

Twelve Area Women to Attend Republican Meet

Twelve local women will participate in the National Federation of Republican Women's Convention, which will be held for the first time west of St. Louis in Los Angeles from Sept. 21 to 23.

Highlighting three days of active sessions will be an address by President Eisenhower in the Hollywood Bowl on Sept. 23. His appearance will be under the auspices of the National Federation of Republican Women, Citizens for Eisenhower and Democrats for Eisenhower.

Mrs. Clayton Thomas of Redondo Beach, president of the South Bay Club of Republican Women, will serve the convention as both delegate and national chairman of souvenirs. Other convention officials from the area will include Mrs. Ronald Dearden of Palos Verdes, who will assist with registration; Mrs. Edwin P. Crall of Redondo Beach, who will act as a convention hostess; and Mrs. W. G. Jerrens III, who is chairman of transportation for the South Bay area.

Area women who will take part in convention activities are: Mmes. Clyde Haslet of Torrance; S. D. Johnston of Hollywood Riviera; Margaret Moodie of Redondo Beach; Carl Ledell of Hermosa Beach; Kathleen Smale of Manhattan Beach; and John Thorburn of El Segundo.

The Peninsula Republican Women's group will be represented by Mrs. Richard Key, president, and Mrs. John Prothers.

A star-studded program of leading government figures will spark the three day conference, which will be composed of women from all over the United States, Alaska and Hawaii. National President, Mrs. Carroll D. Kearns, wife of Congressman Kearns of Pennsylvania, will open sessions.

Double ring ceremonies united Miss Virginia Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Buchanan of 1807 W. 215th St. and Wayne C. Hollins of 21131 Brighton Ave. at the First Methodist Church Friday evening. After a honeymoon in Northern California, they will establish their home in Baldwin City, Kans., where both will enroll at Baker University.

DAV Enjoys Picnic Dinner

Picnic potluck dinner was served Friday evening by officers and members of South Bay Chapter and Auxiliary 92, Disabled American Veterans. During a business meeting after the picnic, Mrs. Henry Niles, commander of the Auxiliary announced that the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Cyril Weber is at Hawthorne Community Hospital recovering from a surgical operation. It was also reported that members have completed 250 soaker pads for the Sawtelle Veterans' Hospital.

Attending were William Hardesty, commander of the chapter and his wife and two daughters; Mrs. Niles and her two sons; Mr. and Mrs. James G. Caldwell; Mmes. Flomina Mirabella, Margaret Bradford, Ella Megill, Elsie Rush; Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Carrier and son; Mr. and Mrs. Portnoy and three daughters; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Settler; Garland Denty, Myron P. Gerton, Mr. and Mrs. Ross M. McCollum; William Kalfleisch, Jack Wendy, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard.

Nativity Youth To Visit Bowl

A trip to the Hollywood Bowl Disc Jockey Charity Show. A tentative agenda for September was scheduled by attending officers and members, and by-laws were set up. Miss Shirley Moody, who is currently vice-president of the organization also will serve as social chairman.

Lomita Pair Get Message From MARS

A "phone patch" chat with their son, Corp. Joseph Brumbelow, brightened the day recently for the C. M. Brumbelow, Sr. of 24200 Allene Ave., Lomita.

The Army man stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J., as operator of the radar and radio station MARS, contacted his parents through a "ham" operator in Santa Monica. Through a combination of telephone and radio, the Brumbelows learned that their son has been recommended for a sergeant's rank because of meritorious service and will be discharged in October.

The Brumbelow's daughter, Mrs. Irene McCrosson, who is assistant editor of the Vel-de-Nez Music News, has signed a contract for publication of her song, "Bound, Chained, and Imprisoned," with Jimmy Wakely Songs, a B. M. I. publisher. The song will soon be recorded on Carol Label by Tommy Duncan.

MISS ANITA WHITTER Wed at Sparta, N.C.

Former THS Miss Marries

Announcing the marriage of her daughter, Miss Anita Whitter, this week is Mrs. Fairy Whitter of 2014 Torrance Blvd.

The attractive miss, a former student at Torrance High School, exchanged vows recently with Clifton E. Boyles of Fries, Va., where she has been making her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Florence Shupe. Ceremonies were performed at Sparta, N.C.

The former local girl also attended Roosevelt High School and while in Torrance was employed at the Stadium and Torrance Theaters and at Helen and Vestie's Cafe, now the Gramercy Cafe. She is now working at Washington Mills Co. in Fries. Her husband, also a Washington Mills Co. employee, was recently discharged from the U. S. Army.

Niccolo Blumes Enjoy Big Bear Vacation Trip

Fishing at Big Bear Lake sparked the week-long vacation trip of Mr. and Mrs. Niccolo Blume of 911 B Annapola Ave. The Torrance couple also enjoyed dining at some of the resort's restaurants, and visiting with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hayes and son Bobby, who is 7.

Slate First Money-maker

Plans for a rummage sale on Sept. 10 were completed last week when the executive board of the Torrance Woman's Club met at the 1605 Beech Ave. home of the president, Mrs. Ruth Rogers.

The sale, which heralds money-making projects of the club for 1954-55, will be held at the clubhouse, 1442 Engracia Ave., beginning at 9 a. m., Mrs. Victor D. Benard, ways and means chairman, reported.

Attending the session were Mmes. Rogers, Benard, Frances Boswell, A. F. R. Ewalt, H. L. Mitchell, M. A. Bauman, Grover C. Van Deventer, May Sherley, and D. J. Thomsen.

GUILD PLANS FIRST MEET

First fall session of the Ladies' Guild, Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, will convene next Wednesday, Sept. 8, at the Guild Hall, 1543 Marcellina Ave.

Meeting will come to order at 2 p. m., with Mrs. Ludwig Miller, new president, conducting the agenda. Mrs. G. A. Mothersell will lead devotionals, and hostesses for the afternoon social hour will be Mmes. Ray Harper and Percy Smith.

Aquarians to Hear Formula For Success

Jerry Ferre will talk to members of the Aquarians on "Ingredients for Success" tomorrow night when the group gathers at the Neptunian Club, 920 Highland Ave., Manhattan Beach at 8 o'clock.

Ferre has studied under Dr. Frederick Bales, Munley P. Hall, and the Meta-Science Group. He was a special service officer in World War II with the Air Force in India, and is now a Science of Mind practitioner and assistant at the Church of Divine Light in North Hollywood.

In talking of ingredients for success, Ferre will speak of inner qualities that great souls of past ages developed to achieve success. The public is invited to attend the Aquarian-sponsored talk, and there is no admission charge. For further information, call FR 4-7798 or FR 2-9869.
