School Days Perry PTA Lunch Theme

"School Days," carried out with the little red school house centering the table and nutcrs in the form of slates marking each place setting, themed Friday's luncheon given by Perry PTA executive board at the school auditorium to honor school personnel.

Topping the guest of honor list were Lester Foster and A. Artuso, principal and vice-principal, respectively. Teachers also were feted at the event, chaired by Mmes. R. E. Nelson and T. R. Jackson.

The preceding Wednesday evening, 75 graduates were feted by the board after the exercises in the school auditorium. Co-chairmaning the party were Mmes. C. L. Thompson, W. A. Wright, and John Arensmeyer.

Perry PTA committee chairman for 1954-55, ratified at last Wednesday's board meeting, are the following:

Mmes. E. Boell, child health; Cecil Simpson, hospitality; R. F. Dohner, program; C. C. Wilkerson, publicity and record book; Gordon Lee, art; Jackson, news-ette; Eugene Phillips, magazine and emblems; Everett Carlston, legislation; and Principal Foster, school education.

Additional funds for the school gift for 1954-55 were voted at the session. Monies will be used to further audio-visual aid at the school.

Board meetings were scheduled for the second Thursday of each month at the home of Mrs. Dohner.

IN THE SWIM . . . Taking a first dip this season in the backyard pool of the John Hogans, 1641 Juniper Ave., Friday afternoon were daughter Kathy's first-grade classmates at Nativity School. One boy, James Rudnick, joined the 15 little misses, Sharon Janasik, Kathleen Behn, Donna Cason, Bonnie Dalton, Donna Dugan, Donna Franklin, Mary Green, Evelyn Harlan, Kathleen Jessome, Judy and Jill O'Hara, Rose Perez, Jacqueline White, Frances Levee, Patty Hayward, and Kathy. Mrs. Andrew Janasik assisted Mrs. Hogan in preparing a hot dog lunch for the tykes.

Miss Agnes Morris, Army Vet Marry, Live in L.A.

Home in Los Angeles after a brief wedding journey to Santa Barbara are John Vernon Juge, who was discharged from the U.S. Army Friday, and his bride, the former Miss Agnes Anne Morris, daughter of Rose M. Morris, 1004 Portola Ave.

The pair exchanged vows at Nativity Catholic Church May 22, with Father P. J. McGuinness reading the morning nuptial mass. Mary Ann De Nunzio, cousin of the bride, served as organist, while soloist was Frank Algarme, who sang "Ave Maria," "Pans Angelicus," and "On This Day," accompanied by Shirley

Pre-nuptial Parties Fete Pat Stanford

Surprise showers are honoring Miss Pat Stanford, daughter of the W. K. Stanford, 2516 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita, as June 28, date of her marriage to Kenneth Smiley of Compton, approaches.

Mrs. Paul Pettit, 2319 W. 24th St., Lomita, opened her home for the most recent event, selecting a white decorated cake with heart center to highlight table decor. Names of the affianced pair were inscribed in pink inside the heart.

A cart, also inscribed "Pat and Ron" and gaily tied with crepe paper streamers held gifts for the honoree from Mmes. Robert Perry, Paul Pettit, Cecil Cribbs, Donald Radcliff, Bob Fresinius, Ronald Stark, Roy Ferrin, Dale Eppler, Stanford, Robert Thompson, Olaf Baker, and "Teddy" Hyder.

The bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Frances Clark, also hosted a pre-nuptial party at her Compton home, with kitchenware as the gift theme. A three-layer cake decorated with flowers topped the refreshment menu.

Sharing in the fun were Mesdames Clark Stanford, Warren Ebnisign, La Mar Elliott, Lemon Gish, Kenneth Smiley, Samuel Vaughn, Edward Jones, Kenneth Smiley Jr., Ruth Dodge, H. C. Jones, William Deemer; Misses Charlene Vaughn and Stanford.

Local VFW Ladies Attend State Confab

Attending the annual state Veterans of Foreign Wars convention at Long Beach this week are eight from the Torrance Auxiliary, including Mrs. Mabel Moore, recently appointed chairman for Department officers gifts.

Also representing the local group at the session, which began yesterday and will continue through next Thursday, June 17, are Augusta Hunt, president; Helen Benton, senior vice-president; Maria Trinkley, junior vice-president; Hilma Malin, Mary Towler, Martha Jones, and Ann Warburton.

Mrs. Moore was appointed to the Department post by Phyllis Withee, of Long Beach, chairman. She will be among hostesses welcoming the Department president, Florian Fulton of San Francisco, at the convention tomorrow.

Many drill teams will be on hand for the occasion, and the public is invited to attend.

CDA Installs Tomorrow

Mrs. Frank A. Gately will be installed as grand regent of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court St. Catherine, during ceremonies held tomorrow night at Nativity Parish Hall.

Twelve or more other officers will be inducted into their new duties by Miss Helen Thompson of Redondo Beach, district deputy. Mrs. John F. Gitscher is retiring grand regent and Mmes. Thomas Fichter and Andrew Rabel are co-chairmen of the hostess committee.

Traveling to Court Joan of Arc last Thursday and to Court Ave Maria in Los Angeles Tuesday is Mrs. J. J. MacDonald, district deputy and installing officer. These two installations are Mrs. MacDonald's last official duties in her office. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Frank Cavanagh, monitor.

