First, Last for OES Exemplify Degree, Receive Deputy Grand Matron Tonight

A first and a last will keynote tonight's regular meeting of Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, to be held at the Masonic Temple.

The sixth degree will be exemplified for the first time here, and Deputy Grand Matron Edna Babcock will pay her last official visit to the chapter as its deputy.

The following Sunday, Oct. 18, Worthy Matron Joan Simpson, Worthy Patron Thomas Foster, and their line officers will travel to Long Beach for the Grand Chapter convention, which will continue through Oct. 23, when a new deputy will be installed.

After grand officers are elected at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, Oct. 21, all past matrons and past patrons from Torrance Chapter will gather for luncheon.

186th Streeters Busy on Drive For Membership

Membership in PTA offers an opportunity to parents to work together with teachers in the development of their children, preparing them to be future good citizens. Mrs. W. C. Attebery, chairman, said this week in announcing the current membership drive of 186th St. PTA.

Primary objective, she said, is to secure new actively participating members, but the drive also will be focused on encouraging current participants to renew their membership.

Assisting Mrs. Attebery in the drive are D. Meredith and Mesdames R. Slith, J. T. Evans Jr., James McMillen, D. Meredith, and F. White.

Philanthropy, Fun on CDA Fall Calendar

Plans for philanthropy and fun keynote last Monday night's session of Court St. Catherine Catholic Daughters of America, held at the Nativity parish hall with Mrs. John F. Gitschler, grand regent, presiding.

First on the agenda for the busy women will be the task of collecting toys and clothing to send as Christmas gifts to the Korean orphanage the court has adopted. All articles must be in by the end of next week, Mrs. Lawrence Gitschler, chairman, reported, and members should bring them to her home, 1303 Acacia Ave.

Other philanthropy projects of the group included a donation of $10 for the Archbishop's Christmas Party, held each year for needy families.

On the fun side, were plans for a Halloween party at the parish hall on Oct. 26 under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. J. Macdonald. Members and guests will come in costume at 8 p.m. and join in playing traditional All Halloween's Eve games.

Hostesses for the event, who also served refreshments at the Monday meeting, will be Mmes. Macdonald, Gerald Loew, T. T. Babbitt, C. J. Flynn, F. C. Rick, Gerald Macdonald, Henry Sifers, and E. K. Cunningham.

Hat Show To Highlight Y Reception

It's gay! It's new! It's fun! So say the invitations bidding members and friends of the Harbor District YWCA to attend a reception for new staff and new members of the YWCA to be held next Wednesday, Oct. 21, from 2 to 4 p.m. at headquarters building, 437 W. Ninth St., San Pedro.

A special feature of the afternoon's entertainment will be the Carnival d'Chapeaux, featuring a showing of the latest in fall hats by a Harbor merchant as well as some comedy models from former years.

The event is being arranged by the San Pedro membership committee with Mrs. Arnold Ecklund as chairman in co-operation with the Harbor District personnel committee, chairmaned by Mrs. Alonzo Hurley.

Included on the new staff to be presented to community women are Marian Fatout, teenage co-ordinator; Mrs. Mary Michel, young adult director; and Mrs. Caroline Stelhorn, Wilmington program director.

RIVIERA GALS EXHIBIT REAL 'GIVING' SPIRIT

It isn't the size of the gift but the spirit in which you give it that counts.

Four eleven-year-old Hollywood Riviera girls showed the right spirit last Sunday when they worked up several acts, fixed up a garage as a theater, and put on a show for their neighbors, donating the entire "take" to the polo fund.

"Though the amount totaled only $1.53," Mrs. Clara A. Conner, city March of Dimes chairman, said: "The gift meant much more because of the spirit of the girls who gave it."

Originators of the philanthropy program were Pat Owens, 205 Calle Mayor, and Susan Tierney, Sherry Collins, and Cheryl Clagg, all of 440 Palos Verdes Parkway.

SUNDAY Pancake Feed Set by Jobies

Pancakes will highlight the menu next Sunday - Oct. 18, when the local Job's Daughters serve a breakfast at the Lomita Masonic Temple from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Affair is being planned by Jane Moffatt, senior princess, to raise funds for her installation as queen in December. The "Jobbie Moms" will assist their daughters in preparing and serving the meal.

Tickets for the event, at 85 cents for adults and 60 cents for children under 12 may be obtained from any "Jobbie" or member of the mothers' circle.

EXPECTANT MOMS CLASS POSTPONED

"Because of a shortage of nurses, the Expectant Mothers Class, slated to begin this month at Torrance Health Center, has been postponed until sometime after Christmas," Elizabeth Sutherland, supervising public health nurse at the Center, announced this week.

"We will announce starting date of the course after the New Year," she said.

PLAN BAKE SALE

Okizu Campfire Girls will hold a bake sale at the Sav-Mart on Western Ave. next Saturday morning, 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Mrs. O. D. Barnard, chairman, announced this week.

Included on the new staff to be presented to community women are Marian Fatout, teenage co-ordinator; Mrs. Mary Michel, young adult director; and Mrs. Caroline Stelhorn, Wilmington program director.
