

"Ahoj, bud! How do we get to Torrance? We want to make it for GET ACQUAINTED WEEK, October 25-31."

Lady 'Driver' Gets 96th Traffic Ticket

Without stirring from her armchair, Mrs. Margaret J. Crofts, 17303 Dalton Ave., picked up her 96th, yep, that's right, traffic ticket this week.

Her total climbed almost to the 100 mark as the Torrance Police Department notified her that she had been cited three times in the last week for parking violations. Not only is Mrs. Crofts approaching the title of Champion Ticket Getter but she is amassing enough Warrants for Arrest to make her one of the "Most Wanted Women in the United States."

And, she claims, "it's all a big mistake." Some months ago, February to be exact, Mrs. Crofts sold her car to Larry's Garage, which in turn sold it to "some" man. Since that time, Mrs. Crofts, apparently still listed on the Department of Motor Vehicles' owner roster, has been notified that she has been ticketed 66 times and in some cases has been notified by the court that if she doesn't come in to pay up she will be arrested for failure to appear.

"I've spent enough on postage explaining the situation to pay for several tickets—that I never got," she told Torrance Police Sergeant G. S. Evans last week.

BY HIS LONESOME . . . Bob Schwartz at the controls of a Taylor Craft is congratulated by his instructor, Bob Pfeleger, owner of Eagle Aviation, after Schwartz made his first solo flight recently at the Torrance Municipal Airport. The 30-year-old Schwartz is now training for his private license after receiving 10 hours of instruction before soloing. The airman lives at 1731 Martina Ave. He is affiliated with his father in Schwartz' Men's Store on Sartori Ave.
