

Rebekah Fete To Aid Needy At Christmas

With philanthropy in mind, members of Trio Rebekah Lodge 240 will gather at the 25418 Senator Ave., Harbor City home of Loudine Roberts tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock for a gadget party.

All proceeds from the event will be added to the Christmas Fund to help the needy, Ruth Jacobs, publicity chairman, revealed.

Other funds for the project were added recently when Trio Helpers staged a bazaar featuring aprons, quilts, fancy work, and "white elephants" on sale shelves. The "Helpers" presented the monetary gift to the lodge Wednesday of last week when members gathered at the California Hall in Longita for the 32nd birthday of the organization.

A large white Bible for the altar, given by the Noble Grands Club, also was received by the lodge during the celebration. Nomination of officers will feature Trio's next meeting, slated for 8 p.m. Nov. 25 at the California Hall.

PETITE DANCER . . . Little Miss Robin Bingham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Bingham, 1510 Engracia Ave., strikes a pert pose in the costume she wears for the "Waltz of the Flowers" ballet which she will do on television this afternoon. A pupil of Ann Olson, she will appear at 4 o'clock on Al Jarvis' talent show over Channel 7, station KECA. (Bob Roberts photo)

CITY PTA MEETS THIS AFTERNOON

Today's 1:30 o'clock meeting of Torrance Elementary School PTA will feature a demonstration of techniques in teaching children to read, according to Mrs. W. E. Pierce, publicity chairman. The demonstration, which carries out this month's theme, "Progress Through Education," will follow a business session.

Wives To See Festive Foods Demonstration

Holiday entertaining and food for the family will be demonstrated at tomorrow morning's meeting of the Y-Wives at the Torrance YWCA, Mrs. Floyd V. Miller, president, announced this week.

The cooking demonstration, to be given by Mrs. Margie Ewen, home service representative of the Southern California Gas Co., will follow the regular 9:30 a.m. dance class, Mrs. Miller said. Mrs. Ewen is well known in this area for her leadership in cooking schools during the past seven years. She is planning to present to the group many ideas for easy, effective preparation of festive foods for the coming Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday season.

Y-Wives invite all women in the community to attend tomorrow's meeting, and to enroll as members in the group.

TONIGHT Narcotics Tale On PTA Slate

Detection and handling of the narcotics problem will be the topic of the feature address to night when 259th Pl. School PTA meets at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium, Mrs. C. R. Chitwood, press chairman, reported this week.

The talk, given by a speaker from the county sheriff's office, follows the theme of the month, "To Talk It Over," Mrs. Chitwood said. A display of narcotics samples will supplement the address.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the evening, and child care will be provided. "As many parents as possible should attend this timely, worthwhile meeting," Mrs. Chitwood said.

Spanish Food To Feature LDS Bazaar

Enchiladas, chili, and tamales will be on the menu all evening Saturday, Nov. 21, when the Women's Relief Society of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, holds its first bazaar at the church, beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

Many other unusual attractions will highlight the event, according to Mrs. Robert Williams, chairman, who is being assisted by Mrs. Louise Smith.

Among the items on sale shelves will be artificial plants, Christmas corsages, fancy needlework, and novelty Christmas gifts. A booth where family portraits may be taken, a fish pond for the kids, a bake sale, and musical entertainment also will be featured.
