Polio Victim Gets Trike from Friends

By HELEN AMOS
FAIRfax 8-1986

There must be more news throughout the area that I don't know about. If you don't call me and tell me, I can't write it down. If you have something going on this week-end, call me and tell me about it. Just dial FAIRfax 8-1986.

By now all of you probably have seen the flashing lights on Torrance Blvd. That's one of the projects completed by the traffic committee. Norman Laverty and his committee deserve a thanks for all their work.

Coby Roberts, of 1225 Felbar Ave., celebrated his fifth birthday last Sunday. There was a merry-go-round for the children to ride, and Chuko the Clown made hats and blew up balloons to entertain the children who were waiting their turn to ride. Chuko made a big crown for Coby. Those who helped make the party a big success were Patty Knowles, Butch Bennett, Donnie Allen, Candy Burrows, Robert Osborn, Larry McEluff, Bonnie Schmidt, Tommy Evans, Kenny Hall, Mike Belzer, Steve and Craig Cahow, and Peter Zappas. The children who extended their best wishes but were unable to attend included Clark Osborn, Peter Spragot, Bobby McElhose, Randy and Rafana Bell, and Glen Amos.

Mark Steele, 1329 Florwood Ave., 2½, is riding a new tri-cycle now, thanks to his neighbors and little friends. You see, Mark came down with polio on Labor Day and before he came home from the hospital, the doctor said he should have a tri-cycle to exercise his legs. The children and their parents who live around Mark contributed their pennies and nickels and collected enough for Mark to have his tri-cycle. He has made a very rapid recovery since he's been home and is doing a good job of walking now.

The people who live around the drainage hole on Maple Ave. have reported that the city has finally cleaned it up. They have burned all the weeds down and now there are trucks there working.

The social committee of the Torrance Gardens-Plaza Homeowners had a meeting last week and have decided to hold a Circus Party for the children on Saturday, Jan. 20. They hope to have it at the Madrona Ave. School. This party is in lieu of a Christmas party originally planned. The committee is working to have rides, clowns, magicians, and concessions of all sorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagenbough of 1011 Felbar Ave. have returned from a three-day trip they took to visit old friends in Springville, Lancaster, and Bakersfield, Calif.

Friday evening, Nov. 20, the Cub Scouts from Madrona Ave. School are holding a father and son cake baking contest at the Fern Ave. School. Mr. and Mrs. Galen Truesdell are to be the judges. Mrs. Truesdell will judge the texture while Galen will taste them.
