

PARKING SPACE . . . Huge trucks unload produce, food and staples at the rear entrance of Market Town's Gardena store, 15017 S. Crenshaw Blvd. Lots of parking space and a rear entrance are featured at the store, and will be utilized fully during the anniversary celebration, to be held today through Sunday.

ON ICE . . . Manager Glenn Butler, of the Hawthorne Market Town store, 423 S. Hawthorne Blvd., points with pride to the new dairy cooler recently installed at the store, that tripled refrigeration space over the former cooler. Market Towns will celebrate their seventh anniversary today through Sunday with special prices, prizes, and entertainment. Special low turkey prices for Thanksgiving will be a feature of the bargain-loaded four-day sale, according to store officials.

Market Town Begins Anniversary Sale

Television comedians and magicians will entertain, and free birthday cake and merchandise samples will be given to customers during the seventh anniversary celebration at Market Town Markets, which begins today and continues through Sunday.

There are Market Town stores at 15017 S. Crenshaw, Gardena, and at 423 S. Hawthorne Blvd., Hawthorne.

The two super-markets will feature special values, entertainment, and surprises for four days beginning today and continuing through Sunday, according to Theodore E. Cummings, president of Cummings Markets, Inc., which operate the Market Town chain.

Free samples, and entertainment will be the order of the day during the entire event, Cummings said. Free orchids will be given to each woman customer on Saturday, while for the kiddies there will be free pony rides, at both stores, on Saturday from 10 to 4 p.m.

The famous television ventriloquist "Alibi Max" Terhune will entertain at Market Town Hawthorne on Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m., and at the Gardena Market Town, on Friday from

2 to 4 p.m. On Saturday, Torrance Herald

Magician Eddie Sverman will perform feats of magic for the customers at both markets. He is scheduled to appear at Market Town Gardena Saturday morning from 10 to 12 noon, and again at Market Town, Hawthorne, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Customers at Market Town Hawthorne will be entertained by Bill Duncan and his orchestra all Saturday morning, while at the store in Gardena, clowns will give away balloons and comic books to the kiddies.

In announcing the anniversary sale, Cummings said: "We have spared no effort to make this anniversary the biggest in our history. Our buyers have spent months securing the market and making special purchases for this event. We are having the birthday but are giving our customers the presents in the form of honest

Glenn Butler, manager of Market Town Hawthorne, 423 S. Hawthorne Blvd., and Curtis Long, manager of Market Town, Gardena, 15017 S. Crenshaw Blvd., will be on hand all four days to offer every customer a piece of Market Town Seventh Anniversary cake. The markets will be open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., including Sunday.
