago.

Miss Hambrook, whose father is vice-president of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph in San Francisco, is well known in Torrance circles, having spent many vacations visiting the former Miss Whyte while both were students at Mills College in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Work, with Mrs. Grover C. Whyte and Miss Ruth Kemper, left Torrance today to attend pre-nuptial festivities. They will return to their respective homes, Westchester and 1820 Post Ave., Monday evening.

Churchwomen Slate Sale

All kinds of used clothing for men, women, and children will be on the bill of sale Friday and Saturday, Sept. 25 and 26, when the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Church, holds a rummage sale at the church.

Doors will open each day at 10 a.m. Mrs. Bruce Kyer, publicity chairman, announced. In charge of the ways and means project is Mrs. J. A. DeJaifre.

'Stork Story' FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

First arrival in the 2787 Sonoma Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Egger is a 6 lb. 2 oz. daughter. Named Sylvia Ann Azalia, the little girl was born at 6:06 a.m. Sept. 6. Father is employed as an engineer at Northrop Aircraft; grandparents are Messrs. and Mesdames Daniel F. Egger of Inglewood and Harry D. Humberstone of San Salvador, El Salvador.

Also born Sept. 6 at 4:34 p.m. was a new playmate for nine-year-old Ruby Kay and two-year-old Ronald Paul, children of North American leadman Paul J. Campbell and his wife, who made their home in Redondo Beach. The new arrival, who weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz., has been named Carol Ruth. Grandparents are Ethel Campbell of Inglewood and Mae Underwood of Joliet, Ill.

Three new babies, two boys and a girl first saw the light of day at Torrance Memorial Hospital on Sept. 6. The Patrick H. Sanders, 2441 1/2 Neece Ave., and the Richard P. Millers, 17512 Delia Ave., are parents of boys, while Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Irving Giddings, 1626 1/2 W. 218th St., have a new baby girl.

The Sanders infant, named James Doran, weighed 8 lbs. when born at 7:10 a.m. He joins two sisters, Marilyn Frances, 3 and Patricia Ann, 1. Grandparents are Mrs. Esther Sanders, 24410 Neece Ave., and Mrs. Mary Lynn of Milton, Fla.

New Miller arrival, who weighed 8 lbs. 9 oz. at the birth hour, Maxine, father is a teacher in the Torrance Unified School District. Included on the welcoming committee are a five-year-old brother, Robert Carl; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller, 1317 Beech Ave.; and the maternal grandmother, Gladys Bellinger of Corona del Mar.

Martha Ann is the first arrival for Mr. and Mrs. Giddings.

Arline Smart Honored with Bridal Shower

Choosing a pink and white color scheme, Miss June Rambo recently honored her future sister-in-law, Miss Arline Smart, with a miscellaneous shower in the 2401 Apple Ave. Rambo home.

Miss Smart will recite vows with Jack Rambo early in January 1954.

Highlighting room decor were pink and white crepe paper streamers and wedding bells forming a canopy over the refreshment table. White candles flanked either side of the pink and white decorated sheet cakes, inscribed with the names and wedding date of the affianced pair.

Crystal punch bowl and bouquets of pink roses were featured in table appointments. Traditional shower games were played, with prizes going to Misses Carol Campbell and Marca Wright. Other school friends of the bride-to-be attending were Misses Jimmie Matthews, Joan Stephens, Jennie Whitten, Betty Peterson, Ellen Koehn, Margaret Davis, Pat Garrison, Janet Williamson, Jo Ann Courdway, Charlene Grace, Susie Benard, Janet Poh, Claire Demonet, Lois Jones, Janie Morfat, Gail Thompson, Carol Owens, and Yvonne Hawker.

Mesdames Max Smart, mother of the honoree; Jiles Rambo, mother of the best-of-elect; Leslie Peterson, cousin of the honoree; and Joe Rasko also joined in the pre-nuptial festivities.

Father of the 7 lb. 1 oz. baby girl, born at 5:44 p.m., is employed at J. B. Young Pipeline. Mother is the former Mary Ann Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lang, 1216 Maple St. Other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. P. Ellis of Bakersfield and Ray Giddings of Calpella.

Single Sept. 4 arrival was 9 lb. 6 1/2 oz. Valerie Jo, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Sturges, 21011 La Salle Ave., at 11 a.m. Her playmates are Robert Jr., 6; Richard, 4; and Vicki, 3; father is employed at Douglas Aircraft.
