

WALTERIA KIDS SEND PARCELS TO NEEDY
 Needy families overseas will benefit from Halloween collections made by school children, Dale Wickstrom announced during Thursday's business session of Walteria PTA, held at the school.

The kids gathered clothing, needles, and thread and took the articles to Friends Church in Long Beach to be sent abroad. A talk on "How the Torrance School District Helps the Exceptional Child" given by Assistant School Superintendent Warren Hamilton, and musical numbers sung by the sixth grade chorus highlighted the program following the business hour.

Miss Janie Moffatt Named Queen of Job's Daughters

Miss Janie Moffatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moffatt, 2032 Andree Ave., will hold the scepter as honored queen of Torrance Bethel, Job's Daughters, during the next six months. Currently senior princess of the Bethel, Miss Moffatt was elected as queen at last Tuesday's regular meeting at the Masonic Temple on Sartori Ave. A freshman at El Camino College, with a major in education, she graduated from Torrance High School last June. TIS activities included the Girls Athletic Association, Tartar Ladies, and Theplans.

Miss Moffatt will be crowned as queen at Dec. 12 installation rites, taking the place of Miss Carol Campbell, who has worn the purple robe since June. To be seated with the new queen are Janice Crabtree, senior princess; Carol Maloy, junior princess; and Sally Speck, guide.

Six "Jobies" received their majority degree from the hands of Mrs. Pearl Thayne, guardian. Receiving the certificate were Mary Ann Ferguson, Ann Scleritta, Norma Hasvold, Mary Lou Crouch, Beverly Hood, and Ann Colingsworth.

Ceremonies were held following exemplification of Bethel work for the Torrance Masonic Blue Lodge.

Late October activities included a "Visitors' Night" with the local Bethel playing hostess to about 120 "Jobies" from Lomita, Redondo Beach, Gardena, San Pedro, Hawthorne and Compton.

Art, Music, Dance Combine For Unusual Symphony Show

Painted by Stowitz, who also was a world-famous ballet dancer, the works of art show the most prominent ballet artists of all time, including Pavlova, Nijinski, Karavina, and St. Denis. A man who danced with Pavlova and St. Denis and many other famed artists, Jan Darian, will do the narration for the program.

Darian, lecturer and world traveler, was premier dancer at the Berlin State Opera and the Covent Gardens in London; and

Jewish Sisterhood Plans Fund-raising Social
 Fun, food, and frolic will spark a donor social to be held on behalf of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center Sisterhood at the Gardena home of the Gabriel Baumgartens next Saturday night, Nov. 21. The fund-raising event will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

also has danced at the Opera Comique in Paris, as well as appearing as guest artist with Sadler Wells Ballet.

"We have planned this program to appeal not only to lovers of art and music but to ballet enthusiasts as well," Mrs. Aehle said. "Admission is free and the public is invited to attend."

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Undergoing eye surgery at Seaside Hospital in Long Beach yesterday was Gordon Arnold, commander of Bert S. Crossland Post 170, American Legion.

The leader will be hospitalized for about a week, then will convalesce at his home, 1242 Crenshaw Blvd.

Fete Retiring Jobie Queen

Bethel sisters of Miss Carol Campbell, retiring honored queen of Job's Daughters, gathered at the 2032 Andree Ave. home of the senior princess and queen-elect, Miss Janie Moffatt Monday night last week to honor her with a linen shower.

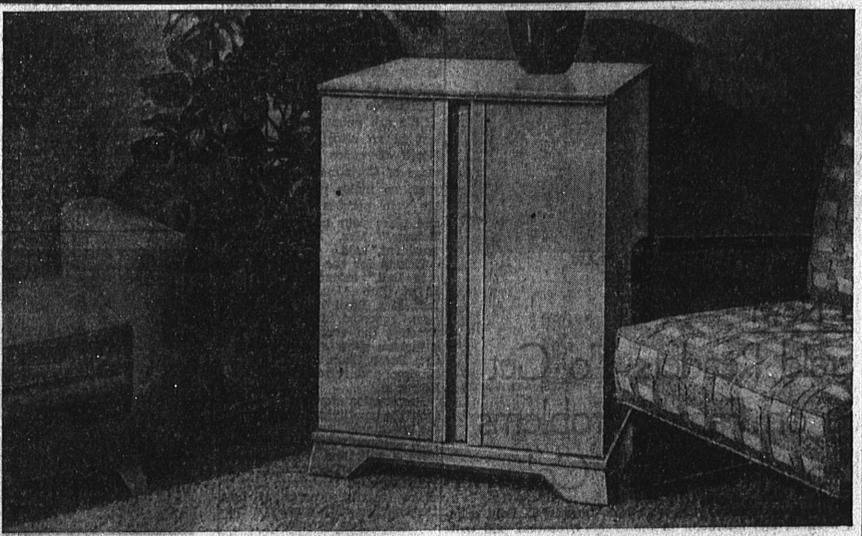

Decorations for the event, done in red and white, carried out the same theme Miss Campbell chose for her installation last June, "Harmony in Hearts."

About 25 "Jobies" and Mesdames Pearl Thayne, guardian; Smith K. Campbell, Ernest Moffatt, and George Crabtree attended.
