North Torrance Residents Enjoy Trips Over Labor Day Week-end

Returning is always a nice part of a vacation. You are back to the life of your choice and yet you have memories of all the wonderful times and friends and places you visited.

Labor Day was widely observed by North Torrance residents. The John Crains, with Larry and Cliff, 3759 W. 171st St., camped at Ensenada for a week-end of pool swimming and lounging interrupted only by Larry's illness. After a visit to the doctor he felt much better!

The C. M. Leitchweiss, 3758 W. 171st St., spent the day at Tijuana shopping for leather goods, perfumes, and almost anything else that took their fancy.

The Wendell Towells, Peter Bruce, and Ralph Gastelum spent Labor Day at Centinela Park.

Sunday night Ralph and Connie Gastelum, of 17507 Ermanita Ave., saw Ralph's niece, Della Garcia, crowned Queen of the Chiribusco, at the Black and White Ball held at the Breakfast Club in Los Angeles.

Connie couldn't begin to describe the beautiful profusion of white ball gowns at the affair. Rachel and Art Sepulveda, of Gardena, also attended the ball.

Helen and Richard Ferrin and Phyllis spent three days at Crestline with four other families, swimming in Lake Gregory, horseback riding, playing miniature golf and fishing at Arrowhead.

The Ferrins deserved a holiday after the beautiful job they did of painting their home, at 17503 Faysmith Ave. It's now a lovely cocoa brown with white and yellow trim.

A group camped at Bouquet Canyon then spent a day at Lake Elizabeth. They were the Bob Richters, Delbert Alford, Gordon Woods, Hamilton Blacks, Bill McCauslands, and Jack Lancaster.

The Ed Collins and Dave Dyers drove up from Lancaster for breakfast. Ann and Ed Collins had spent the holiday with the Dyers.

The Russell Holechek family, of 17533 Glenburn Ave., spent the week-end visiting relatives in Bakersfield.

A gal with real zest and enthusiasm in keeping up with her active family, is Millie Osnes, of 17408 Glenburn Avenue, who with her husband, John, and children, Myrna and Jan, camped at Idyllwild and fished in the nearby streams.

All this time, the stork is flying closer and closer.

Helen and Reese Holbrook, of 17512 Cerise Ave., and children, Brock and Gary, drove to China Lake to give Helen's parents a look at her fashionable new hairdo.

One of the Labor Day casualties, Vincent Ferriola, shattered his ankle after dropping an engine on it. Yes... an engine!

The Duane Sherwoods, 17204 Ardath Ave., spent their vacation at a ranch in Grant's Pass, Ore., visiting Martha's sister.

The scenery was breathtaking, the fishing in Applegate River terrific, and the drive down the Redwood Highway wonderful, but more deeply impressed in the mind of Duane Sherwood is the memory of a horse trained for children to ride. Seems the horse became bored and stopped, Duane went on! Several hours were spent plucking gravel... and his dignity was injured too!

Martha was showered with telephone calls, gifts and American Beauty roses on her arrival home... 'twas birthday time again!

Two birthdays of Stitch and Chatter Club members were celebrated at the home of Mrs. Norman Bruffy, of 2711 W. 176th St., with a "Come As You Are" breakfast.

The two dubiously honored guests were the only ones surprised! Aren't those Stitching Chatterers mean? The surprised gals were: Janet Ferriola and Vern Wilson. They were presented with jewelry and half of the birthday cake.

Hostesses were: Mesdames Bruffy; Robert Clark, Leland Van De Venter, Cecil Stevens and Francis Stoeckle.

Virginia Morgan, Evelyn Holechek, Jan Bates, and Ilene Allison lunched at the Brown Derby then attended the "Queen For A Day" Show.

Everyone is having a baby in the 174th St. block of Glenburn Ave. or so it seems! But the Chas. A. Dills, 17415 Glenburn Ave., have had the only boy on the street.

He's Bruce Vincent and he was born at Angelus hospital. He has another brother, Dennis, and two sisters, Georgia and Teresa.

Decorations Committee for the coming luncheon for teachers given by the Executive Board of Carr Elementary PTA met at the home of Mrs. J. Herman Cortez to finish up the monkeys and leis to be used in carrying out an Hawaiian theme. Members of the committee are: Mesdames W. Towell, J. R. Allison, C. Leitchweiss, and J. H. Cortez. The luncheon will be held Sept. 13.

"An Apple For The Teacher" Decorating and brightening the block at 17515 Cerise Ave., is a gorgeous new car in a jewel-like Spanish red. The Roy Culps picked it up at Kenosha, Wis., and drove to Milwaukee for a holiday.

On their return home they stopped in Ponca City, Okla., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark, and attended a family reunion at which 40 were present. About this time the Clarks also celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary, so it was quite an exciting visit!

will be the theme of North Torrance Elementary PTA executive board members when they entertain the teachers at luncheon on Sept. 15.

On the planning committee: Mesdames Joe Begendo, M. Pello, Charles Stauffer, John Hale, Don McMillan, W. J. McCausland, Robert Richter, G. Babb, D. Sherwood and F. Stoeckle.
