Daisy Theme Ceremonies To Mark Rites Set for 4 p.m.

Daisies will be the flower motif of the wedding of Charlotte Anderson and David Christensen, to be solemnized this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Anderson, 1230 Cota Ave., and Christensen is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Christensen of Ventura.

Wearing a bouffant dress designed by herself and hand-sewn by her mother, Miss Anderson will be attended by Beverly Simpson (nee Hill), matron of honor; Mmes. Loretta Foster (nee Hill) and Anna Lee Henthorne of Ventura, bridesmaids; Christensen has chosen Roland Henthorne as best man, and James and Phillip Christensen, his brothers, will be ushers.

Two ministers, the Rev. Frank Christensen, father of the bride, and Rev. C. Miles Northrup, will perform the ceremony. "Because" and "I Love You Truly" will be sung by Rev. Douglas Jeffrey, accompanied by organist Pat Clere.

A reception will follow the wedding at the church annex, where John Dorris will cut the cake and Ruth Hagelmaier will serve punch.

Relief Corps Gives Flag To Girl Scouts

Girl Scouts of Fern Ave. Greenwood PTA's Troop 1299 received an American flag from Woman's Relief Corps No. 100 of San Pedro when they gathered at the Scout Hall last Wednesday.

Making the presentation was Ethel Wirstad, patriotic instructor of the Corps.

Others attending from the group were the wife of a late Civil War veteran, Anna McCoy, who is senior vice-president; Maggie May Richards, president; Pauline Columbus, junior vice-president; Anna Wells, secretary; Belle Madione, conductor; Beale Morton treasurer; Grace Robinson, guard; Miriam Briggs, Angellia Fanlathe, Julia Fuller, and Eva Reasure, sunshine chairmen.

Conducting the color guard were Rose Dahlin, a Gold Star mother; Margaret Azic, Ada Ruddlell, and Bradlee.

On display during the meeting were scrapbooks recording events in Queen Elizabeth's life, sent to the troop by a Girl Guide group in Ireland.

The Scouts also made plans for a week's vacation at a Crestline cabin during August.

Sorority Holds Yesterday-wed Headleys Informal Party To Make Home in Lomita

Ending their brief week-end honeymoon this evening with plans to make their home in Lomita will be the former Miss Lenore Helen Rugg and Donald U. Headley, who entered the Mr. and Mrs. world following ceremonies at the Latter Day Saints Church here yesterday afternoon.

Bishop Calvin Wheat officiated at the 2 o'clock rites joining in marriage the daughter of the Minot F. Ruggs, 1500 W. 214th St., and son of the Miles J. Headleys, 25344 Walnut St., Lomita.

The bridal pair recited vows under a white archway entwined with ivy and summer flowers and flanked by baskets of matching posies.

For the occasion, the bride chose a white nylon net over satin ballerina-length gown, with matching, pearl-studded satin crown holding her veil in place. A single white, detachable orchid centered her white carnation bouquet.

Mrs. Richard Peterson, attending as matron of honor, was gowned in pink nylon net, also of the ballerina length, and carried a harmonizing bouquet of pink and white carnations. Ralph Wycoff served as best man while Raymond Headley and Richard Jay ushered.

Musically the nuptial note was set by David W. Jacob, who sang "With These Hands" and "Aloha" while Miss Carol Jacobs accompanied at the organ.

Immediately after the ceremony the 100 guests assembled in the church patio for a reception honoring the new pair. A white archway entwined with ivy and pastel flowers and baskets of matching flowers added a further note of color to the picturesque setting.

Mrs. Rugg received guests in a navy blue frock with white accessories, while Mrs. Headley chose a brown suit with yellow accessories. Both mothers wore deep-colored orchid corsages.

Aunts of the bride, Mmes. Clyde, Bodley and William Pierpont, presided at the refreshment table while her sister, Miss Sally Rugg, circulated the guest book.

"The new Mrs. Headley is a summer 1953 graduate of Narbonne High School, where she was active in the Philharmonic Club and GAA. Her husband, a winter, 1951 Gaucho grad, was affiliated with the Vigilantes and a track star. He served in the Army for three years.

Juniorettes Enjoy Party Fun in Polka Dot Paradise

Epsilon Sigma Alpha Juniorettes saw spots before their eyes when they held a social last Monday night at the 3331 W. 180th St. home of Miss Jackie Allen, but the girls weren't suffering from any rare disease.

"They simply chose 'Polka Dot Paradise' as the theme for their get-together and carried out the motif in curtains, candles, tablecloth, cup cakes, and even lemonade, which was "spotted" with green and red ice cubes.

"The young misses, who enjoyed bingo games and an auction sale during the evening, also carried out the polka dot theme in party costumes.

Dance Tuesday

Dancing is on schedule for the Royal Neighbors Tuesday night, June 29, when they will gather at 8 o'clock to enjoy music and rhythm of McDaniel's orchestra at the Womans Clubhouse on Engracia Ave.

Refreshments, planned by Mrs. Orville Duncan, will be served. The public is invited to attend, and tickets may be obtained at the door.

Travel to Iowa

Mrs. Gordon Arnold, 1424 Crenshaw Blvd., and her sister, Mrs. Nellie Snyder of Lomita are spending two weeks at their former home in Milford Ia.

The local women traveled by train to the Middle West following funeral services for their father, Hank Werkmeister, of Lomita. The body was shipped to the Iowa city for burial.

FETE RETIRING PRINCIPAL WITH 'ALOHA' LUNCHEON

Spring flowers entwined into the word "Aloha" carried out the theme of a luncheon given in honor of Miss Hilda Jellison, retiring principal, at the term's end by members of the 186th St. PTA executive board.

Attending teachers and board members found a Hawaiian lei at each place setting, and the tropical theme was further carried out at the head table with a Hawaiian girl, grass shack, and palm tree banked by dahlias, pansies, and hibiscus. Miss Jellison was presented with a purple orchid and received a television snack tray as a going-away present.

Also invited were bus drivers, custodians, the school nurse, and clerk.

A scroll indicating their graduation was at the place of 81 pupils of the A-6 class of the 186th St. School at a party given for them by PTA members and the student body. Cake, punch and ice cream were served to the students, soon to be enrolled in Gardena Junior High School. Place cards were prepared by the teachers, and Mesdames Paul Pisciotta and Charles Foster made the scrolls.

Surprising Mrs. James McMillen, retiring president of the PTA, was a party held for her by the executive board at the home of Miss Hilda Jellison. "Best Wishes Aloha" was inscribed on the cake, and Mrs. McMillen was presented with a china snack set and a purse.

Boy Scouts Hike to P.V.

Finding their way to their campsite with a map, two Explorers and 15 Boy Scouts of Troop 219 hiked Saturday morning from the Scout Hall to Palos Verdes hills for an overnight campout, a trip of 11 miles.

After four hours of hiking, the equipment-packing boys made camp and cooked their own supper. Their Scoutmaster, Ernest Swift, accompanied them, and William Sells checked the boys enroute at designated check points.

The Scouts returned home Sunday morning after having breakfast—this time by car.
