

VERSATILE . . . Ken Ullman, factory demonstrator, displays the versatility of Shopsmith, a revolutionary power tool, to the crowds at United Hardware and Supply Co., 821 S. Hawthorne Blvd. The Shopsmith can be changed from a circular saw to a drill press, a disc sander, a lathe, or a horizontal drill in a matter of seconds. It requires a working area of only 48 square feet and can be stored in seven and a half square feet. During the Christmas season, Ullman will demonstrate other power tool lines at the United Store, including Delta, Skill, Porter-Cable, Stanley, De-Walt, Davis and Well, Comet and Black and Decker power tools.

Depot Employees To Attend Forum

A group of 200 employees of the Torrance Annex, Naval Supply Depot, will attend the "Freedom Forum" telecast tonight at 5 o'clock and hear the subject "Has the Federal Civil Service Been Impaired?" discussed pro and con.

"Freedom Forum," Freeman Lusk, moderator, will be telecast over KJACTV from 5 to 6 p.m. and will be broadcast over KLAC radio from 10:05 to 11 p.m. All federal employees and their friends have been invited to attend the forum, which is held at the Music Hall Theatre, 9036 Wilshire Blvd. The doors close at 4:30 p.m.

On the affirmative side of the question will be Luther C. Steward, national president of the National Federation of Federal Employees, of Washington, D. C.; and the Hon. Samuel W. York, congressman from the 26th District, California.

Taking the negative will be John Landreau, economist, efficiency engineer and civil engineer; and Oliver Carlson, author and lecturer on economic and political science in the field of government.

FINAL CHECK-OFF . . . Lenny Mills and Jerry Baldwin, owners of the Torrance Furniture Company, check over store plans to make certain everything is "all set" for the Grand Opening which will be held the week-end of Nov. 20. The new store is located next to the new Bank of America Building at 1255 Sartori Ave.

Winter Training Program Set for Women Marines

Because of the increasing need for women officers, the Marine Corps is inaugurating a winter training program for women officer candidates. The class begins Jan. 28, 1954.

Technical Sergeant Grace M. Hall, who is in charge of interviewing women candidates for the training program in this area, said the class is known as the Marine Corps Women Officers Training Class. It consists of 12 weeks of special training designed to prepare the individual candidate for the responsible work she will have later on as a commissioned officer in the Corps.

Graduates of the Women Officers Training Class receive commissions as Second Lieutenants, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve. The winter session will be in addition to the established summer training program for women officer candidates.

"More and more exciting opportunities are being made available to qualified young women who want to become commissioned officers in the Marine Corps. That's because the Marine Corps has found vital roles in command and administrative duties for its women officers," said Sergeant Hall.

YMCA Executive Secretary Thanks Everyone Who Helped With "Good Neighbor" Breakfast

The Torrance Herald:

The Annual Good Neighbor Breakfast is history for '53, but the Torrance YMCA is extremely grateful to you for the publicity given for this event.

May I extend my personal thanks to you and your newspaper for the publicity that you give the Association and its youth, the year around.

The fifth Annual Good Neighbor Breakfast attracted over 800 persons on Saturday, Nov. 7 at the Torrance Civic Auditorium. People from all the surrounding communities enjoyed the fine food and fellowship, and the playing of the Torrance Area Youth Band under the direction of Mr. James Van Dyck.

The following men of the community helped in the serving and preparing of the breakfast: William Walmsmith, Milt Isbell, John Steinbaugh, Warren Hamilton, Robert Merton, George Stevens, Willys Blount, George Powell, Ted Merlon, Bill Speck and Stan Briggs, plus the many members of the YMCA: Don Armstrongs, Donald Anderson, Joe Arnold, W. E. Bowen, J. C. Caldwell, Sgt. Carmel Cook, Gill Derpulin, Dale Isenberg, Sam Levy, C. K. Mewborn, Charles Mullen, William R. Patterson, Roy Peterson, R. I. Plomert Jr., Ed Raphael, Ben Smith, Dr. Rollin Smith, D. M. Sowie, William H. Tolson, A. C. Turner, Dr. Gerald Eastham, Tom Wilkes, and Dick Brown.

Mr. Hank Borg, of the Greater Torrance Market, had been the contact person for the procurement of the food that was donated by General Mills, Sperry Division, Lady's Choice Foods, Union Packing Co., Folgers Coffee Co., Mayfair Creamery, and Darigold Dairy Products.

Credit certainly should be given to the Torrance Merchants who provided more of the supplies. They were: Greater Torrance Market, A & P Store, Jim Dandy Market, Carson Mart, D & D Market, Grubb's Market, Foo King Market.

The Torrance Flower Shop made arrangements for the table decorations, and the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs of Torrance High School served and took care of the clearing of the dishes.

Mrs. A. C. Turner, chairman of the Torrance YMCA Board of Managers said today that he wished to thank all the persons who had participated so graciously on this annual event that honored Mr. A. H. Bartlett as the Good Neighbor of the year.

Sincerely,
STAN ROBERTS
YMCA Executive Secretary

Rabbit Show Slated at El Camino

Rabbits will invade the El Camino College campus Nov. 22, when hundreds of the long-eared mammals and their fanciers meet in the college gymnasium from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the third annual Rabbit Show.

Sponsored by the Torrance Area Rabbit Club, the show is expected to draw visitors from all points of the Southland.

On display for the event will be 16 to 18 breeds, with trophies to be awarded for the best of breed in the six or seven largest classifications, according to Mrs. Sally Bezanon, secretary of 700 rabbits are expected to be on display.

In addition to the live exhibits, displays of furs, garments made of skins, booties, and toys are tentatively planned for the show.

"Adding to public interest will be exhibits of new babies, just out of nest boxes," Mrs. Bezanon said. She added that many picturesque breeds will be shown this year for the first time.

Trophies which will be awarded during the day will also be placed on display, the show secretary added.

"No charge will be made for entrance to the show," Mrs. Bezanon said, "and we wish to extend a cordial invitation to the general public to attend."