H. J. MILSOMS LEAVE FOR OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Milson, 5311 Binewald Rd., have made plans to leave tonight to visit Oregon. In Salem, the couple will stay with Mrs. Milson's brother, Dr. Frank E. Prime, and during their week's stay they will visit friends in Eugene and Portland.

Because of the Milsons' trip, a meeting of the Seaside Hill-Liters scheduled for June 15 at their home has been changed. Information on the meeting can be obtained by calling Frank Callahan, FR 5-1486.

BAPTIST WOMEN MEET WEDNESDAY

"No Place Like Home," inspirational given by Mrs. Mildred B. Palmer, will feature next Wednesday's 10:15 a.m. session of the Baptist Women's Mission Society, to be held at the church annex.

A potluck luncheon will follow at noon.

WSCS Summer Slate to Highlight Rummage Sale

Summer plans for a rummage sale, youth camp, and leadership training institute keynoted the agenda Thursday when the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Church, held its final general meeting of the 1953-54 year at the church.

The group selected Aug. 27 at the date for the sale following devotions led by Mrs. Earl Miller. Mrs. King McFadden, secretary of youth work, was selected to attend youth camp in August.

Another August activity, the leadership training institute of the Southern California Arizona conference will be attended by Mmes. Maude Obar, Miller, and A. H. Champion. Session will be held at the University of Redlands Aug. 17 through 20.

AWARD WINNERS . . . Beth Harvey, 4082 Newton St., left, and Carolyn Welch, 3244 Winlock Rd., right, received the highest Girl Scout honor, the curved bar, at after-dinner ceremonies Friday. Both girls, who entered Troop 398 as Brownies, are now senior patrol leaders of the group. With them are their mothers, Mmes. Nelson Harvey and Pauline Welch.

Herald Tour Made by PTA Publicists

Local PTA publicity chairman crawled under painter's scaffolds as the Herald was getting its face lifted Thursday to make a tour of the plant and receive pointers on preparation of Association releases during the year.

Workshop followed a 12:30 p.m. luncheon sponsored by the Herald at The Palms, with Mrs. W. A. Wright, Torrance Council PTA president, as honored guest.

Publicity chairman representing their respective PTAs were Mmes. M. L. Grady, North Torrance; Calvin Wilkerson, Perry; Frank Lane, Torrance High; Glenn Karbu, Walteria; Harold Holmes, Howard Wood; W. W. Jackson, Madrona; Russell Norton, El Nido; Philip Humphreys, Fern-Greenwood; and A. B. Tapia, Halidale.

Henry Heinlein, whose wife heads the group this year, represented Torrance Elementary PTA, while sitting in for the Riviera and Crenshaw PTAs, respectively, were Mmes. G. H. Blake and Glenn Runstedt.

Two Receive Highest Girl Scout Honors

Misses Beth Harvey, 4082 Newton St., Walteria, and Carolyn Welch, 3244 Winlock Rd., took the award spotlight Friday night when Walteria PTA's Senior Girl Scout Troop 398 held a mother-daughter dinner in the George Washington Room at the Fish Shanty.

The girls, both senior patrol leaders, entered Troop 398 about seven years ago when it was still in the Brownie class. Awards they received were curved bars, highest honor a Girl Scout can attain, which is comparable to the Boy Scout Eagle rank.

Mrs. Bruce Howey, representing the sponsoring organization, presented the pins and gave a short address on advancement into Senior Scouting. Advance was symbolized by Mrs. Robert Waegner, leader of the troop, as she doused candles representing Brownie and Intermediate troops and lighted another taper to signify Senior status.

Grandchild No. 1 Born For Garners

The John R. Garners, foster grandparents for several years to a half-dozen or more tots at their 803 Amapola Ave. day nursery, this week are welcoming the arrival of their first grandchild.

Born to their son and his wife, Sgt. and Mrs. John Robert Garner of Dayton, Ohio, the baby girl was born at 1:30 a. m. June 7, weighing 8 lbs. 18 oz. Father, stationed at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, and mother, daughter of the Michael Huggs of Boise, Idaho, have named her Catherine Louise after both grandmothers.

The Garners are celebrating the little miss' arrival and reminiscing about a recent vacation at the same time. The couple took a week and a half motor trip up through the Valley to the Redwoods, returning via the coast route. During the jaunt, they commemorated their 30th wedding anniversary.

Slate Card Party

Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., will be the setting next Tuesday, June 15, when the Royal Neighbors hold an 8 p. m. card party.

Prizes will be awarded for high scores in each game and refreshments will be served. Lucille Meyer, chairman, said.

Baptist Guild Seats Chiefs

Royal blue, white and gold carried out the installation theme of the Wilma Nash Fellowship Guild, junior high girls' organization sponsored by the El Nido Baptist Church, Friday night.

Officers installed at the group's first ceremony were Diane Pisel, president; Sandra Blue, vice-president; Charlotte Meyer, secretary-treasurer; Barbara Ecker, devotional chairman; Helen Crewse, White Cross chairman.

Mrs. Winell Smith spoke to the group, and Mrs. G. O. Branson, guild advisor, gave the invocation. Piano music was provided by Diane Pisel, and her mother, Mrs. Leland Pisel, installed the officers.

Honored guests were members of the church Circle and the Women's Missionary Unit.
