

Mrs. Clinkenbeard to Lead International Woman's Club

Beginning her second term as president of the International Woman's Club is Mrs. Thomas Clinkenbeard of Torrance. The local woman and her corps of officers were elected at last week's meeting of the club and are making plans to increase the membership. Those assisting the president are Mesdames Rickety Lang of Compton, vice-president; Howard Bingham of Compton, secretary; Sheila Williams of Lynwood, treasurer; and Howard Kilts of Hawthorne, publicity chairman.

The club now has members from cities throughout this area who originally made their homes in England, France, Germany

Auction Sale To Highlight Fern Carnival

"Auction Sale" will be one of the many booths featured at the carnival planned by Fern Ave. Greenwood PTA for Oct. 30. Mrs. K. O. Bowdoin, publicity chairman, announced this week.

Many other attractions, including a haunted house, a talent show, and games will add to the fun of the 6 to 9 p.m. affair, and hot dogs, chili and beans, pie, cake, coffee, pop, and popcorn will be on sale at the food booth throughout the evening.

Anyone wishing to donate saleable articles or food may contact Mrs. C. F. Malone, president, at FAirfax 8-0486. All proceeds will be used for the PTA child welfare program and organization expenses.

Tallies Ready for Torrance Woman's Club Card Party

Tallies are now available for the Torrance Woman's Club annual card party, which this year will benefit the Sister Kenny and Red Cross funds. Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt announced at yesterday's meeting, held at the Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

The event will be held Nov. 2, with members and guests gathering in various homes throughout the city for card play, then adjourning to the clubhouse for awarding of prizes and refreshments.

Other calendared events announced at the session, which included Mrs. J. A. Barrington, Junior Woman's Club president, and Mrs. R. H. Tolson, Junior-Senior co-ordinator.

New Fuchsia Club Slates Opening Meet

Officers will be nominated and elected Friday night, Nov. 6, when the newly-formed Torrance Branch of the National Fuchsia Society holds its opening meeting at the Moose Hall, 1744 W. Carson St.

A jitney potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock will precede the business session. Joe Littlefield, prominent gardening authority throughout the Southland, will be featured as after-dinner speaker.

"As we hope to make new friends in this area, we are opening the meeting to the general public," Mrs. Lester Horn, chairman, said. "Anyone interested is invited to attend."

Succeeding sessions of the new group will be held at the Moose Hall the first Friday of each month.

Catholics Plan Rummage Sale

Many articles of furniture as well as miscellaneous household items and clothing for men, women, and children will be on sale shelves Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30 and 31, when the Nativity Altar Society holds a rummage sale at the parish hall, 1420 Cota Ave.

All those having articles they wish to donate may bring them to the hall or to the 1027 Acacia Ave. home of Mrs. Corwa Dean, chairman. Pick-up service may be arranged by calling Mrs. Dean at FAirfax 8-3079.

All articles must be in no later than Thursday, Oct. 29, Mrs. Dean said.

New Heir in Scudder Clan

A new heir to the family name, Doremus Platt Scudder, arrived to the Scudders II, 2160 Torrance Blvd., last Saturday night, 8:31 o'clock, at St. Vincent's Hospital in Los Angeles.

The new baby, a 7 lb. 13 oz. boy, is the third Doremus Platt in the Scudder family. Father "Dore," who owns and operates Dore's Model Supply Shop here, says he will shorten the long handle to "Diney."

"Diney's" grandparents are the Scudders Sr. of Niles, and Mrs. Rena J. Moser of Los Angeles.

Sell Rummage Today

Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church will sell rummage today and tomorrow at the Guild Hall, corner of Arlington and Marcellina Aves.

Doors will open at 9 a.m., and many miscellaneous household articles, such as dishes and draperies, as well as men's, women's, and children's clothing will be on the sale shelves.

BROWNIE BAKE SALE REPORTED A SUCCESS

Success of the recent bake sale held here by Brownie Troop 1400 of Welteria, sponsored by the Pacific Hills Homeowners Association, was reported this week by Mrs. Dorothy Ritter, leader.

"It was due to the help of the Brownie mothers, wives of committee members of the Association, and all those who participated in the sale that we were successful in gaining funds to finance troop projects this year," Mrs. Ritter said.
