Moms To See Child Film

"Preface to a Life," a film on child training which shows the effects of good and bad upbringing on a child's life, will be shown at the Torrance Expectant Mothers' Class, Thursday, July 1, at 1 p.m., in the Torrance Health Center, 2800 Carson St., according to Miss Ercelia Franke, Public Health Nurse-instructor. Prospective fathers and mothers are invited, as these classes continue on without interruption and any session missed may be picked up during the next few weeks, Mrs. Franke said. There is no registration or other fee. The classes, which meet every Thursday afternoon, are an educational service of the County Health Department.

Shareholders Decline

The United States Steel Corporation had about 284,000 stockholders on May 7, a decline of about one-half per cent during the last six months, according to a report released by the company.

Independence Theme Makes 'Holiday' Opening Timely

The colorful "Knickerbocker Holiday," currently in rehearsal by the South Bay Civic Opera Association for a July 9 opening, has been chosen appropriately by Director Melville H. Tully as a timely addition to the Independence Day celebrations. The musical comedy by playwright Maxwell Anderson and composer Kurt Weill has as its underlying theme the capacity of a free people to govern themselves free from the dictates of one autocratic ruler, and thus illustrates one of the main facets of the early-American character.

In addition, the carefree comedy of old New York in the 17th century contains one of the most unusual romantic themes in the history of the musical theater, Tully said. It features a score of some 25 hits, among them the American classic, "September Song." Featuring a cast of some of the finest talent in Torrance and neighboring cities, the new musical promises an evening of delightful entertainment for the entire family, Tully added. Tickets may be ordered by calling FR 2-0925 or FR 4-2018. Representing the 19th production in the sixth year of the active Opera Group, "Knickerbocker Holiday" will play Friday and Saturday evenings, July 9, 10, 16 and 17, with a Sunday afternoon Matinee on July 11. All performances will be at Redondo High Auditorium.

Student In Six Week Summer Camp Training

Donald C. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Thompson, 1781 W. 235th St., is now attending a six-week ROTC summer camp at Fort Eustis, Va. Thompson, a junior at Washington and Jefferson College at Washington, Pa., is participating in transportation corps training which will end July 30. Training includes convoy operations, stevedoring, and amphibious and rail operations, mine warfare, and air and helicopter operations.

Harry Fralich Serves In Korea with Marines

Torrance High School graduate Harry Fralich, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fralich of 1226 Hickory Ave., is serving in Korea with the Fourth Battalion of the 11th Marines.

Fralich took his boot training at San Diego, his advanced at Camp Pendleton, and requested active duty for a two year tour. He arrived in Korea June 14. The youth was graduated from Torrance High in the spring of '53 and wore a cast on his leg at the time. He broke the limb in a scrimmage prior to the first football game of the season.

His father is a retired Navy chief radioman now working at the Naval Shipyard in electronics.

HEAVY ANIMALS

North America's three heaviest animals are the bison, Alaska brown bear and the moose. A bull buffalo weighs up to a ton, the bear and moose up to 1600 pounds.

Elected Mayor

Torrance High Student Honored at Boys' State

A Torrance High School Junior, Joe Fazio, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fazio, 3721 W. 177th St., has been elected mayor of the mythical city of Burnett at California Boys' State in Sacramento.

One of two Torrance boys attending the annual program, Fazio is president-elect of the senior class at Torrance High School. Boys considered outstanding juniors in their high schools are selected to attend.

Fazio was one of 24 mayors of municipalities chosen at the annual laboratory in government. More than 750 boys from all parts of California are attending the week-long program. Each will receive some state, county, or city office, and learn its duties.

Although he has attended Torrance High School only one year, Fazio is a member of the Key Club and the Tartar Knights, has played football, and lettered in track. He is also a Sea Scout. After graduation from high school, Fazio plans to attend college, but his plans for a major are indefinite.
