Walteria MYF Group To Hold Hobby Show

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

Coming up this Friday, June 4, is a community Hobby Show sponsored by the Walteria Intermediate MYF. The show will be held at the Walteria Community Methodist Church on Newton St. Pie and coffee or pop will be served during the evening. Price for admission and refreshment being set at 35 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children. This project is to help raise funds for the building of the church's social hall.

Here comes that long-legged bird again! He received a warm welcome indeed when he visited the Andrew Duty home on Neece Ave. and left for them one baby girl, Lydia Jo put in her appearance at the San Pedro Community Hospital on Saturday, May 29, at 1 a.m. She is really a husky, since she was 21 inches long and weighed in at 10 1/2 pounds. This is the second child for the Andrew Dutys, their other being a boy, Paul, who is now two-and-a-half years old. Many members of our community are acquainted with the Rev. Duty, since he is pastor of the local Baptist Church. To the Duty family go our heartiest congratulations on their new arrival.

Mrs. Lorine Harline of Los Codona Ave. is in Healdsburg where she has spent the last couple of weeks. Purpose of her visit? Seems that her daughter Betty, Mrs. Johnny Walker, has presented her with another grandson with the last name of Walker.

There are several ways of celebrating birthdays, but this reporter wouldn't advise anyone to use the method Michael Mayfield put into practice. Seems he celebrated his sixth birthday by coming down with the measles. But that isn't all that happened to the Mayfields, who live on Selma Rd. Michael's father, John, went into the hospital the following day for a tonsillectomy.

Circle No. 2 held its monthly meeting this last week at the home of Mrs. Carol Allison, Danaha St. Co-hosting with Carol was Mrs. Gloria DeCaro, who baked a luscious angel food cake for the occasion. Thirteen ladies attended the gathering and decided to name the circle the "Martha Circle" instead of calling it by number. Other matters of business were attended to, with many plans being made for the future. Next meeting of the circle will be at the Danaha St. home of Mrs. John Monaghan.

A lovely weekend was spent this last week by Mr. and Mrs. Al Heintz, Neece Ave., when they went to Lake Hemet.

Attending a wee ones birthday party were proud grandparents Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Riggs of Park St. The Riggs went to granddaughter Sherri's birthday party in Torrance last Saturday, May 29, at 1 a.m. She is really Circle No. 3 held its monthly meeting last Wednesday at the Adolph St. home of Mrs. Myrtle Baker. Co-hostess was Mrs. Peggy Gehres. Fourteen ladies were present, including two guests, Mrs. Mickey Frank and Mrs. Ruth Mair. Devotional for the evening was presented by Mrs. Gloria Rose, after which a business meeting was held. The circle will hereafter be known as the Dorcas Circle since that is the name chosen for them that evening. Delicious refreshments gave the evening a finishing touch. The ribarbit pie and coffee really hit the spot.

Via the grapevine, this reporter has heard that a beauty contest for the Pacific Hills-Walteria area is now in the making. This contest is being sponsored by the Pacific Hills Homeowners Association, and any girl between the ages of 13 and 19 is eligible to enter. The winner will be crowned at a coronation ball to be held in July. More about this later — but some of you good looking gals should start thinking about entering.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cramer of Los Codona Ave. spent a happy Sunday this last weekend when they and their children, accompanied by grandma and grandpa, all went to Irvine Park for an all-day outing.

Notes on Narbonne

Girls' League Formal Installation Slated

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL

Today during third period, the Girls' League will hold the formal installation of the new officers who were elected last week. Stella Emery, new Girls' League president, is among the new officers to be installed in the auditorium.

The Junior-Senior Prom, which was held last Friday evening in the boys gym, was a tremendous success, just about every one was there. Sal Frisina and his band were really great! Everyone agreed that it is the best band around for miles! Tommie Robins, Narbonne's newly-elected student body president, and Glenda Wells reigned over the prom as king and queen. After the prom, many of the kids went out for dinner, some to Hollywood's Moulin Rouge.

Yesterday, the Jane Addams, including the new members, had a tea for their mothers in the cafeteria.

If you see a bunch of Martian-looking figures this afternoon, don't be alarmed. It's just a bunch of A-4s visiting Narbonne for the day.

Marge Cullinan, Dorothy Seales, and Laura Tolbert went on a really "frazzy" three-day trip to the San Gabriel mountains last weekend. Hmmm, wonder why they're been going practically every weekend!

Last Friday evening, (Solar day morning about 3 a.m.) after the prom Frank Zuray, Anita Shaheen, Gordon Garrett, Ruth Ames, Danny Marsh, and Gwen McCann left for a three-day holiday at Crestline. The kids reported that it is really beautiful up there!
